First District Congressional Convention.

The Republican Electors of the First Congressional District of Nebraska are hereby called to send delegates from the several counties to meet in Congressional District Convention, at Nebraska City, on Thursday, September 7th, A. D. 1882, at 7 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate for member of Congress from 1st Congressional District, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the convention.

The several counties are entitled to representation in the convention as follows, based upon the vote cast for Isaac Powers, Jr., in 1881, for Regent of the State University, giving one delegate for each one hundred and fifty (150) votes, and one delegate for the fraction of seventy-five (75) votes, or over; also, one delegate at large for each county:

COUNTIES.	Votes	Delegates	Votes	Delegates
Richardson	1563	11	Otoe	1877	11
Nemaha	1148	8	Cass	1832	12
Pawnee	1147	8	Saunders	1391	10
Johnson	1146	8	Sarpy	469	4
Gage	1729	12	Douglas	2335	15
Lancaster	2540	18

It is recommended: First—That no proxy be admitted to the convention, except such as are held by persons residing in the counties from which the proxies are given.

Second—That no delegate shall represent an absent member of his delegation unless he be clothed with authority from the county convention or is in possession of proxies from regularly elected delegates.

By order of Republican State Central Committee.

JAMES W. DAWES, Chairman.
JOHN STEEN, Sec'y.

Lieut. Willard Young, a son of Brigham Young, is a teacher of engineering at West Point. A Salt Lake correspondent says: "He was at West Point when his father's estate was being settled up, and when the litigation began, his agents wrote to him to know what they should do. He replied that he didn't care about quarreling over the matter, that he had a profession that would give him a living, and that he would take what the others didn't want. So a lot of railroad stock, supposed to be nearly worthless, was assigned to him. He took it, and the development of the territory has since made him one of the richest of the old man's heirs. He is now in Utah on his wedding trip."

Wilhelmina Rousseau is the some what distinguished name of an individual who retires from her profession at the early age of thirty-eight, and returns from the United States to Belgium with a carefully saved fortune to live henceforth as a lady. Her profession was begging and her capital a sweet countenance and crippled hands and feet. She came over to beg, and followed out her purpose with that singleness of purpose which rarely fails to achieve success in any calling. Philadelphia was the scene of her labors. Her departure makes an adverse difference to us of $20,000 in our gold reserve.

Somebody writes of Frau Materna and the telephone: "The telephone was another new thing. I called up Chris Ahrens and told him a lady wanted to talk with him, and the next minute they were at it. All about Germany and in German. Lord, how that telephone suffered! The paint fell off the wires; and some of those seven-cornered words nearly broke the box. When they got through the telephone fainted."

Most evening dresses worn at watering places are white, pale blue, or shell or shrimp pink.

A Western geologist predicts that Montana will become the greatest coal-producing State in the Union.

The favorite glove and long mitt of the dressy girl is of silk or undressed kid in Pompeian red or deep terra cotta color.

I. O. Gregg, of Elkhart, Ind., has started a paper-mill at Fargo, D. T. with an investment of $150,000, to utilize the wheat straw.

Some Washington ladies have formed a secret society with a view to exposing politicians who place abandoned women in the departments.

It is proposed that ladies shall adopt the Turkish style of wearing their veils this winter—that is, over the mouth, chin, and nose instead of the eyes.

A member of the Board of Trustees of Millville, Iowa, has introduced an ordinance to compel every adult resident to attend church once on Sunday.

A West Virginia farmer recently sold a single black walnut tree for $600, which was but a little less than the sum he paid for the tract on which it grew.

The Hon. A. W. Sawyer, formerly Justice of the Supreme Court of New Hampshire, died in the hands of a physician, who was giving him ether in order to amputate his foot.

Nast, in Harper's Weekly, has a cut which hits off the recent prize-fighters of West Point. Each actor has a dog's head, and the cut is marked: "West-Pointers. A new breed of pups supported by the U. S."

An iron chess-board, provided with magnetic chessmen, is a Berlin novelty. The small magnets concealed in the figures cause them to adhere to the iron board and retain their places in spite of great shocks, such, for instance, as are received on shipboard or on railroad trains.

Bishop Lafleche, of Three Rivers, Canada, has forbidden amongst his women the wearing of curls, frizzes and bangs. He also condemns light music as the production of the carnally minded. Wonder if that good father wears buttons on his coat tail, or a collar on his shirt, lest he, too, should tempt some frail soul to err.

To mark tools: Cover the part to be marked with a thin coating of tallow or beeswax. Then, with a sharp instrument, write the name in the tallow, cutting clearly into it. Then fill in the letters with nitric acid. Let it remain from one to ten minutes. Then dip it in water and rub off, and you will have the mark etched.

A War has broken out in All Saints, Episcopal Church, Cleveland, over the communion wine question. The Sunday school Superintendent leads the party opposed to fermented wine, while the rector and his adherents want to use the old kind of wine which they believe Jesus used at the first supper. The contest rages briskly, and each party is bent on victory.

