Business seems to be improving.

This is good prairie chicken weather.

Nice weather—pleasant days and cool nights.

Remember—"In union there is strength."

Dr. Ewins, of Brock, was in the city Thursday.

Ed. T. Ewan, of Brock, was in the city Friday.

Miss Flora Lyon leaves this week on a visit to Mound City, Mo.

John Hall, of North Auburn, has our thanks for a small remittance.

The old and true saying is applicable: "United we stand—divided we fall."

Ed. Elliott orders a copy of the ADVERTISER sent to his father at Rushville, Mo.

See Herb. Wilson's new "ad." Herb. will patronize the printer if he don't lay up a cent.

Wm. D. Bryant called on us one day last week and paid for the ADVERTISER a year in advance.

Politically, the pot is boiling just now. If it does not boil over we may consider ourselves in luck.

Milt. Long threshed his wheat last week. He has as nice a lot of wheat as we have seen yet this harvest.

J. J. Cobry thinks enough of his home paper to send it to his brother at Arcade, N. Y., for the next year.

J. R. Dye, of Nemaha precinct was in town Saturday. He reports crops and politics in an excellent condition in his neighborhood.

I. N. Kite has had his store building painted in a neat and attractive manner. Arthur Paris, we believe is the artist who did the work.

Dr. Glasgow, the new physician of North Auburn, is making a fine reputation for himself as a good physician and a courteous gentleman.

New, boys all difficulties being amicably settled, and the Republican party united, come out to the primaries and vote for the best interests of the center.

Charlie Cottrell is engaged in erecting a large dwelling house for Mr. John Leach, a few miles west of this place. Mr. C. has just finished a large barn for the same party.

The game of base ball at North Auburn last Saturday, between the Johnson and Nemaha City clubs, resulted in a decided victory for the former by a score of 13 to 6.

Mr. L. M. Green, of the firm of Clagett & Green, Johnson, Neb., called and inflated the finances of the printer one day last week. About a thousand others ought to do likewise.

Ed. Weisenreder, of Barada, was in city last week with a large lot of nice blackberries. They went off like hot short cake—and Mr. W. will read the old and reliable paper for another year.

Mrs. Isaac Clark and her daughters, Miss Ella and Mrs. Mary Smith, of Tecumseh, came in Thursday last and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Fairbrother, Jr. They returned home Friday.

John Nulk, of Flowerdale, who owns and operates one of the largest farms in Richardson county, was in town one day last week and invested a number of shekel with Hutchins & Co. in exchange for agricultural machinery.

The fun-loving portion of South Auburn's citizens have organized a Social Circle for the purpose of getting up social entertainments, dances, etc., in our city this fall and winter. It is a good idea, and if properly taken hold of, will be a source of much pleasure to those who are fond of social amusements.

The neatest thing in the way of a meat market that we ever saw is the shop recently finished by Capt. Crandall for Mr. Filley, of North Auburn. The Captain is a first-class mechanic, and of the course the workmanship is excellent. The arrangement of the shop is Mr. Filley's own plan, and we can truly say that it is splendid. The ice-box, or refrigerator is large and roomy, being built in connection, and as a part of the main building, and is as handy as a "pocket in a shirt." Mr. F. starts in like a man that understands his business, and will undoubtedly make a success of the undertaking.

We last week took the critical position that Ex-Gov. Furnas could see through a mill stone if there was a big hole clear through it. We assumed this from the fact that we know he had just on the previous Saturday declared to divers gentlemen that he would not under any circumstances whatever be a candidate for congress. We now take it back and acknowledge our mistake regarding a man we have "puffed and blowed" so much for during the past fifteen years. In another place in this paper we publish the governor's message to the people, in which he indicates and leaves to the imagination of the people the terrible and crushing pressure that has been brought to bear upon him "for months past." Late Saturday evening the governor seemed to be in his usual good health, no symptoms of political crankiness were perceptible, no wires were observable running up his breeches leg, no blood in his eye. But early Monday morning he popped up. Majors had got hold of the right wire; and with his usual felicity in hitting the nail on the head, he announced his candidacy, the exalted motives that inspired him, and exposed the wires that moved him, in a colloquy with a citizen:

C. "Saturday evening you said you would not be a candidate. This morning I hear you are a candidate. Are you?"

F. "Yes, sir, I am a candidate."

C. "What has caused this sudden change with you?"

F. "Well, the pressure of my friends." Then, after a pause, "But my principal object is to kill off Church Howe!"

C. "Turning on his heel with a feeling of suffocation." "Thunder and blazes what a reformer!"

That gave the thing away. Kill Church Howe is what Tom Majors has declared he would do. Majors sent after Judge Church to act as the puppet for him in accomplishing this object. Falling in that he sets his trap for Furnas and now we are humiliated in seeing our esteemed ex-governor acting in that role. He may not know that he is the second choice of Tom Majors to play second fiddle for him in the attempt to do a thing which Majors could not do. We believe he does not know it, but everybody else knows it, or, at least believes it, by the Majors cappers that "pressed" him out, and the immaculate jobs and dickerings with the Democratic party at Brownville recently. Voters of Nemaha county we opine you want to support a man for congress not one who under a false flag has joined the squad of crushers for the diabolical purpose of killing somebody regardless of your rights and your wishes.

Mrs. Dr. Mary Smith, of Minneapolis, Kansas, is now visiting her sister, Mrs. J. Q. Smith, two miles south of Brownville. These sisters have not met before for twenty-seven years. They parted in the heyday of life and meet again at its meridian—after all those years of experiences—griefs and joys. How indescribable were the mingled feelings of joy and sadness of those dear sisters upon the first recognition and embrace, when it flashed over the mind how each looked twenty-seven years ago. Mrs. Smith, of Kansas, will have an enjoyable visit at the pleasant home of her Nebraska sister.

A regiment of British riflemen were, a few days ago, surprised and stamped by a squad of Egyptian soldiers, and England is much ashamed of it. The reporter of the London Telegraph reported the facts, and now the War Secretary is considering the momentous question of expelling him from the British lines.

Mrs. Nellie Coleman, Ft. Wayne, Ind., was engaged to be married to Perry Alexander, a horse trader. Becoming jealous of his attentions to another woman, Nellie took a big dose of morphine and died.

We noticed the genial countenance of our old friend Mr. H. C. Hoffman, on our streets Thursday. "Hi" is traveling for Lockwood, Englehart & Co., wholesale dealers in hats, caps, gloves, etc., St. Joseph, Mo.

From July 26th to August 7th we had but one clear day and but two that it did not rain more or less. This weather is ruining the wheat, the greater part of it yet being in the shock.

At Indianapolis, two colored youths were engaged in a friendly boxing match, when one hit the other in the stomach with the effects of which he died in a short time.

The man who said the editor of the ADVERTISER regards Church Howe as "greater than the Republican party" lied like a house thief, and without a reason for the lie.

At Albany, N. Y., the big freight house, 200x400 feet tumbled down, and is a mass of ruins. Nobody killed, but 15,000 barrels of flour is mixed in the wreck.
