Mutual Life Association of Iowa.

Visit Dillon, Croan & Co.'s drug store for low prices in everything.

—School books and all miscellaneous books at Nickell's drug store.

C. S. Hotchkiss, of Johnson, paid THE ADVERTISER a pleasant visit last Thursday.

Mrs. Simmons' business house in Brownville was torn down last week to remove it out to South Auburn.

Dress Goods in great profusion at Devin & Fisher's. Lawns, Piques, and fine Worsteds at remarkably low prices.

Devin & Fisher are on hand with a fine stock of Dry Goods, Groceries, Boots, Shoes, Hats and Notions. Don't fail to call and examine their stock.

James P. Henry, publisher of the Western Farm and Home, Atchison, Kansas, spent a part of last week in Auburn, looking after the interests of his paper.

L. L. Hulburd, Esq., started for Colorado Monday morning last. His destination is Pitkin, a famous mining town in Gunnison county. May Lee strike it rich.

Thos. Richards, "Regulator," has ordered another car load of those famous Buckeye Harvesters and Binders. They are the most complete machine manufactured.

Our advertising has got to be so extensive that we have not much room for anything else, hence, after this week, we will issue two pages extra, making our paper ten pages instead of eight.

On Monday, June 5th, Dr. Messler, of Falls City, will be at the residence of Prof. J. R. Dye, where he will attend to all parties desiring dental work.
He visits South Auburn June 6-7; North Auburn, June 8-9.

Buckeye Table Rake Binder and Mower is known all over the world as being the leading machine. It is a front cut, and the rake is detached from the reel. Can govern the rake so as to make any sized bundle.

Your attention is directed to Mr. S.
Welch's card, which appears in another column. If you need anything in the furniture line, you can find just what you want at this establishment, and at prices that will suit you.

The river is washing away the bottom now on the Missouri side, opposite Brownville, on a magnificent scale, and Scott City is threatened to be swept entirely away. The largest house in town was sold a few days ago for $50, and torn down.

The NEMAHA VALLEY MILL, formerly known as "Allen's," now owned by Mr. Joseph Curtis, is located on the Little Nemaha river, four miles from Auburn. It has no superior in the west as to location, improved machinery, and the excellence of the flour it turns out. Mr. Curtis has one of the best millers in the country, and we know by actual experience that flour bearing the brand of the Nemaha Valley Mill is not excelled by any in this market.

Uncle Jimmie Ginder's new dwelling is looming up.

Try Homewood & Shiffer's flour—popular with every family—and you will have no other.

Mrs. E. J. Monahan, who has such marvelous success in treating sore eyes, will be in Nemaha City on Monday, June 19th, to administer to those who want to be cured. She will stop at Crim's boarding house. Remember the time and place.

J. G. P. Hildebrand, traveling correspondent of the St. Joseph Gazette, and an old friend of the junior of THE ADVERTISER, spent Friday night in this city. Hildebrand is a jolly good fellow and one of the very best traveling newspaper men in the west. We wish him success.

Business men are well served by THE ADVERTISER. It radiates from the center to the circumference of Nemaha county, with a very large subscription list, going to every neighborhood and postoffice. There are very few families in the county that do not either read or hear of everything published in THE ADVERTISER.

The Tecumseh Torchlight says Sheridan and Calvert were dubbed Auburn "from the fact that a large number of red headed women dwell in 'Sweet Auburn!' loveliest village of the plain!" That will do pretty well, Al. If a real witty editor can't get off something cute in 1700 terrible efforts, why, he had better suspend in that line and try his hand on poetry.

A farmer starting for Brownville last week for a large bill of furniture for his new house came into Auburn, and, learning of the splendid stock just being displayed by Mr. Welch, made his purchase. The big stocks of Auburn, are a great benefit to the people, as the above instance illustrates. That man got what he wanted at reasonable prices, and saved traveling a round trip of 25 miles.

For Sale or Rent.
The business house at Howe station now used for the postoffice. Possession given July 1st, 1882.
49w4 D. M. MORRIS.

Sweet Potato Plants at Fur-nas Farm, Brownville, Nebraska.

Useless Fright.
To worry about any Liver, Kidney or Urinary trouble, especially Bright's Disease or Diabetes, as Hop Bitters never fails of a cure where a cure is possible. We know this.

Farmers! Farmers!

It is invented—a perfect Daisy. It's the Buckeye Cord Binder, now on exhibition at Calvert. Advice: Give no order, and buy no machine, until you have seen all kinds for sale by the "Regulator," Thos. Richards. The Buckeye Harvester and Binder gets away with any machine ever yet put on the market.

Lace Remnants at McGee & Moore's.

Notice of Dissolution.
Notice is hereby given that the partnership heretofore existing between Herbert Willson and W. W. Harmon, under the firm name of Willson & Harmon is this day dissolved by mutual consent, W. W. Harmon retiring and Herbert Willson assuming all debts and liabilities, and is to receive all accounts and monies due said firm.
HERBERT WILLSON.
W. W. HARMON.

Fine line of ladies' slippers at J. L. Mc- Gee's, Brownville.

Dr. G. H. Collins, Dentist, Visits the following places in the following order, each month: Brownville, 1st to 7th.
Nemaha City, 8th and 9th.
South Auburn, 10th, 11th and 12th.
Brock, 13th, 14th and 25th.
If you wish to save money, and your teeth, hold your dental work for Dr. G.
H. Collins. 49-4f

Boston baked beans at J. L. McGee's.
