THURSDAY, OCT. 12, 1882.

Nickell, a thorough druggist.

Electric light illuminates Peoria, Ill.

Lots of strangers in the city these days.

Immense droves of prairie chickens pass over Auburn every morning.

Brownville is being blessed with theatrical companies these times.

All the latest novels and miscellaneous books at Nickell's drug store.

A great many strangers are in the city looking up locations this week.

Tom Shurtz—our Tom—is sporting a new mansard roof hat. It's a daisy.

Linn & Cooper are receiving an average of one car load of grain each day.

Cashmeres sold cheaper at Devin & Fisher's than any other place in the county.

Samuelson is having his bank building moved eastward to the corner of his block.

Mr. Calvert, the B. & M. superintendent of bridge works, was in town this week.

Nickell, the Brownville Druggist, is furnishing the schools of the county with books.

We have met many strangers this week from the east in this county in search of land.

Tom Shurtz and Geo. Cross went up to Omaha Monday evening and returned Tuesday evening.

Nickell, at Brownville, will furnish you your periodicals at less price than you will get them elsewhere.

Tom Richards is putting white stripes on his red implement house, thereby improving its appearance greatly.

Dr. F. B. Reed, accompanied by his brother, Dr. C. R. Reed, of Middleport, Ohio, were pleasant callers at this office Tuesday.

Our very much esteemed friends, Dr. B. Bell Andrews and J. P. Crother, Esq., of Nemaha City, were in Auburn Tuesday taking in the suffrage convention. They favored the ADVERTISER with a call.

Jim "Buss," the genial landlord of the Union Hotel, Brownville, always exerts himself to accommodate his guests, and therefore, receives the largest patronage of any house in the city. The Union is well kept in every particular, and is the popular stopping place for commercial men.

The Majors outfit and the mongrel sheet propose to oppose the regularly nominated Republican ticket because they say it is a Howe ticket. How much better, we would like to ask, would it be were it a Majors or a Daily ticket? Would it be any the less factional than a Howe ticket? We should think not.

Tom and the sorcerers howl about corruption and bribery, and tickets bought out by bought up voters. That is truly a dismal howl when we consider the well-known fact that they openly did bribe some and offered others money who refused to take it. Ask the old colored man Walker, at Nemaha what they offered him for his vote at the primaries. Corruption, indeed!

Mr. Roberts, who runs a restaurant and bakery is quite enterprising as a caterer. He promptly prepares a "square meal" at any hour called for, and fills an order if to be found in the market. His sign recently hung out suggests oysters fresh, raw, stewed or fried. He also keeps pies, cakes, a general assortment of confections, and supplies all customers with most excellent bread baked at Brownville. Now if you want a lunch, a warm meal, a dish or can of oysters, or good bread for family use, you know where to get it.

We have been asked several times if we are interested in or participate in the new paper about to be issued at this place. Our answer is no. We plead not guilty. We never heard of or imagined such a thing until last Saturday after Sanders had brought his few cases of type to town. Since then we have learned nothing more than that its principal mission is to oppose the Republican party and its regular nominees. Sanders says, or said, that he has "backing," and of course everybody knows what that means. He is hired by Majors and Daily or some of their tools to come here and make war on the ADVERTISER and the Republican ticket. D. J. Wood is editor—at least he is doing the writing for it—and of course it will have all the gush and graces that an aesthetic spring poet can enthuse into its columns.

REPUBLICAN RALLY !!

There will be a Grand Republican Rally at Brownville, Thursday evening, October 19th, at 7:30 p. m. Judge Reavis and Hon. J. B. Strode will deliver speeches. Turn out, everybody.

The ADVERTISER supports the Republican ticket, not because it is a "Howe ticket," but because it is the Republican ticket. It would have done so, had any other factional leader been charged with having brought it into existence. We deny however, that the present nominees were brought out or nominated by Mr. Howe, but that they were nominated by fair, honest, and independent delegates chosen by primaries fully attended and fairly conducted. No factionist is on the ticket. Not one of the candidates is an office-seeker or follows the trade of politics. But on the contrary they are honest, capable, industrious, sober, decent men, citizen farmers and true Republicans, who if elected will represent, not the Howe faction alone, but every essential interest of every party. The people can conscientiously vote for and elect such men and we believe they will do it.

The Republican county ticket was chosen by one of the best represented county conventions that ever assembled in the county, yet Tom Majors and Frank Johnson, by a midnight compact to deliver their respective parties on demand, will start an "organized effort" next Monday to defeat it. Can Tom and Frank deliver the goods? is the question.