The Nebraska Farmer only injures itself by its unseemly and outrageous personal spite against Senator Van Wyck, simply because the Senator did not secure for its editor an assistant postmastership. The farmers have no better friend on our Congressional delegation than Gen. Van Wyck, and Bro. Druse will do well to recognize that fact.—Hastings Nebraskan.

Two of the cadets at West Point indulged in a prize-fight, a la mode. Veritably that is a way-up institution, rivaling the other establishments of learning where highest attainable honor is success in scullarship and boxing. Engaging in the latter, the seniors are able to put a head on the freshmen and sophomores, particularly when the former need that striking improvement.

Commissioner of Pensions Dudley has given Dr. Mary Walker a clerkship in his bureau without the conditions imposed by a former secretary of the treasury, that she should don the regulation attire of women. Mary now adjusts her suspenders in the dressing room of the pension office without hindrance amid other fair women clothed in all the bewildering drapery and ornaments dictated by fashion.

The people or rather the Republicans of Gage county will not dare to favor Church Howe.—Beatrice Independent. Responsible gentlemen of Gage are our authority for saying that the people are not at all in sympathy with the disloyal utterances of either the Independent or Express, and that a small inducement in the shape of—well ten dollars is said to be Conlee's standing price, while it would perhaps take twenty-five to fix Brown.

NEMAHA CITY LOCALS.

Mr. Charles Ervin, of Plum Creek, and treasurer of Dawson county, came down to Nemaha Saturday last, and returned home Monday; his family, who had been visiting with friends here for several weeks, accompanying him. While Mrs. Ervin was here her little daughter met with a lamentable accident, she having the index finger of one of her hands cut off by a hatchet in the hands of her little brother. The finger, severed just outward from the second joint, was promptly treated by Dr. Andrews, and is likely to become whole again with due care.

Mr. S. A. Gilbert's nice new residence in the southwest part of town is about finished.

Mr. John Blair has gone to Stella to carry on the butchering business.

U. S. Deputy Marshal Wash. Culp, returned home from the western part of the state, where he had been after some transgressors of Uncle Sam's laws, Saturday evening last.

Since the new crops have been harvested, business has revived very much.

Sam. Summers, of Brownville, has received the contract for doing the brick work on Hoover's big block, and also for making the brick.

The Johnson Hotel has been closed for a while. Meantime the house is being neatly painted and otherwise fitted inside, preparatory to re-opening at an early day.

Titus & Williams are constantly receiving new goods and keep their assortment full. The people know where to get bargains.

Call on Mr. Hanegan and pay your subscription.

Peaches and other fruit are exceedingly plentiful in this market, and cheap.

Late planted corn will be a slim crop, on account of the dry, warm weather during all of August. Early corn is splendid.

The Johnson b. b. boys last Saturday got away with the Nemahas. Saturday this week the same clubs will play on the Johnson grounds.

News was received on Monday from Dr. Foster, of Morrill, Kansas, that his son Cyrus had departed this life. The boy until recently was a clerk in Bender's drug store. He was aged about 18. The disease of which he died was paralysis.

Mrs. Bettie Berger, of Lincoln, after a visit amongst her friends here returned home last week.

Sporting Challenges.

SHOOTING MATCH.

We hereby offer to match James Den, of Brownville, to shoot a match at fifty glass balls for $50 a side, or upward, with any man in Nemaha county.

T. A. BAILEY,
J. H. ROYSE.

BASE BALL.

The Johnson B. B. C. challenge any club in the state, outside of Omaha to play a match game of base ball for $50 a side.

JOHN WYRICK, Capt.

CHESS.

I hereby challenge Geo. W. Taylor, of Brownville, Neb., to play the best two in three games of chess for $500 a side, the championship of the world and the beer. Game to take place at any time and place he may select.

J. K. CUZZON.

PRIZE FIGHT.

I hereby offer to match Chris. Haubold, the middle weight pugilist of Brownville, against Henry Royse, of the same place, to fight a fair stand-up fight according to the new rules of the London prize ring, for $500 a side. The fight to take place anywhere away from Rush Bottom, Missouri.

ARTHUR V. WALSH.

Owing to certain combinations between Judge Weaver and L. W. Colby, they will fail to indorse Weaver as he would be entirely too heavy a lead to carry while Mr. Galey is, as far as we can learn unobjectionable.—Beatrice Independent.

We, up to this time, have had no reason to doubt the entire worthiness of Mr. Galey, but the indorsement of the Independent is ample cause for suspicion that he is not a man the people should indorse.

Church Howe won the Nemaha county battle.—Torchlight.

And the above named anti-Howe paper made the issue of Church Howe or not in its fight against Jake Dew. And Dew won. So Johnson has a slight resemblance to Nemaha. Shake, old fellow.

George Behring, a German of Atchison county, Mo., jumped into the Missouri river one day last week and drowned. Cause—didn't want to live any longer in Missouri.

For the detection of the murderers of McMahon and his two hired men, near Mt. Pulaski, Ill., $6,100 are offered as a reward.
