

POST OFFICE HOURS. From 7:00 a. m. to 9 p. m. Sundays, from 12 m. to 1 p. m. Farmers and others please take notice.

G. W. FAIRBROTHER, Jr., P. M. THURSDAY, OCT. 12, 1882.

TAKE NOTICE.

A new stock of CIGARS just received at the Bakery, one door south of the Holdrege House.

Very heavy rain Wednesday night and Thursday.

Biggest stock of books and drugs in Nemaha county is at Nickell's.

Ohio has gone Democratic, by majorities estimated at from 10,000 to 20,000.

Bully for Gus Moore--he has made a sidewalk on the south side of his premises.

Capt. A. R. Davison, cashier of the First National Bank of Brownville, is in the city.

Frank James is in jail at Independence, Mo., on a warrant for murder in the first degree.

Bert Sanders, chief clerk for B. B. Hoadley & Co., at Johnson, spent Sunday in South Auburn.

Eli Terry, one of Nemaha City's popular merchants, satisfied the "inner man" at the Holdrege, Sunday last.

Hon. Church Howe attended the meeting of the Republican State Central Committee, Wednesday at Lincoln.

Mr. J. E. Taylor, a new comer to this town, on Saturday last had a very valuable Bashaw trotting mare die with colic.

Mr. Chas. Lee, a most excellent barber, and a gentleman, we are pleased to say, is here, and going to open a shop in South Auburn.

It is rumored that the B. & M. will put on the passenger train in a short time. We hope so, as it will be a great convenience to the traveling public.

Miss Annie Neibel, who has been sick for some time past, we are happy to state is well, and has resumed her position at the Holdrege.

Several old Democrats have intimidated us that when they want Tom Majors to run their political machine they'll let him know, and "hire a hall."

We understand that the mail service will commence sending their mail over the B. & M. from Auburn to Tecumseh on the 15th.

E. C. Magor, of Rock Springs, Wyoming Territory, partner of W. A. Bailey in a herd of cattle at that place, is visiting friends in Nemaha county.

Since Devin & Fisher have been advertising extensively their business has increased so that they have been employing two more clerks. Judicious advertising pays, as any successful business man will vouch.

On Saturday last Mrs. A. H. Richards, South Auburn, opened one of the handsomest stocks of millinery goods ever displayed in the county.

The postmastership of Brownville was not decided upon the merits of the men, Cross and Hacker. It was simply a trial of strength between Church Howe and Tom Majors.

On the evening of the 7th, at Fremont, Nebraska, a Valentine meeting was held at one place and a Turner meeting at another.

Mr. Hine, the one-armed soldier, who has been door-keeper of the Nebraska senate for several sessions, was in the city Wednesday, selling the picture of OLD ABE, the celebrated war eagle.

Those who patronize Mr. Hine will help a true soldier, who lost an arm in battle for the stars and stripes.

A WISE DECISION. I will take my recipes and prescriptions to Nickell, where I will get them filled correctly with the best of drugs and without any substituting.

The New York World admits two things: First, that Judge Folger is a great and incorruptible man, and second, that the forged telegram had no more to do with his nomination than the Morey letter or the epistle of Barnabas.

Nickell, the Brownville Druggist, is furnishing the schools of the county with books.

Nickell, a thorough druggist.

With long years of experience and close application to business, I know I am better prepared to furnish you with pure, fresh drugs and medicines, and at lower prices than at any drug house in the county.

A. W. NICKELL, Brownville.

TO THE PUBLIC. Insinuations have been thrown out by parties in the employ of A. S. Barnes & Co., that I am paid by Harper & Bros. for recommending their text-books to the school boards of Nemaha county.

ELLA TAGGART SCHICK. Subscribed and sworn to before me this 11th day of October, 1882.

A. W. MORGAN, Notary Public.

Finest line of pocket books memorandums, perfumery and toilet articles in the county at Nickell's in Brownville.

On Monday morning, a man named Waters in trying to lead and handle a wild pony one our streets treated it in a most cruel and inhuman manner.

Waters would pound, and kick it, and punch a stick into its nose and up its nostrils. After this thing had gone on some time to the disgust of every one, Col. Hutchins interfered, and threatened Waters with arrest if he did not desist in his cruelty.

