Corn trade rushing.
You can't most always tell.
All is quiet on the Potomac.
Beautiful November weather.
We are having most lovely weather.
The total vote of San Francisco is 38,047.
Omaha cast 4,765 votes at the recent election.
Senator Dave Butler—why how do you Dew?
No longer is the voice of the candidate heard in the land.

Omaha is to have a grape sugar and refining establishment.
Rumor says that Postmaster General Howe will soon resign.

How disgusting it is when somebody else gets away with the baggage.
The man who buys is generally the one who is "sold"—on election matters.

Only a little over six hundred majority against martyr Redfern—last election.

We'll bet our old white hat that "Tug" Wilson don't open any more lockets.

A. W. Nickell who runs the boss drug store of Brownville, was in town Thursday.

Bill Daily weeps for joy. Enjoy yourself as you please William—its your turn now.

The State Journal says the largest vote ever polled in Nebraska was that of last Tuesday.

There is no better location for a good harness maker than South Auburn, and yet we have none.

Read our "Notice to Delinquents." We will have what is due us—if not by gentle, then by harsh means.

M. V. Wilson, of Blair, in a fit of delirium cut his throat and died. He founded the first bank in that town.

Vox populi vox dei when uttered at the ballot box, but when through the primaries it is vox populi vox diaboli.

Pat. Morgan, a brakeman on the Norfolk branch of the U. P. railroad, was killed by falling between the cars at Humphrey.

Ed. Morley, a barber at Plattsmouth, skipped out for parts unknown, leaving the citizens to hold the bag in the tune of $400.

We hear that Tom Majors voted the straight Republican ticket, but could not control those Peruvians. Hard lot to manage up there.

Local leaders are too apt to bite off more than they can chew. That's what's the matter. The people will not endorse a damned hog in politics or anything else.

Steve Osborn, Esq., came to town Wednesday evening smiling as a basket of chips. Evidently his wife has got home or he has some politician's head in chancery—maybe both.

The State Journal has changed its shape to a quarto form. Quite an improvement. The Journal is an ably edited newspaper, is number one in any form it may choose to take.

The Democrats carry New York, Pennsylvania, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Michigan and Kansas elect Democratic governors. Glyck beats St. John in Kansas for governor by about 9,000. New York set down on Folger by about 130,000 majority. New York assembly will be 49 Democratic. In New Jersey Robeson was defeated for congress. The legislature will be Democratic. Singleton in the Quincy district, Ill., is re-elected to congress. He was defeated for the nomination by the Democrats, came out independent, and was endorsed by the Republicans, they having no candidate. In Pennsylvania Pattison's plurality for governor is estimated at 35,000. Poirion Kelly is re-elected to congress. The Democrats claim a gain of ten congressmen. In Virginia the Democrats have elected three congressmen and the coalitionists four. Maryland elects two Republicans.

Dick Belmont and Simmerman who recently killed the sheriff, Jack Woods, and three other men at Minden, Neb., when the attempt was made to arrest them for stealing horses, were captured by two young ranchmen named Fauts and Miller, at a ranch in the southwest part of Kansas. When the parties met Belmont refusing to surrender was shot dead by Fauts, and Simmerman immediately threw up his hands. The dead and the living robbers were conveyed to Lincoln, where they received the reward of $200 for each, offered by the state. Other rewards offered by friends of the sheriff and his assistants, amount to about $1,000.

We had the pleasure Tuesday morning of passing down to Brownville in company with Senator Tipton, who was just returning from a tour of stumping for the woman suffrage amendment, during which he made forty speeches. Had there been more men speakers like Tipton, and fewer women like most of those who have been constantly on the tramp for months, presenting that subject, it would have fared much better at the hands of the voters.

The question at Brownville, at our election time is "Has he been seen?" If he has been the answer is "yes, and got his money." If he has not "been seen," the answer is "No—what's he worth?" If the discussed voter is a tolerably heavy weight the answer to the last question is, "$5.00" voters are cheap at Brownville.

Frank Redfern in his speeches informed the people, "If I fail it will be at my post of duty." Well he fell, and fell hard. Lightning will probably never strike him again. May his rest be long and peaceful. As soon as we get time will start a subscription for a cottonwood monument in memory of the unlamented martyr.

Cheer up, Republicans of Nemaha, you are not the only ones that went down with the ship. Every Republican craft in the land was either swamped or badly damaged. Can't you find consolation in the general disaster, on the theory that misery likes company—lots of company.

Nebraska, for a wonder, elects the whole Republican ticket by somewhat reduced majorities, and the three congressmen. Valentine in the 3rd has had a tough fight but he is reported with about 1,000 majority. That is good enough.

We understand—that is it rumored—that the railroads will ere long deliver freights—lumber, etc.—at Carson, and that that good mowing ground will be spoiled. Gentlemen please move those haystacks out of the way of the boom.

Howe got the laugh on friend Brand of Nemaha. Now Brand can pay him back and have several good square laughs left. Brand enjoys the saying that it's the fellow who laughs last that laughs best.

The B. & M. grade westward from Tecumseh is being made. There are reasons for believing that the road will be constructed to Wymore, notwithstanding the survey was made to Beatrice.

Cyclones sometimes strike churches—strange but true. A couple in this county had their cupolas smashed in the storm of Tuesday. It will take several thousand dollars to repair them.

Mrs. Martha C. wife of G. J. Albee, of Omaha, was burned to death last week by the explosion of a coal oil lamp which fell from the stand to the floor.

When in Brownville call at Nickell's drug store, opposite Carson's Bank, he will be glad to see you.
