Congressman Valentine has "got away" with the delegation in the third congressional district. And Rosewater, the arch demagogue, is not happy.
Two sons of Mr. Clancy, the new hardware man, arrived here Monday evening. They are nice looking young men, and we hope they will like their new location.
It will be seen by Dr. West's card that he has moved his office into the ADVERTISER building, second floor, where he may be found, when not professionally called away.
Mrs. David Kite called Tuesday and had her husband's name entered on our subscription list, and paid for the paper for one year. That's business. The lady has our thanks. May other wives follow her example.
When you want any tonsorial work done in Brownville, call at the place of Prof. Ross Witcherly, first door east of the postoffice, where every appointment is neat and pleasant, and work done in the best style.
Our esteemed old patron, Mr. John Hastie, of Clifton, called Tuesday and paid his subscription. May he live long and prosper. We believe Mr. H. is now in the hog shipping business at North Auburn.

On Monday last Mr. Bill Daily was in Auburn. Daily, you know is a "crusher," and that was his business here Monday. The forenoon he spent at North Auburn, and getting that end fixed by noon, he took in the south end in the afternoon. Daily is immense, when he gets on the war path, and a little place like this "handed," as he calls it, in no time at all. He amused the boys exceedingly Monday afternoon, and had them all laughing. A man you know with meagre intellect and the presumption of a cow-boy, is always funny. William drove up to the Holdrege when he came into town. "Who's that?" asked a man from Missouri, in a group on the corner. "Why, that's Charity Bill," answered one who knew him. "Charity Bill, who the devil is Charity Bill, any relation to Buffalo Bill, or Canada Bill or any of those Bills notorious for handling pistols or the little paste boards?" "No," only in sympathy—only in the peaceful pursuits of politics. He started out to crush Church Howe into a political grave, but the first really sanguinary fight he got into he cried like a spanked baby instead of standing up and fighting like a man. I've got enough of Charity Bill—his salt water is too near the surface. He's now out dealing political monte—but he's such a bungler that any one can see through his game. And they all went over and took a look at the great man.

Burglars entered the store of Mr. Nathan Miller, North Auburn, last Saturday night, broke into his safe and took his money, about eighty dollars. The safe was one of the old-fashioned fire proof kind. The walls being made of heavy sheet-iron filled in with some concrete composition, the burglars with apparently little trouble broke and cut a hole through the back of it with a crow-bar or pick and an ax. After punching a hole about eight inches square they easily reached through and secured the contents. Who committed the burglary is not yet known, but it is believed to have been a man who was cook at the M. P. House, and who suddenly skipped out about the same time.

Bill Daily is one of the most ungrateful of men. When he stood up before a large body of legislators and wept as if his little heart would break, for a perfidious and unsuccessful trick, and between sobs begged the pardon of those dignified gentlemen, it was his kind-hearted and forgiving colleague, Church Howe, who sprang to his feet and moved that the gentleman be pardoned, and now he is waging a deadly war on Church. We'll bet the next time he sets up a howl, Church will not rush to his rescue but let him blubber it out.

The Bank of Auburn last week incorporated under the General Laws of the State, with a capital of twenty-five thousand dollars, and since elected the following Board of Directors: Chas. D. Nixon, Church Howe, A. H. Gilmore, P. P. Starin, Wm. A. Starin. Under the new organization Mr. Nixon has been elected president of the bank, and Mr. P. P. Starin, Cashier. Mr. Kelsey the former president being compelled to devote the greater portion of his time to his Missouri bank. Mr. Nixon is expected from New York very soon.

Gov. Furnas in his card says if his candidacy "tends to obliterate factions," etc. How can it so tend when the governor himself is made the tool of one of those factions to defeat the other faction. We use the epithet "tool," because that is the word that exactly expresses the idea. If he were the leader, we would so say, but Furnas is no leader. Tom Majors and Bill Daily are the real leaders of the faction and Furnas is the tool. That is the long and short of it.

Hon. R. O. Phillips, secretary and treasurer of the Lincoln land company, came down from Lincoln last Saturday. He came purposely to attend the citizens' meeting held on that evening. Our people like Capt. Phillips and are always gratified with his visits here. He watches with jealous care the interests of this locality, and takes a hand in any business in which those interests are involved.