Waters got his mouth off once too often, for the Col. at once had him arrested. But Waters was finally discharged by him paying the costs which amounted to $10.65.

Nickell, at Brownville, will furnish you your periodicals at less price than you will get them elsewhere.

A few days ago one citizen of Plattsmouth deliberately murdered another. About six months ago John R. Polin, a restaurant-keeper was divorced from his wife, and a friendship or intimacy had grown between Mrs. Polin and F. J. Meteer, causing the extreme jealousy of the former husband.

All the latest novels and miscellaneous books at Nickell's drug store.

Everything in the agricultural line in Nemaha county looms up in magnificent proportions, and the vast corn fields contemplated by the smiling farmer causes him to think of corn shellers.

There will be a woman's suffrage meeting held at North Auburn, Oct. 17th. Mrs. E. L. Saxon, of New Orleans, ex-Senator Tipton and several others will address the meeting.

One Thousand Bottles of Marsh's Golden Blood and Liver Tonic to be Given Away.

FRESH OYSTERS.

Roberts, at the Bakery, will have Fresh Oysters on Saturday, and those who like a dish of the bivalves should call at the Bakery.

THAT DIRECTORY.

The Business Directory of South Auburn, printed by Swigart & Son, of Maquoketa, Iowa, was delivered last Monday, and as a piece of "betch work" excels anything of the kind we have seen for some time, although their agent says it is the best directory the firm has gotten out.

In the second place they did not use the Chicago Lumber Co.'s cut, which they agreed to do, but used a different one. In the third place, taking the whole thing into consideration, any second rate country office can do better work.

MORAL--Patronize home institutions and you will know just what you are getting.

Woman Suffrage Meeting.

There will be a woman's suffrage meeting held at North Auburn, Oct. 17th. Mrs. E. L. Saxon, of New Orleans, ex-Senator Tipton and several others will address the meeting.

GIVEN AWAY.

One Thousand Bottles of Marsh's Golden Blood and Liver Tonic to be Given Away.

Everybody, who is suffering from scrofula, chronic rheumatism, jaundice, biliousness, dyspepsia, indigestion, constipation or costiveness, headache, loss of appetite, chills or fever, malaria, backache, female weakness, nervous derangement, general debility, or any blood, liver, kidney, stomach or bowel disorder--can obtain a trial bottle of Marsh's Golden Blood and Liver Tonic, free of charge, by calling at Nickell & Shurtz' drug store, South Auburn.

Persons who have tried this famous medicine can procure the large bottles at 50 cents and $1. It purifies the blood, invigorates the liver, stomach and bowels, regulates the kidneys, and strengthens the system.

For all diseases of the Throat and Lungs use Marsh's Golden Balsam.

The friends of the late Jesse James in Missouri are erecting a monument to his memory.

J. G. Blaine gave $50 toward a monument for his old antagonist in the senate, the late Ben. Hill.

North Auburn News.

Miss Grace Glasgow, a charming young lady of North Auburn, was quite unwell last week, but at this writing (Monday), as we are happy to be able to state, she is much better.

J. J. Cobby went down to Kansas City Saturday on a visit some of his old friends. Mr. J. S. Lillis, a former schoolmate of his will return with him to spend a few days in Auburn.

Mr. Adamson, living west of town, bought a large bill of lumber from Kerns last week with which to build a fine barn.

Master Walter Gilmore came home from Peru last week. He suffered while there from the chills and was obliged to discontinue his studies for a time on that account.

We made a mistake last week in our "News" when we stated that Miss Ord and Dora Skillman were our teachers. It should be Mr. Ord and Dora Skillman.

Mr. A. M. Davis is building a store on North First street.

Messrs. Phil. P. Starin, R. O. Fellows, W. A. Eberly and G. A. Webb went out on a hunt last week.

Posey Freeman is painting the "Talmage" and will have it finished in a short time.

W. A. Eberly has on hand the nicest selection of toilet sets we have seen for years. He is fixing up for the holidays.

Mrs. Waite is going to build a new house on her farm east of town. Ben Coy is going to do the work.

W. J. Rose was in the city last week and purchased a fine plow of David Campbell.

Our boom is still advancing with long and steady strides, and dare say that the day is not far distant when Auburn will be a populous and very enterprising town and be able to cope successfully with any other town in west of its size.

