It is with pride that we can call the attention of our local readers to the tine business houses established in Auburn, and those who have been compelled to go to other points for their hardware, their agricultural implements and machinery, their dry goods and groceries, their millinery goods, their drugs medicines, oils, paints, etc., their jewelry purchases or repairs, their furmiture, their lumber, their blacksmithing-should overcome their force of habit in plodding away to Brownville, Nebraska City, Humboldt or Tecumseh to do their trading, and give Auburn a trial; for we boast of as large stocks in the lines above named as any of those towns, and we have all the competition necessary to warrant satisfaction as to the price of goods.

The logislature has done nothing as yet toward districting the state, more than to introduce bills. If there were about forty congressmen to elect instead of three, the thing would be more easily done and give more general satisfaction to aspirants to congressional honors.

The society of "Irish Republican Brotherhood" have issued a proclamation indorsing the assassination of Cavendish and Burke. In reviewing the wrongs of Ireland, the proclamation is well calculated to stir to the depths the hearts of all Irishmen. Of the two assassinated officials, it says: "As to the monster Burke, he had preyed upon the lives and liberties of preyed upon the lives and liberties of on approved security only. Time Drafts discount his countrymen for many years, and rs. Dealers in GOVERNMENT BONDS. had deserved death a thousand times STATE, COUNTY & CITY SECURITIES at our hands; and as to Lord Frederick Cavendish, a lineal descendant of the infamous Lord Broughill, who hanged the gallant and parriotic Maceagan, Bishop of Ross, at Carvigadrohid, because he would not betray his country, his very name stinks in the J. C. McNaconton, Asst Cashier. nostrils of the Irish people by the iniquities of his brother, Lord Hartington, and the wholesale evictions of his father, the Duke of Devonshire, thereby driving thousands of the rightful owners of the soil to the poorhouse, exile and death." It scores Parnell; and appeals to sympathizing Americans as follows: "We ask out friends in America to ponder upon our desperate circumstances; to think of brave and honorable people driven to despair by witnessing the white bosoms of our women torn open by the bayonets of English mercenaries; and our children of tender age shot down in the high-ways, while our wails of anguish are stifled in blood."

COL. L. T. FOSTER.

Youngstown, Ohio, May 10th, 1885 Dr. B. I. KENDALL & Co., Gents ;-- I had a very valuable Hambletonian colt which I prized very highly, he had a large bone spavin on one joint and a small one on the other which made him very lame; I had him under the charge of S W 30 5 13—160 two veterinary surgeons which failed to cure him. I was one day reading the advettisement of Kendall s Spavin Cure in the Chicago Express, I determined at once to try it, and got our druggists to send for it, they ordered three buttles; I took them all and thought I would give it a thorough trial, I used it according to directions and the fourth day the colt ceased to be lame, and the lumps have disappeared. I used but one bottle and the solts limbs are as free from lumps and as smooth as any horse in the state. He is entirely cured. The cure was so remarkable that Hettwo of my neighbors have the remaining two bettles, who are now using it Vary Respectfully, L. T. FOSTER.

> Kendall's Spavin Cure. Send address for Illustrated Circul r which we think gives positive proof of its virtues. No remedy has ever met with such unqualified success to our knowledge, for beast as well as man.
