

Annual School Meeting.

For District No. 56 will be held at Samuelson's Hall, first Monday in April, at 7 o'clock p. m. A full attendance is requested.

A. MOORE, Director.

LOCAL NEWS.

The fact is, this weather is too windy to be successfully utilized.

Mr. Darrah's business house is one of the best in town. It is about enclosed.

The Holdrege gets up better "grub" than any other hotel in southern Nebraska.

Messrs. Ike Sears and H. C. Rowe, of Brownville are digging a well for the Holdrege.

J. C. McNaughton, ass't cashier First National Bank, Brownville, was in the city Tuesday.

Mr. Buchele's business house is about finished. It has the nicest glass front in town, to date.

Mr. Robert McKeo, of Tecumseh, accompanied by his wife and daughter, and Mrs. —, spent Sunday in the city.

Henry W. Longfellow, the greatest of American poets, died at his home in Cambridge, Mass., on the 25th inst., aged 75 years.

Mr. J. D. Croan, we notice, is making garden and building a good fence around his lots. Mr. C. sets a good example for his neighbors.

A gentleman by the name of Wallace is starting a dairy near town. He will furnish a limited number with nice fresh milk, delivered at your house for five cents a quart.

We learn that the iron is being delivered in Nemaha City for the extension of the R. & M. R. R. to the spot where the transfer boats will operate on the Missouri river.

The Senate committee on the improvement of the Mississippi and tributaries has agreed upon a bill appropriating $5,000,000 for the Mississippi and $1,000,000 for the Missouri river.

Prof. J. V. Parker, of Lincoln, Neb., is visiting our new and thriving town. He is well pleased with Calvert. He believes it will number over a thousand before the coming in of another new year.

B. B. Hoadley and John D. Rainey, late head clerk in Nickell's drug store, Brownville, will start for Chicago Monday next to purchase their stock of drugs, etc., to be opened in Brownville in the Lowman building.

The Albany astronomers have found a new comet. It is not visible yet to the naked eye; but as it is approaching the earth at a velocity of 2,000,000 miles a day, it will be seen ere long. It is computed that this comet will not come nearer the earth than 80,000,000 of miles.

Brownville gentlemen claim that it will be impossible to move the county seat, not from any merit that Brownville may possess, for none is claimed, but purely on account of the jealousies of the other towns, which will not admit of an agreement on one place. This, at first glance may seem a ridiculous hope upon which to found an important proposition, yet it is possible, for people do sometimes bite off their own nose to spite their face.

We learn that a terrible accident happened at Brownville Tuesday morning. Milton Mr. Shubert, a prosperous farmer just south of Aspinwall, while driving into town along the street that runs parallel with the B. & M. railroad, the Calvert train was just starting, his horses became frightened, threw Mr. S. out of his wagon, killing him instantly. The team ran down the bank and into the river and instantly disappeared beneath the water.

Some bloodthirsty individual in Humboldt a few nights ago attempted to assassinate E. B. Stephens, Esq., an attorney of that place, by firing a pistol in his face, which fortunately did no further injury than to graze his brow, drawing blood. When the outrage was committed Mr. S was going into his own door. He returned the fire, but without effect. Mr. Stephens was engaged in prosecuting the odorous Dr. Gandy at the time, for some crime or other.

A call is made in this issue for a meeting to consider the feasibility of holding a county fair at the center of the county. This is another move in the right direction, consistent with the enthusiasm and enterprise which are now characteristic of the people in this locality, and which are attracting the attention and establishing the confidence of the people generally. Let us re-establish county agricultural fairs in the heart of the "Garden County." Let the resolve be made that it shall be and there will be no failure. The grounds and buildings may not be very attractive or commodious at the first effort, yet such will not be expected, and whatever conveniences that may be improvised will be accepted by our intelligent farmers. Let there be no going back on the fair question.

COUNTY FAIR.

Shall we Have one at Calvert-Sheridan.

