North Auburn News.
Mrs. G. A. Webb went to Tecumseh last week to visit her sister, Mrs. A. I. Fulton.
Mrs. Glasgow, wife of our popular physician, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Gertrude, went out in the country last week for a short visit.
Misses Mamie and Katie Daugherty, two handsome young ladies of Bedford precinct, was in town Saturday visiting Mrs. Campbell.
B. H. Vail, the pump and windmill dealer, went to Kansas City last week.
Rush, Fellows, Phil. Starin, J. W. Kerns and several others took in the convention in Omaha last week.
W. J. Rose, of Bedford, was in town the other day and bought himself rich. He bought a fine new wagon of Campbell, a team of horses of Pat. Casey, and a set of harness from J. H. Venter.
Mr. D. C. Combs is building an elegant mansion on Central Avenue, opposite Herb. Wilson's place. When finished it will be one of the finest dwellings in town.
Drs. Boal and Glasgow have consolidated their interests, and henceforth will practice together. No more sickness we venture to say.
Ben. Coy took a force of men and machinery up to Glen Rock Monday to build a church.
Ed. Elliott, the nice young man who measures out wagons with Col. Hutchins in South Auburn, was in town Thursday.
The building formerly owned by Frank Tenney and recently purchased by John Frerichs, was moved up from its old site to Central Avenue. The process of moving it was a slow and tedious one and a person would have to squint over fence-post to be able to see it move.
The "Talmage" is looming up admirably under the management of Mr. H. J. Baird. Mr. Baird informs us that the building will be enclosed and shingled by the latter part of this week. There are 19 men engaged on the work.
Dr. Beemblossom, of Iowa City, is in town looking up a place to locate. He is well pleased with Auburn and thinks the surrounding country just beautiful.
The weather for the past two or three weeks pretty warm, and Wesley Dundas had considerable to do to keep us cool—with his ice.
Masters Paul and Walter Gilmore returned from Peru Saturday to spend Sunday with their parents. They are much pleased with Peru and are fast becoming wise.
Several new buildings will be started here soon. Mr. Lincoln will build a house, and we understand that two stores will be built soon.
Our town is fairly booming and never was the outlook better than at present. Every stranger that comes to town is delighted with the appearance of the place, and many of them have determined to move here.
Every carpenter in town can find plenty of work, and stone-masons and brick-layers have constant employment.

V. O. V.
NEMAHA CITY LOCALS.
Rev. M. G. Southwell, in charge of the M. E. church, Nemaha circuit, began his work in Nemaha City last Sunday and will preach here, in the Christian church every two weeks.
George Drain, of Fairport, Mo., was visiting parents and friends here last week.
Titus & Williams have their shelves and show cases filled with nice and substantial goods. Call and see.
Times are remarkably dull considering past prices and present big crops. There is certainly a boom in business in the near future.
The B. & M. surveyors, who have been in this vicinity for some time left for Tecumseh last week, to go to work 'tis said, on the extension to Beatrice or Wymore. Before they left they run a line from their big Y here to the mouth of the Nemaha river, which would seem to indicate transfer boats. Another encouraging item is the shipping in of several car loads of railroad iron, from the west.
By the way—those wanting pure drugs or medicines or any kind of nice goods usually kept at drug stores, perfumeries, oils, etc., will be pleased by calling at Bender's.
J. S. Minick has one of the largest and most complete mercantile establishments in the city, and does a big trade.
Mr. Paxton and Mr. Moore are building nice residences.
Nemaha is the boss town for brick making and good brick.
Blanksenhip, the boarding-house keeper thinks of moving back to Peru.
Johnson's Hotel is open again, and being painted inside and the rooms carpeted, the house presents a very inviting appearance.
Those desiring good board by the day or week can be accommodated at Crim's boarding house.
Mrs. Theo. Hill is quite unwell.
Our street sprinkler is a mighty good thing just now.
Full fall stock at Titus & Williams. Please call on M. P. Hanegan and pay your subscription.
Mrs. S. C. Bennett has been in quite poor health for some time.

Senator Van Wyck was advertised to open the campaign against Valentine in the Third district last week, but before the time arrived for the delivery of the speech, some pressing business took him away east. The Bee apologizes—probably without authority—for this sudden change in its programme, and says that the senator promises to be back by the 10th of October and then begin his onslaught on Valentine, who is the regular nominee of that district. This promised course of the Senator is very much regretted by his Republican friends of Nemaha county, and they hope that during his absence he will reconsider his determination, if he had such a one, to stump Valentine's district against him. However much he may dislike Mr. Valentine, or cause to desire his defeat, the Senator will hardly be held justifiable in taking the field against him. The indorsement, unannounced, or nearly so, of Mr. Valentine by the recent state convention justifies this view of the matter, assuming, as we have a right to, that the Senator is a Republican and should have great respect for the wishes and preferences of the party. Another thing we believe to be true is that any man who permits himself to be hitched on to E. Rosewater and depends upon the Bee to blow his political horn, will come out of the little end of the same.

Sociable.
Rev. L. C. Dickey and wife will arrive at Auburn, October 4th, to become pastor of the Presbyterian church at this place. On that evening they will be a sociable to bid them welcome and get acquainted with them at Samuelson's Hall. Everybody invited. It is suggested that all who feel so disposed bring a donation of any article of food that will help to give him a start in eating for house-keeping. Those who prefer to make a cash donation will be given a chance. Come and get acquainted, even if you do not feel able to give anything.
By order of the Church,
D. J. Wood, Sec'y.
The Johnson base ball club of Johnson county challenges any club in the state, outside of Omaha to play them a match game for $50 a side.—N.C. Press.
The Red Stockings of Unadilla accepted a challenge of the Johnson club for $100 a side, but the latter club weakened.—Unadilla Optic.
The Johnson b. b. c. is of Nemaha County. How is that, boys of the J. b. b. c.? Is the Optic's statement true.
Matters are maturing for a big boom for South Auburn, all of which will be duly ventilated in this paper in due time.
