

LOCAL NEWS.

David Campbell, of Brownville, was in the city Tuesday.

Robert Bryant's new house on Piper street is almost ready for occupancy.

Miss Louisa Watson, of Brownville, is in the city, the guest of Mrs. Cross.

Captain B. M. Bailey went to Chicago last Thursday, with a large lot of cattle.

J. C. Bousfield, county treasurer, paid a flying visit to South Auburn Wednesday.

Mr. C. A. Lyman has moved into Mr. Darral's neat little cottage, on Majors street.

Arthur Paris has purchased H. Swartz' tasty dwelling and will soon move in.

Mrs. Simmons is having material brought on the ground for her new store building.

Mr. Lyon and his assistants have commenced work on the new Catholic church building.

Hank Wert is building a new and more commodious postoffice than the one now in use.

Hon. Church Howe was in the city last Sunday, looking none the worse for his recent illness.

Mr. Howard, of Tecumseh, is having the foundation laid for a new business house on Centre Avenue.

Mr. Harms has caught the prevailing mania for improvement and is putting an addition 16x22 to his business house.

D. B. Colhapp, of Tecumseh, an old-time friend of the ADVERTISER, and one of the best boys in the country, was in the city last Sunday.

Mr. Welch, the furniture man, already finds his large business house too small for his increasing trade and will at once build an addition 16x24.

The stock market is on a boom. A fat hog or steer will bring almost as much in the market now as would a healthy nigger baby before the war.

A number of our business men are putting up handsome awnings. McGee & Moore, Willing & Bro., Welch and others are adding these useful appendages to their respective places of business.

A card received from Dr. A. L. Fulton states that he has located at North Canyonville, Douglass county, Oregon. The Doc. says he is in a mining town, that is having a boom, and his prospects are good.

S. A. Osborn—or Auburn, just as you please—is in the "Deserted Village" again this week, and as usual, is kept busy hunting up the corners of town lots. If our village continues to be "deserted" as at present, Steph. will require an assistant.

The court in banc is finally heard from, and Guiteau is refused a new trial, the court unanimously affirming judgment of the court below. Reed, the assassin's attorney, says he has another resort, which is to apply for a commission de lunatico inquirendo.

The smart alecks who pretend to trace a likeness between our Auburn and Goldsmith's "Deserted Village" of the same name, are very much off their base. If handsome dwellings and commodious business houses springing up on every side; additions being added to buildings already up and found too small for increasing trade; a large hotel daily crowded to its utmost capacity; a host of busy mechanics; a constant stream of travel—if all these things are indications of a "deserted village" then we plead guilty.

Parties employing Dr. Messier need have no fear of being imposed on, as is often the case, when you employ traveling dentists, and even those who pretend to be permanently located. The Dr. has been a resident of Nebraska for seventeen years, and his work is scattered over the country and speaks for itself. Last week the Dr. visited us for the first time, and found among our business men many old friends and patients each having his work of from four to ten years standing, and each speaking a word in his favor. The Dr. will visit our town regularly hereafter once a month. His next visit will be South Auburn, June 6 and 7, North Auburn June 8th and 9th. Persons desiring work should call early for the Dr.'s time is generally employed. At his last visit he could not wait on half of his customers.

The Torchlight makes mention that Robberts' affidavit, alleging that Lieut. Gov. Carnes attempted to commit a $5,000 seduction upon him, also implicated Church Howe. That's true, but now that Robberts and his affidavit have been ventilated, it would be no more than fair play to the "implicated" for the Torchlight to state that so far as Mr. Howe is concerned Mr. Robberts in his answers before the committee fully and clearly exonerated Mr. Howe. Robberts said he never had a word with Mr. Howe regarding the bribery question, and that he did not intend to implicate him in any manner. The Omaha Republican, a few days ago, by authority of Mr. Robberts, published a complete vindication of Mr. Howe. Broad-gauge journals like our much admired Tecumseh cotemporary can well afford to be just.

Dr. Joseph Haas' Hog Remedy—warranted to cure—for sale by Nickell & Shurtz.

The Slocumb congressional apportionment bill, which passed the House last week, passed the Senate Monday last. This, the First District, is composed of Richardson, Nemaha, Otoe, Cass, Sarpy, Douglas, Saunders, Lancaster, Gage, Johnson and Pawnee. The extra session has about finished its work.

J. F. Wykes, station agent here, has received notice from D. C. Thompson that the material for the R. V. Railroad extension west will be shipped to this station. This means "Ho for Tecumseh! Beatrice and the main line from Chicago to Denver."

Mrs. A. H. McGee and Miss Mamie Carson, of Brownville, were in the city Wednesday.

COL. L. T. FOSTER.

Youngstown, Ohio, May 10th, 1882. Dr. B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gents.—I had a very valuable Hambletonian colt which I prized very highly, he had a large bone spavin on one joint and a small one on the other which made him very lame I had him under the charge of two veterinary surgeons which failed to cure him. I was one day reading the advertisement of Kendall's Spavin Cure in the Chicago Express, I determined at once to try it, and got our druggists to send for it, they ordered three bottles; I took them all and thought I would give it a thorough trial, I used it according to directions and the fourth day the colt ceased to be lame, and the lumps have disappeared. I used but one bottle and the colt limbs are as free from lumps and as smooth as any horse in the state. He is entirely cured. The cure was so remarkable that I let two of my neighbors have the remaining two bottles, who are now using it. Very Respectfully, L. T. FOSTER.