Ohio has gone Democratic by about 20,000 and the congressional delegation from that state is turned upside down. Whereas the Republicans now have 16 to 6 congressmen, the late election gives the Democrats 16, to 6 for the Republicans. Whisky did it, and it is the hardest lick prohibition ever received.

Governor Crittenden, of Missouri, has withdrawn the proclamation issued by him on the 18th of July last in which he offered rewards for the arrest and conviction of certain train robbers, he stating that the chief actors in the said robberies are now either dead or in the custody of the law of the state.

Mrs. Saxon, the woman suffrage orator, addressed the people in Samuelson's hall, Tuesday evening. By reason of physical affliction, we were deprived the pleasure of hearing her, but the universal report is that she is a most excellent speaker, and doing efficient work.

I. W. Skillman, proprietor of the Central Hotel informs us that he will soon have his house moved up to the corner of the Willson addition to North Auburn, and will make many improvements in the house, and continue to run the best hotel in North Auburn.

A few days ago Col. Slayback, a prominent lawyer of St. Louis, entered the office of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch and attempted to shoot the managing editor, Col. Cokerell. But the latter was the quickest and shot Slayback, killing him instantly.

Papers that make the most noise about bribery and corruption in politics, are generally run by snakes in the grass, avaricious sneaks, traitors to their best friends, and are always in the market to sell themselves out as 'reformers.'

S. A. Osborn, agent and attorney for the Lincoln Land Company at this place, is in the city. We hope his business is such that he can spend more time in Auburn than he has for some time past.

At Syracuse, N. Y., the Chicago express struck a carriage at the street crossing containing a gentleman and three ladies. The three ladies were instantly killed and the man seriously injured.

We are in receipt of a copy of the Friendville Daily Telegraph, which has a neat typographical appearance. We wish Bro. Whitcombe all the success imaginable in his new enterprise.

A sugar beat was pulled on ex-Gov. Furnas' farm the other day that was doubtless the biggest root ever pulled in the state. It measured 36 inches in length and 34 inches in circumference.

There will be a match game of baseball Saturday at North Auburn between the Honey Creek club, of Glen Rock, and the "Pickups" of Auburn, for $10 a side.

Mike Brennan has a bran new Irishman at his house, and we wish him and the mother much joy over this pledge of love in their old days. Dr. West officiated.

Richardson county is making preparations to roll up a majority for the whole Republican ticket. She can hardly do otherwise this year.—Falls City Journal.

Senator Van Wyck is in the Third congressional district speaking for Laird the Republican nominee. His meetings are said to be rousing ones.

Our merchants are well stocked with new fall goods, and trade is improving.

Call at Once and See For Yourself, South Auburn, Neb. FIRST DOOR NORTH POST OFFICE

Although Auburn has been some what dull during the summer, quite a number of fine residences and business houses have been built, and although its progress, at times, may not be as rapid as the impatient and enthusiastic desire, the future of the town will be, without a doubt, as great as the most sanguine hope for. The town having the advantages of two great through lines of competing railroads—to say nothing of other lines that are sure to come in the near future—in the center of so grand an agricultural and fruit county as Nemaha, will not possibly disappoint those who have located or may locate here and invest their money. The M. P. is now finished through, running big trains and plenty of them. The B. & M. from the Missouri river, at Nemaha City, to Denver, when one or two crooks are straightened, will run immense through trains, freight and passenger, and our business men and farmers will have a choice of markets in commercial centers of the west or the mining districts of the west. People who seek new homes and business locations in the great and growing west are invited to come and see Auburn, in the heart of the gateway city of Nebraska, cannot be a failure. Our apples took the prize at the World's Fair, and we have more bigger cornfields and a greater yield per acre, than any county in the state of Nebraska.

The voters of Nebraska will be called on to vote yes or no on the proposed woman suffrage amendment to the constitution, on Tuesday, the 7th of November. The amendment is as follows:

Sec. 1. Every person of the age of twenty-one years or upwards, belonging to either of the following classes, who shall have resided in this state six months, and in the county, precinct or ward for the term provided by law, shall be an elector:

First, Citizens of the United States. Second, Persons of foreign birth who shall have declared their intention to become citizens conformably to the laws of the United States on the subject of naturalization, at least thirty days prior to an election.

