The Perfidy of Politics.

EDITOR ADVERTISER:—It seems rather pleasant for the leaders of a party to trade off the rank and file of the party, but hard on the honest voters to be traded off without knowing it. The combination by and between Majors, Daily & Co. of the first part, and F. E. Johnson, Hackney & Co. of the second part, is to say the least a very large political transaction and there is not a Republican in Brownville who is working so hard for the Majors-Furnas tie up as Frank Johnson. He jumps every Republican he can find and tries to induce him to vote for the Furnas delegates. The doubtful ones he asks to see him before they vote next Friday, as much as to say he will pay more than any other man dare give for their influence that day. If there had not been a trade, why would Frank be so anxious with words and money to see delegates elected in favor of Furnas?

A Card to the Voters of Nemaha County.

For months past I have been importuned by earnest Republicans, from all parts of the county, to become a candidate for Congress in the First District.

I have, however, declined, as I have no desire to retire permanently from politics, until to do so longer has been considered disrespectful by personal and political friends. I have, therefore, yielded my personal inclinations and desires, and comply with requests indicated, by becoming a candidate and will submit to the fair and honorable decision of the republican primaries and county convention. With their action I will be content and abide results.

If this act on my part, may in the least, tend to allay, decrease, or obliterate personal political factions, which for years past, have rent the party and people in Nemaha county, none other then good to all concerned can be the result.

This announcement is made in this public manner because of the fact I had said to all who approached me on the subject, up to a late hour Saturday last, that I was not a candidate.

Let the people consider and decide for themselves. My only aim and object is a general harmony and welfare.

ROBT. W. FURNAS,
Brownville, Neb. Aug. 12th, 1881.

A newspaper man having been asked by a lady "what a party platform is?" thus explained: "A platform, Julia, is one preamble and twenty resolutions; strong in nonessentials, vague in essentials, round the bush on the tariff and rough as thunder on the Mormons; clamorous for civil service reform down on corruption, loud in its praise of purity, and determined to have it if it takes every cent the party can raise. The platform, you understand Julia, is a legitimate and necessary part of the campaign pomp and circumstance; it goes along with the banners, transparencies and torches, and when the campaign is over—well, it is stored away in the cellar or garret, along with the rest of the uniforms and torches. A campaign platform is very much like the campaign torch, indeed; it gives out a great deal of smell and smoke with a very uncertain flickering light.—Exchange.

We spent the forenoon of Monday over at the north side of our rapidly growing young city, and found business of every kind quite lively. We stepped into several stores and found they were not without customers by any means. Our old friend Gilmore is the boss dry goods and grocery merchant, and his several gentlemanly clerks were all busy waiting on customers. G. & Son have the finest store-room in the county crowded full of goods.

An old man in Omaha who could not understand English and who consequently didn't run when a man ordered him to, was set upon by the individual and chopped up with a hatchet, causing his death the same day. No cause for the killing is known, except the general depravity of the murderer.

The R. V. railroad will be finished to Tecumseh to-morrow night. Good enough.

Rev. F. M. Hiecock, the blind preacher of Humboldt, was in the city last Sunday.

G. W. Cornell has had his office painted and papered and is fixed up as cozy as you please.

Miss Hattie Smith who has been visiting friends at Brownville the past week, returned to this city Sunday.

John I. Carson and Dr. C. F. Stewart of Brownville, were among the welcome visitors to our city last Saturday evening.

Will it not be awful funny to see a Furnas delegation loom up from Peru. Just think of it, and how it was brought about.

We venture the prediction that there will be more weddings in Nebraska this fall and winter than during any year in the history of the state.

Saturday night the Holdrege was full and running over. We understand Ted, was obliged to send some strangers out to sleep on the pay scales.

Dr. Bell Andrews, Sam. Bennett, Kate Elliott, Ed. Terry, John Culp, J. F. Drann, of Nemaha City, came out to our county seat meeting last Saturday evening.

Arthur Walsh, who is a master of the mud-dauber art, and can do it faster than any other man who pretends to plaster, is engaged in plastering the Catholic church this week.

David Campbell, the leading agricultural implement merchant of Brownville, who has for several years successfully run his business in a large building on Main street, is now moving everything, house and all, to North Auburn. And thus does the boom at the center go on.

"Extravagant expenditure of public money is an evil not to be measured by the value of that money to the people who are taxed for it. They sustain greater injury in the demoralizing effect produced upon these who are interested with the official duty of it, than through all the expenditures of the Government."—(Chester A. Arthur.

Hon. Church Howe by the bold and unqualified style of his speech Saturday night last, made many his friends and supporters who had not hitherto been so. "I did not believe that I should support Mr. Howe," said a leading citizen of this precinct, "but Saturday night in his speech he went upon record in a manner so suit me, and I am bound to support him." It is certainly to every man's interest in this locality to support Mr. Howe.

We are indebted to a thunder storm which came along Tuesday for this item. A bolt from the clouds struck Mr. Darral's building, which is occupied by Devin & Fisher, merchants, on the south side twelve or fifteen feet from the southwest corner, tearing its way down from near the eaves to the ground, splintering the weather boarding and knocking off the plastering. The damage can be easily repaired. Mr. Devin was in the store and was knocked down, but instantly recovered and was not at all hurt.

These Republican reformers of Brownville and vicinity who propose to purify the party and call on the leading Democrats of the county to help purify it, and in the purification business enter into such compact with Democrats as, if carried out, would deliver the party over, boots and breeches, to the common enemy—well, just take a look at that scheme—at that sweet scented set of reformers. Such bold treason will not triumph. Such traitors cannot "deliver the goods"—we hope.

Mr. Furnas is to have the delegation to the congressional convention Church Howe, right or wrong, is to be crushed out of existence; Frank Johnson and Joe Docker are to be the next county treasurer and clerk. That is the bargain made at midnight recently between Tom Meadors and a few Republicans of Brownville, and some leading Democrats. Now, Republicans of Nemaha county, there is not the least doubt about this, and you will do the best political thing of your lives, if you stamp out this dark scheming of a little ring that would betray you and the party.

Quite a number of temporary widowers are staying at the Holdrege in the absence of their better halves who are away visiting in different parts of the country, and we notice that they are a far better set of men than the bachelors who make their homes at that well kept house. They laugh of tenor and weep heartily, wear better clothes and are more careful of their personal appearance than the men who have never been through Hyman's mill.