Draymen and constant employment these days as the merchants are all getting in their fall stock of goods. Noah Rutherford appears to enjoy a monopoly of the trade and undoubtedly struck a bonanza when he struck this town.

Lots of strangers in town these days. --Auburn Post.

Yes, and the beauty of it is they nearly all have determined to move here with their families and become citizens of the metropolis.

Miss Maggie Webb, sister of our tonorial artist, arrived in town last week from Ohio. She will remain all winter in the city.

David Campbell painted the end of his store building last week, rendering invisible the hieroglyphics that formerly adorned the front of that building.

W. A. Taggart is fixing up his livery stable in good style for the winter. He bought several sets of fine harness lately and some new buggies.

Geo. D. Cross, the famous lumber merchant of South Auburn, was in the city on the 8th inst., on business.

Ed. Salisbury, of Lincoln, was in the city last week. He was struck with the rapid development our little city and thinks the boom will keep on.

Mr. Pat. Daugherty, a wealthy and prosperous farmer and stock raiser of Bedford, was in the city lately and reports everything as running smoothly in his section of the country.

Mr. D. C. Combs' mansion on Centre Avenue is rapidly approaching completion. Mr. C. went to Illinois after his family and will move here as soon as his house is ready for occupancy.

V. O. V.

When in Brownville call at Nickell's drug store, opposite Carson's Bank, he will be glad to see you.

Stoves, Stoves.

The largest variety of Coal and Heating Stoves to found in Nemaha county. WILLING BROS. & JORDAN.

Dissolution Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the partnership heretofore existing between E. D. Wert and William Shanks, under the firm name of Wert & Shanks, in the livery and feed stable known as the "Commercial," is this day dissolved by mutual consent. Mr. Shanks will continue in the business at the old stand, collect all account owing the firm and pay all debts.

E. D. WERT, Wm. SHANKS.

NEMAHA CITY LOCALS.

Titus & Williams are receiving their fall goods.

George Sanders and Miss Bertha Crother were married Sunday. They have the congratulations of many young friends.

Farmers say that we have plenty of rain, and the stubble fields are in splendid condition for plowing. It's a little too late for wheat, but lots of rye will be sown.

Titus & Williams have a big stock of ready-made clothing. Call if you want a good suit. Goods and prices warranted to satisfy.

For good fare go to Crim's boarding house.

Mr. J. B. Hoover has the best and largest grocery house in the city.

The frequently repeated statement that the railroad is to be taken up between this place and Nebraska City, is doubtless more sensational than true.

Peru gave $40,000 and Nebraska City $75,000--then by what right or power can the ties and iron be removed?

Tom Majors was down here Friday night--tis said, in the business of working up a mongrel ticket. Tom, with his present cloudy record is strictly a malcontent of the Republican party.

Since it has been demonstrated to him that he is away below par in a square open issue, he is taxing his low, tricky nature to circumvent the declared will of the party. To do this he is now a self-constituted wire puller for old Democrats, and is busy in aggravating the imaginary afflictions and miseries of soreheads.

The Republicans of Nemaha will vote the ticket, and when Tom comes in any other interest he is considered in very poor business and which will pay Tom least of anybody.

Dr. B. Bell Andrews has been appointed physician for the county poor house. This is the third term for the Doctor, and the physicians are to be commended for retaining one of so profound medical and surgical qualifications, as Dr. Andrews.

Hon. G. H. Shook and family were in the city Monday.

J. J. Bender and wife are visiting friends in Missouri.

For pure drugs, perfumery, and nice goods, go to Benders.

It was only about two weeks ago that a ferocious Howe hater said, "Bi-god he can't have Hacker removed!"

And now that Mr. Hacker is removed they are ready to mob Church Howe for doing it. Had Mr. Hacker been retained, those fellows would have sworn that Howe did his best to oust him, and that he had been saved by the influence of Majors. Hacker's chances, by an effort of Howe men, were pretty fair a few weeks ago, but his factional leaders kicked over his bucket of milk.

"Howe can't turn Hacker out," they howled.

He can't, eh? People who blow, and defy somebody to hit 'em, can only learn by results, and when it is too late.

Nickell, Reliable Druggist.

The United States Supreme Court met last Monday, with 950 cases upon the docket. It will take at least five years to hear and decide those cases, to say nothing of new cases being docketed constantly. That court is a proper subject for congressional consideration and action.
