State of Nebraska are hereby called to send delegates from the several counties to meet in State Convention at Omaha on Wednesday, September 20th,

First District Congressional Convention.
The Republican Electors of the First Congressional District of Nebraska are hereby called to send delegates from the several counties to meet in Congressional District Convention, at Ne-

On Saturday Mr. Henry Harm, proprietor of the Calvert Meat Market, was arrested and arraigned before Justice on a charge of violating the Sundry Liquor law. The offense charged was the selling of a bottle of beer to one Wm. Farlow some time ago, with Farlow and Ed. Miller as witnesses for the prosecution. Messrs.
Stowell and Wesley Dundas appeared for the prosecution, and Osborn and Cornell for the defense. After hearing all the evidence the justice decided that it was not sufficient to bind the prisoner over, and he was released. The result of this trial gives universal satisfaction, for it was generally believed that the prosecution was malicious and wholly unwarranted. The only regret is that there was no law which would compel Farlow to pay the costs.

A CARD.

I would announce to the farming community that I have permanently located at North Auburn for the purpose of engaging in the grain business.
I now have in course of erection a steam elevator, which will be completed and ready to receive grain August 1st.
Our facilities for handling all kinds of grain are unequalled at any point in the county. I will use the old-tried and reliable Fairbank's Scales, pay the highest market price for grain, and guarantee satisfaction in every particular.

Harry Cowells, of whom the ladies speak as one of the most gentlemanly conductors on the B. & M. road, spent Sunday in our city. The ladies are eminently correct in their opinion of Harry, for he is certainly an accommodating conductor and would as soon help an old and crippled lady on and off his train as a young and gushing belle.

Work on the B. & M. extension west from this place has been progressing very slowly from the fact that it has been impossible to get men to lay track.
Twenty-one men arrived in this city Monday evening, and were immediately taken to the front. The work will now be pushed along at the rate of one mile per day.

It is authentically reported that five hundred men and teams are camped on the line of the Republican Valley railroad between Tecumseh and Wymore, ready to begin work on the 15th of this month. When that extension is finished as it will be in all probability this fall, Auburn will be on a direct line from Denver to Chicago.

The Virginia tobacco crop is reported in very bad condition.

Nemaha City.

Good weather for crops.
Mason's fruit jars at Bender's; quarts $1.25, half gallons $1.50.

Missouri river still on the boom but falling a little.

Business in the city is on the increase. The prospects for good crops has a salutary influence on business.

D. A. Morton, our principal dealer in agricultural machinery, has sold an immense amount of that kind of goods, including a number of self binders.

Henry Williams, of Titus & Williams, is quite unwell at the home of his parents in this county. We wish him a speedy restoration to good health.

Go to Bender's for choice goods of all kinds.

A good milk cow for sale by Mrs. M.
J. Clark, Nemaha City. See Rabe Elliott.

A number of cars of hogs were shipped from here this week.

Dr. B. Bell Andrews while visiting the family of Church Howe, professionally, a few days ago, broke an axle of his buggy, and when we met him he was making his way homeward with a wheel improvised out of a pole, and taxing his originality to some extent in evolving words and sentences decidedly unorthodox. But any one, especially a philosopher, who spent two or three years a prisoner at Andersonville, ought to endure such an insignificant mishap as the breaking down of a buggy with angelic serenity.

A good line of books, stationery and wall paper at Bender's.

During the past week the immense fields of fall wheat, barley and rye in this vicinity are being harvested. And the work is not yet nearly done. By the time the fall sown grain is taken care of the spring wheat and oats will will be ready for the reaper. And, by the way, the present oat crop is better than any previous year that we remember.

The report we often hear these times, that the railroad between this place and Nebraska City will ultimately be abandoned, we consider merely sensational. As a passenger thoroughfare, however it will continue as it is, of very little consequence, but as Brownville and Peru will always be points at which considerable stock will be gathered, it will probably pay to furnish them with an occasional freight train.

Titus & Williams do sell as many pounds of sugar, coffee, and other groceries, for a dollar as anybody—and more than some competitors—and they give honest measure and weight, too.

The Odd Fellows held their first regular meeting in their new hall, over Drain's store, on Saturday evening last.
On the evening before, the wives of the order turned out and completed the fixing up of the hall; and the Rebecca degree was conferred upon several. The new hall is about fifty feet in length not including the ante-room; has a nice carpet, is well seated with arm chairs; the stands are handsome, and the general appearance of the hall is splendid. The Odd Fellows of this lodges, after being so long cooped up in a little, dingy, disproportionate, meeting place, unworthy of designation as a hall, are to be congratulated in thus securing a place so pleasant, inviting, where they can stretch out, spread themselves, and where it will be a pleasure to assemble as well as a duty.

We understand the reason of the slow progress of the Hoover block, is the failure of the stone contractor to supply stone fast enough to keep the masons going.

The Masonic fraternity of Nemaha will hereafter meet in the new Odd Fellow hall.

To have possessed and lost, better had we never possessed at all. This old idea is true when applied to railway privileges, as in any other case, whether more or less poetical.

The Secretary of the Treasury has made a statement, for the enlightenment of the people, regarding the work of Doyle, the counterfeiter. The Secretary says Doyle's bonds were printed from counterfeit plates, and that none of them are in circulation, as may be presumed from the fact that none of them has ever been presented at the treasury department for redemption.
