A boy about thirteen years old by the name of Jones was drowned in the river at Brownville, last Saturday afternoon. He was the adopted son of Mr. P. several years. Mr. P. lives a few miles in the country. The boy had gone town on an errand, and while there went into the river swimming with some boys, and at once went into deep water and was swept beneath the surging waters. The body at last accounts had not been found. The last person bofore this one drowned in the Missouri river at Brownville, was Mr. Paxton's son Frank, which occurred some nine or ten years ago. Mr. and Mrs, P, had a strong effection for their adopted son, and they mourn his sudden and unexpected loss with great sorrow. The boy had neither father nor mother. We have been informed by several rains have caused considerable damage to small grain in the shock.

If we have not been misinformed we will have the pleasure of putting in type next week an advertisement for our friend J. W. Kerns-if he don't forget it.

Did you notice that the ADVERTISER is receiving more patronage from as to convenience and rapid unloading North Auburn just now than from to the usual elevator grain dump. Mr. South Auburn. They have live business men in North Auburn. mechanic,

Mr. R. B. Clancy returned Monday evening from a trip to St. Louis, where he has been purchasing his stock of hardware. His son, who will assist him in the store, returned with and portion of Richardson county are ance of opinion as to the time of him.

Marion Clark, a young and enterprising business man of Tecumseh, and a friend of the ADVERTISER, accompanied by his sister, Miss Ella, paid a flying visit to the center of Nemaha county Monday.

An ugly looking black cloud came up from the southwest Monday evening. and a heavy storm, which could be seen and heard from this city passed south of us. Our people were somewhat frightened when they saw the cloud for they evidently thought it was loaded.

Tom, the "Regulator," says he would advertise his machinery this week, but from the fact that he has sold it nearly all off, and has nothing to advertise, and will have to wait until he can receive another supply, which is expected in a few days. It certainly is not a bad business, when a merchant can close out as large a stock as Tom had in one season.

Mr, Samuel Bobst, the builder, who Cooper's grain-elevator, is now finishing up the work. The style of the dumps put in is of Mr. Bobst own inventing, and said to be much superior,

Daniel D. Davis, of Aspinwall, was in the city last Tuesday and purchased a brand new threshing machine from off until to-morrow what we can do to-Hutchins & Co.