If the business men of this place, or any of them who are at all interested in keeping up their local paper, would like to know what they are doing toward its support, we invite them to call and see our books for the last months or two, and if they are not ashamed of the meagre support they are giving it they ought to be.

We have a very large subscription list for a "country paper." We send papers everywhere. People form opinions of towns and people by the appearance of the paper. If any of our readers should judge of the business of South Auburn by the business advertised they will certainly conclude it is pretty slim.

Mr. Darrah's building, struck by lightning Monday, was insured against lightning.

Mr. D. J. Wood's little daughter is very sick. Her recovery is very doubtful.

A nice rain shower and terrific thunder and lightning Tuesday morning.

Ben. F. Sander and wife, of Brownville, were in the city to-day.

First District Congressional Convention.
The Republican Electors of the First Congressional District of Nebraska are hereby called to send delegates to the several counties to meet in Congressional District Convention, at Nebraska City, on Thursday, September 7th, A. D. 1882, at 7 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate for member of Congress from 1st Congressional District, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the convention.

The several counties are entitled to representation in the convention as follows, based upon the vote cast for Isaac Powers, Jr., in 1881, for Regent of the State University, giving one delegate for each one hundred and fifty (150) votes, and one delegate for the fraction of seventy-five (75) votes, or over; also, one delegate at large for each county:

COUNTIES.	Votes.	COUNTIES.	Votes.
Richardson	1593	11 Otoe	1577
Nebraska	1149	12 Cass	1621
Pawnee	1147	13 Saunders	1391
Johnson	1146	14 Sarpy	469
Gage	1720	15 Douglas	2335
Lancaster	2540	16	18

It is recommended: First—That no proxy be admitted to the convention, except such as are held by persons residing in the counties from which the proxies are given.

Second—That no delegate shall represent an absent member of his delegation unless he be clothed with authority from the county convention or is in possession of proxies from regularly elected delegates.

By order of Republican State Central Committee.

JAMES W. DAWES, Chairman.
JOHN STEEN, Sec'y.

The long moon has gone down and a couple who have been fighting the battles of married life for six years have agreed to disagree.
Mr. Webb is erecting a dwelling house and barber shop on First street, south of Gilmore's block.
Mr. Starin, of Wisconsin, is visiting his brother, P. P. Starin, cashier of the Auburn Bank.
We learn that Mr. Joseph Ord is preparing to build an elegant residence on his farm, northwest of town.
Mr. Dighton thinks of building soon.
James Montgomery is preparing to build an addition to his house.
W. H. Richardson will commence work on his house as soon as he can get a lot to suit him.
Clarence Ord and Dora Skillman were selected as teachers for our school for the ensuing term.

A day or two ago Mr. Church Howe and Mr. S. A. Osborn, who had been "bucking" against each other as to who should have the Douglas precinct delegates, with some of the friends of both of these gentlemen, came together so far as to agree upon several gentlemen for delegates for Douglas precinct. As there are some changes being made from the original seven chosen, we are unable to give their names. This would seem to indicate harmony, and we presume harmony was intended to be the result of the compromise. Both of the gentlemen having agreed to the selection of each name, are we should suppose satisfied with the situation in Douglas. All Mr. Osborn exacted, we believe in this delegation was that it should hold as paramount to every other consideration the interests of Auburn and county seat removal. And that's all right.

We are credibly informed that the Lincoln Land Co. will in a short time have the land in the vicinity of the court house square laid off into lots, which will be placed in the market. The surveyors will be here about the 20th inst., when that beautiful location will be surveyed and platted. That will no doubt give a fresh impetus to the "forward march" of Auburn.

M. C. Shurtleff, an old settler in the southwest part of the county, was in town Monday representing the interest of Dr. Poppele, of Mt. Pulaski, Ill., enquiring the price of town lots, the depth of wells, etc. We hope that Mr. Shurtleff may be the means of settling Dr. Poppele amongst us in the near future.

MANHOOD
How Lost, How Restored!
Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure of Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits, induced by self indulgence or sexual extravagance, &c.
The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty year's successful practice that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured; pointing out a mode of cure as one simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.
This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.
Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, post-paid, on receipt of six cents of two postage stamps. Address The Culverwell Medical Co., 41 Ann St., New York, N. Y.; post Office Box, 450.
