North Auburn News.
Miss Annie Worthing, a pretty young lady of Brownville, is in the city the guest of Miss Libbie Rogers.

Prof. Chas. E. Waite, of the Bank of Auburn, went to Tecumseh last Sunday—who can guess, we can't.

Miss Ida Boal, sister of our popular physician, Dr. V. M. Boal, is still in town and having a very pleasant visit with the Doctor and his lady.

Mrs. H. J. F. Wert was in town the other day. She thinks North Auburn is just a nice place.

Miss Stella Huddart, of South Auburn, was in town Saturday.

There was a lively nine here last Saturday. A game of ball and a shooting match were the chief attractions.
Phil Starin and W. A. Eberly did some pretty fine shooting, but Jim Den, of Brownville, walked off with the "slap-jack."

Jim Brown will begin plastering the "Talmage" this week. It is a large piece of work and Jim will have his hands full.

David Campbell is still dishing up the wagons at a lively rate.

John C. Tenney, a prosperous and thriving farmer of Bedford, was in town Saturday.

Miss Anna Maley brought us in a dozen of the most delicious pears we ever saw last week. They were raised on Mr. Maley's farm just north of town.

A motion is being put on foot to put in another windmill near B. H. Vail's store.

Miss Stella Stephenson is away from home visiting, but will return in a short time.

Mr. J. H. Baird of the "Talmage," informs us that the building will be completed and ready for occupancy by November 1st.

The building known as Morgan's "block" is soon to be moved up to Central avenue and converted into a hotel.
Geo. W. Fairbrother, of the ADVERTISER, came over to North Auburn Saturday to see the games and to have fun.

Posey Freeman is going to paint the "Talmage." Jim Brown is going to plaster it, and we understand that Ted Huddart is going to run it.

Nearly all the farmers have threshed their grain and are bringing it to town for sale. Wheat was a good crop this year in most places. Several farmers in this vicinity have more than 1,000 bushels each.

Peaches and pears will soon be out of market, watermelons too, are becoming pretty scarce.

H. J. Garret is now in charge of Jim Bothe's billiard parlor and is working up a good trade.

Kerns is getting in lots of lumber in anticipation of a lively fall trade.

opened with a fair number of scholars.
Arthur V. Walsh and his aid-de-camp, Mike Brennan, passed through town Monday morning at 9:15, en route for Ed. Snyder's place where Arthur is going to do another nice job of plastering.

The Nebraska Farmer gives our candidate for congress the following deserved indorsement:

The Farmer is pleased to announce the nomination of Judge A. J. Weaver for congressman, in the first district.
Judge Weaver is a man known to every citizen of Nebraska; he has been among us for years, in fact took Horace Greeley's advice and came west while young, to grow up with the country. There is probably no man in Nebraska more familiar with the wants of our new state, than Judge Weaver, and certainly none who will be more preserving in our interests.
Judge Weaver has made a good Judge during the many years he has filled that most responsible position, and in nominating him to the position of congressman is but a just recognition of his faithful services. As a farmer, he is one of the foremost in the state, and as a member of congress he will reflect great credit on one of the most prosperous agricultural states in the union.
The people of the first district may well feel proud of the selection they have made.

The wheat crop is conservatively estimated at 600,000,000 bushels. It is well to consider how and where the immense surplus over home demand is to be marketed. This year's wheat crop in Great Britain is estimated at 80,000,000 bushels. The annual consumption being about 200,000,000 bushels, a large part of the deficit will be supplied from American ports. France will be short about 25,000,000 bushels.
Germany and Italy together about the same and other countries will require not less than 120,000,000 bushels. Australia, which in former years raised enough for a considerable export, is this year an importer of this staple.
Turkey, Russia and Austria, the great grain raisers of Europe, have but little to spare, so that most of the deficiency will necessarily be drawn from the United States. It is the belief of those who have made a careful review of the statistics, that we shall not only be able to supply all foreign demands, but have enough at home to abundantly meet all our needs. Short crops for two years brought great distress to the working people, which found vent in strikes and at one time threatened serious financial disasters to the country.

The following is the Democratic State Ticket:

For Governor—J. Sterling Morton.
Lieut.-Gov.—J. F. Warner.
Secretary of State—C. J. Bolby.
Treasurer—P. D. Sturtevant.
Attorney-General—J. C. Crawford.
Auditor—Charles Leach.
Com. Public Lands, etc.—Henry Grebe.

Superintendent of Public Instruction—C. A. Speice.
Regent University—J. M. Busks.

The Hon. W. Daily, of Nemaha county, purchased several head of short-horn heifers from a Kentucky gentleman. These cattle were on exhibition and took first premiums at the Iowa State Fair, and also the late State Fair at Omaha. They also took first premium in their class at the fair in Cynthina, Kentucky. These cattle are valuable accession to the fine cattle breeders of Nebraska.—Plattsmouth Herald.

In the whole United States, as we learn by the U. S. census, there are 12-571,427 males over twenty-one years of age. In 1880, 9,204,428 voted, or 73 per cent. of the entire voting population. This was in a presidential election. At the state and local elections a much smaller vote is polled. It is fair to say that not more than one-half the qualified voters vote on an average.
Yet we are told that "women don't want to vote."

The Republicans of Richardson county have nominated the following ticket, which we should deem a strong one:

For Senator—Aug. Shoenheit.
For Representatives—R. E. Grin-stead, D. V. Stephenson, S. D. Wright.
For County Commissioner—George penter.

DIED—In Salina, Kansas, Wednesday evening, September 27, 1882, Mr.
George Ecker, brother of Miss Emma Ecker and cousin of Mrs. Theo. Davis, of South Auburn. His body was taken to Maryland for interment.

Governor Baker recently said to the graduating class of the Indianapolis Female College: "Young ladies, prepare yourselves for the duties of full citizenship, because it is the inevitable, whether you desire it or not."

John Ellib, at Chenango Forks, N Y., in a drunken brawl, killed his wife