There will be a public meeting of all interested in having a county fair this fall, at Samuelson's Hall, in Calvert, April 8th, Saturday, at 2 o'clock p. m. Scatter the news. Let all the farmers come. MANY CITIZENS.

Band Oyster, Supper.

The Sheridan band boys will give an oyster supper Friday evening March 31st, 1882, in Gilmore's Hall, Sheridan, Neb., for the purpose of raising money to procure new instruments. Besides the oysters a "ring cake" will be sold by numbered pieces, the one buying the lucky number taking the $5 ring. Also two cakes will be voted—one to the most accomplished young lady present, and to the homeliest man present. A cane will be voted to the most popular editor of the center present. Every body invited. Admission to hall free.

New Goods! Arriving every day, and will be sold way down at bottom figures. Call and see me at my new store, first door south of Dillon, Croan & Co.'s drug store.

H. FREYTAG.

Mr. R. O. Philips, treasurer and secretary of the Lincoln land company, while in Calvert last week invited the school trustees to his room and talked with them upon the matter of building a school house, giving some valuable admonitions against encumbering the district with debts. He said that people everywhere in the west had a wholesome dread of towns and cities loaded down with bonds and taxes—a patent truth. Mr. Philips generously donated two splendid lots, being the northwest corner on Carson and Daily streets—an elevated and beautiful location.

For Sale.

One good wheat drill. One Excelsior Mower. One Malta Cultivator. One Wood wire Self binding harvester, almost new.

All of which will be sold very cheap for cash or on time, purchaser giving note with approved security. For particulars inquire at the drug store of Dillon, Croan & Co. J. D. CROAN, Calvert, Neb.

Therefore business men of Nemaha county should bear in mind that THE ADVERTISER has a large subscription list that is constantly increasing. We have at least double the subscription of any other paper in the county.

Sheridan is getting ready—spurred up by our suggestions to Calvert—to plant trees all over their town. That's business, and we hope Calvert will not be behind in that cheap but grand ornamentation.

What are our sportsmen banging away at the wild geese for? Just to scare them? It's not against the law to kill geese.

Calvert grows right along. Any business will prosper here, as it commands the best portion of the trade of the county.

Mr. Browning, of the Marsh House, returned from a visit to his "old Kentucky home," Tuesday, last week. Mr. B. is just getting over a severe attack of mumps.

There was a row at Rauschkolb's saloon Friday evening last between the aforesaid and a severe Temple of Honor man.

The court docket printed in the Post last week is a sweet scented specimen of conciseness, intelligibility, perspicuity, elegance, aesthetic symmetry and artistic beauty. Hence we can't see why the lawyers say the fellow who got it up must be a damfool.

Mr. Ford came into the city Friday morning, and soon thereafter a pavement caucus of the Carson town company was held.

The Granger's big, slobbery, fulsome puff of Brownville last week is sneered at by the sensible portion of those whose "all" is here, as a sickly effort to curry favor; for, while a boom for the old town is hoped for as a thing of the future, it certainly is not visible to the naked eye at present.

It is a fixed fact, we learn, that Johnny Thompson, son of the assistant postmaster, will begin the publication of a newspaper here very soon. He borrowed the money, with which to purchase his outfit, of his uncle Smith Thompson, Brownville capitalist declining to "put up" on it.

Heavy rain and hail storm here Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Dolen, late merchant of Sheridan is in the city taking a rest. He says he will not open a store in Calvert—not right away at least. Mr. C. Howe said he wouldn't all the time.

Frank Johnson was at St. Louis the other day in the interest of the projected Northwestern R. R.—from Burlington Junction to this city. Frank says it is coming in spite of hell and high water. That may all be, but he will have to include Jay Gould for a solid majority.

The County Commissioners will meet Friday April 7th.

Tom. Richar's will remove to Calvert soon as he can put up a building.

Luther R. sticks to it that that "glandered" mare is about well. Luther is death on glanders.

Judge Pound, arrived in town Monday evening and opened court Tuesday.

The Fannie Arnold Concert has been postponed to some time in the latter part of April, at which time we expect a rich musical treat. Due notice of the time will be given.
