SOME MORE POETRY.

Poets.

DEDICATED TO MY FRIEND ARTHUR V. WALSH.

Poets are a wondrous thing,
With spontaneous growth they spring;
Some have merit of true worth,
Others, of no use upon the earth.

Your production makes me smile,
For I think of the Emerald Isle;
From what depths you've brought yourself,
To get upon the poet's shelf.

May you find a smiling partner,
To go with the poet, Arthur;
And I'll welcome the duet,
When you've caught the darling pet.

D. J. Wood.

Dog.

The dogs, the dogs, the beautiful dogs,
Who bask in the sun
And bark just for fun.
Who sit on walks the posture of frogs.
With colors so gay,
They gambol and play.

The dogs, the dogs the rascally dogs,
That bite at the cow,
And tear the old sow,
And run a mile to bark at the hogs.
And howl all night
In the pale moonlight.

The dogs, the dogs, the city bred dogs,
Who's numbers are vast,
Who grow very fast,
Who fight in the streets and draw the big crowd
Whose owner's away
On assessment day.

D. J. Wood.

The Poet of Calvert.

We are pleased to see that our friend, A. V. W., has reached such a high degree of proficiency in the poetic art, and sincerely congratulate him upon his recent successful attempt in that strain. We have read, with no little satisfaction, his poetical effusion in a recent issue of THE ADVERTISER, and do not hesitate to pronounce it a perfect master-piece, and a poem worthy of the consummate skill and natural genius of the author.

We earnestly hope that the gods, the ever-loving and zealous patrons of verse and melody, will, ere long, present him with the glorious "Ivy Crown" of immortality, as a lasting proof of the unbounded confidence they repose in him, and raise him, as centuries ago they raised those heavenly sent messengers of love and harmony, "to the converse of the gods above."

May the beautiful Euterpe, the sweetly-singing muse of music, propitiously rest her fair hand upon his modest brow, and sweetly deign to favor his undertakings in the poetic art, and may the charming, rosy-fingered Polyphymnia gracefully set to music his words, and extend to the poet of Calvert a continuous strain of song, so that we may often be favored with similar productions. A. V. C.

The sentiment in favor of John L. Carson, of Brownville, for Governor, is growing very strong in this county and should Mr. Carson allow his name to be used, we believe that it would be received with favor throughout this part of the State. Ever since the Enterprise seconded his nomination, and called the attention of Pawnee county to his probable candidacy, Mr. Carson has been mentioned with favor by our citizens, irrespective of party. There is no doubt of his popularity, or of the faith people here have in his integrity. —Pawnee Enterprise.

Our thanks are due Mr. Docker, county clerk, and his efficient and accommodating deputy, Mr. Fort, for their kindness and promptness in sending us proceedings of the county commissioners last week.

Of all the free milling ore bodies in Colorado to-day, our district, so far as developed, has proven itself to be the freest, richest, and most extensive.—Pitkin Independent.

Bullock is butting away at those professors. The latter occasionally kick Bullock out of time, but he's up and at 'em again with all the ferocity of a bullock.

Experience the Best Guide.

The reason why women everywhere use Parker's Ginger Tonic is, because they have learned by experience—the best guide—that this excellent medicine overcomes despondency, periodical headache, indigestion, pain in the back, and kidneys, and other troubles of the sex.—Home Journal.

Insist upon obtaining Floreston Cologne. It is pre-eminently superior in permanence and rich delicacy of fragrance.

COL. L. T. FOSTER.

Youngstown, Ohio, May 10th, 1880

Dr. B. J KENDALL & Co Gents:—I had a very valuable trambletonian colt which I prized very highly, he had a large bone spavin on one joint and a small one on the other which made him very lame; I had him under the charge of two veterinary surgeons which failed to cure him. I was one day reading the advertisement of Kendall's Spavin Cure in the Chicago Express, I determined at once to try it, and got our druggists to send for it, they ordered three bottles; I took them all and thought I would give it a thorough trial, I used it according to directions and the fourth day the colt ceased to be lame, and the lumps have disappeared. I used but one bottle and the colts limbs are as free from lumps and as smooth as a horse in the state. He is entirely cured. The cure was so remarkable that I let two of my neighbors have the remaining two bottles, who are now using it. Very Respectfully,

L. T. FOSTER.

PRICKLY ASH BITTERS

Prickly Ash Bitters are especially compounded for this purpose. They are mild in their action and effective as a cure; are pleasant to the taste and taken easily by both children and adults. Taken according to directions, they are a safe and pleasant cure for Dyspepsia, General Debility, Habitual Constipation, Diseased Kidneys, etc., etc. As a Blood Purifier *they are superior to any other medicine; cleansing the system thoroughly, and imparting new life and energy to the invalid. A combination of Protoxide of Iron, Peruvian Bark and Phosphorus in a palatable form. The only preparation of iron that will not blacken the teeth, so characteristic of other iron preparations.

GENTLEMEN:—I have used DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC in my practice, and in an experience of twenty-five years in medicine, have never found anything to give the results that DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC does. In many cases of Nervous Prostration, Female Diseases, Dyspepsia, and an impoverished condition of the blood, this peerless remedy, has in my hands, made some wonderful cures. Cases that have baffled some of our most eminent physicians, have yielded to this great and incomparable remedy. I prescribe it in preference to any iron preparation made. In fact, such a compound as DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC is a necessity in my practice. DR. ROBERT SAMUELS.