Our old friend Sam. White, who went to New Mexico last spring, has returned and is clerking for Gilmore & Sons at North Auburn. Sam says he likes that country well enough, but that there is too much small-pox and too many Mexicans there just now to suit him.

We notice that J. W. Holman, a longtime citizen of Nemaha county, now a resident of Dayton, Washington Territory, is a candidate for sheriff of his county. Mr. H. was a highly esteemed citizen here, and his many friends will join us in wishing him success.

We hope our friends who owe us on subscription will promptly call and settle, although what they owe us is a small amount, we need the money to enable us to run our paper.

Chureb Howe spent the three first days of this week at "Walnut Grove Farm" superintending the hoarding away of his fine crop of apples.

It is rumored that a young business man of Brownville, will soon lead to the hymenal altar one of South Auburn's fair daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. Dr. West have fitted up the rooms over the ADVERTISER and are living there. The Dr. also has his office there.

Look at the crowd who are howling "corruption." Now, do they look more immaculate than ordinary men.

According to the Wymore Wymorian Weaver will run far ahead of the ticket in Gage county.

Letter From State Superintendent, W. W. Jones.

LINCOLN, NEB., OCT. 11, 1882.

MR. G. G. BURTON,

North Auburn, Neb.

DEAR SIR:—I learn that certain parties, interested in the publication of certain School Books, in order to obtain their ends, have resorted to the desperate plan of assaulting the official integrity and educational ability of your County Superintendent, Mrs. E. T. Schick.

It is a fearful comment upon the merit of a work, when its introduction or retention must be attained by such despicable means.

I, therefore, take the liberty to speak of Mrs. Schick's ability as an educator, so far as my opportunity of observation has extended, realizing that her character needs no defense at my hands, before the good people of Nemaha County, the home of the late, highly honored T. L. Schick.

My acquaintance with Mrs. Schick's work commenced soon after her installation in office, and has remained constant up to this time, by personal inspection of her work and correspondence. I have found her an able, conscientious, earnest worker in the cause of education, giving much personal attention to the minor details of the work (which are too frequently neglected) but not by any means overlooking "the weightier matters of the law."

I have frequently thought that if any county in the State was getting full value in return for the money paid for superintending, that county was Nemaha county.

From my personal observation, I know her plans are most excellent, and believe that many in your county will bear witness that the fruit now ripening, proves those plans to have been highly efficacious. I sincerely hope the people of your county are too wise to give ear to the malicious stories put forth by book agents, interested in introducing their own books, for which they receive large salaries and which are put forth for no other purpose than to undo the work Mrs. Schick has labored so hard to accomplish. It certainly ought to cause district officers to pause and think, when I tell them that the same disreputable plans have been tried in other counties to accomplish the same results. I hope they will not be enjoined into selling their birthright for such a miserable mess of pottage.

You are at liberty to use this letter in any way you may see fit, that will uphold Mrs. Schick in her work.

Respectfully Yours,

W. W. W. JONES,

Supt. Pub. Instruction.

For Sale or Trade.

I have a 3-year old short horn bull which I will sell cheap or trade for other stock. M. W. WALLACE. 18W2 North Auburn, Neb.

A lad 18 years old, in New York, tried to borrow a pistol. When asked what he wanted with it he said, "to kill President Arthur." He was taken in charge, for an investigation of his mental condition.

When in Brownville call at Nickell's drug store, opposite Carson's Bank, he will be glad to see you.

A New York dispatch says: According to an interview printed by Truth, Bob and Charley Ford state that they are going to Kansas at once, and that if Frank James escapes the penalty of his crimes the old feud will be kept up.

On the 7th inst., a disastrous rain and thunder storm visited Union county, Arkansas.

Gen. Grant says he is out of politics and takes little interest in what is going on in the political world.

THE ADVERTISER is being systematically proscribed now by the Major faction, and they openly swear it shall be crushed. We acknowledge that they have already hurt us, and we ask our friends to stand by us. They have adopted the Southern style of proscription, as this is not a good country in which to bulldoze by force. We have stood at the front and advocated fearlessly and conscientiously the interests and principles of the Republican party, and those who indorse our course should give a subscriber for every one we lose in the vindictive unreasonable manner above indicated.

Vocal and Instrumental Music. Mrs. Landis Heilman, Tecumseh, will be at the Holdrege, South Auburn, Tuesdays and Fridays of each week, for the purpose of teaching vocal and instrumental music. All who have an ear for music should patronize Mrs. Heilman, for she is an excellent musician and an able teacher of much experience. She will also visit North Auburn. 18W2
