Precinct Convention.

At a Democratic Convention held at Dakota City on Saturday September 3, 1859 in pursuance of a call from the Democratic County Central Committee, to elect six delegates to the County Convention to be held at Dakota City on Monday September 5, 1859, Samuel Gamble was called to the chair and Daniel McLaughlin chosen Secretary.

On motion it was decided that the delegates to be selected should be chosen by acclamation.

On motion the following gentlemen were selected such delegates: Samuel Gamble, John Saffsigger, Jacob Van Auken William Carnahan, William Curl, William Schoolfield.

On motion the Convention adjourned.

SAMUEL GAMBLE Ch'n

DANIEL McLAUGHLIN Sec'y.

A WHOLESALE SLAUGHTER.—Yesterday morning we took a look into Col. Mason's yard, and beheld a score of prostrate chickens, as "dead as a nail in the door." A ragged looking dog—we don't know his name—became mortally offended at the feathered bipeds, and declared an exterminating war against them. On Thursday night, when the inmates of the hotel were wrapt in "slumbers chains," and a terific storm of rain was raging, accompanied by lurid flashes of lightening, this canine animal commenced a murderous attack on the Co.'s. poultry, with an evident determination of "cleaning them out." He nearly succeeded, as the official report gives the number of killed wounded and missing at fifty, or thereabouts. Towards morning, and while the contest was still raging, the Col. was aroused by the groans of the dying, and repaired to the scene of slaughter to take a "bird's eye view" of the field—he took a double barrel shot gun too—and beheld canis in the act of dispatching a hatching hen. Not fully appreciating canis' efforts to rid his yard of the presence of live poultry, and taking a different view of the matter from the leg, he put an end to his poultry ravages by lodging about a pound of shot in his brain. When we saw canis he was a "dead dog," and laying by the side of those whom he had so valorously slew.

SKISMA.—The "skisms" meet to day to condole with each other on "blasted" hopes. Their blank looks, countenances downcast, faces longer than a late breakfast are ominous of something, that we are presumed to know nothing about. Maybe the "persons" sir does not suit? Time will "a tale unfold"—Things now are not as they "used to was," and the "skisms" have some tall labor to perform if they intend to blend all their conflicting elements, into one grand conglomerate. We predict considerable "skewing" on the part of the wise ones, to avoid being hoisted to be "killed." The "old birds" will not be caught with "chaff" this time.

RELIGIOUS.—The Rev. Mr. Hoyt of the Episcopal church, will hold service in the Town Hall on to-morrow, at 3 oclock. It is to be hoped that our citizens will turn out and give a good audience.

Rev. Chesnut of the Presbyterian church of Sioux City, and Pastor in charge of the church in this city, will preach in the Town Hall today, at 3 oclock, and to-morrow at half past ten oclock, at which time he will administer the sacrament.

ATTENTION!—We call attention to a communication in this weeks paper, from Niobrarah, in reference to the position of the Indians. The red rascals are evidently bent on doing mischief, and we predict the citizens of Northern Nebraska, will consider it incumbent on them, to give a wholesome trouncing to these scamps if the government does not. They are becoming too insolent and, too bold for quiet to reign much longer in these parts.

JACK FROST.—Jack made his appearance in this vicinity early on Monday morning last, before honest folks were out of bed, and commenced a terrible onslaught on buckwheat, potatoes, tomtaoes, melons, cucumbers and such other garden vegetables as he found out doors. We did not expect him so soon, and was unprepared for his unwelcome visit. We heard several persons remark on the previous evening, that they entertained strong suspicions that he was in the neighborhood,

WEATHER.—We have had considerable weather during the past week, without variation enough in it to make it materially differ from the "same sort." The sky heretofore unusually bright and pleasant has been filled with portentious clouds. We are not a professional prognosticator but presume the portentions predict about "phive" hundred in this county.

SOME PLUMS.—Mrs. Col. E. F. Mason had a branch of wild plums on last Monday, about 18 inches in length and which had on it one hundred and fifty plums, as large as the egg plum common in gardens. The branch was plucked by Jacob Van Auken Esq. Nebraska is "some" on plums.
