

REWARD AND THE PRESIDENCY.

We regard it as scarcely certain, if he lives, that William H. Seward will be the Opposition candidate for the Presidency in 1860. Chase, Cameron, and others, have hopes, but they are destined to disappointment. The elements of the Opposition are so entangled and so confused, that it is not probable that any one man can combine enough of them together to make a respectable show in the Convention. His position and his political belief are well known. He takes ground that, between the North and the South, an irrepressible conflict exists, which must continue and intensify until the Union is composed either wholly of free, or wholly of slave States. He places the North and the South in direct antagonism, and believes that one or the other must in the end succumb. Louisiana sugar and Georgia cotton must be produced by free labor, or slavery will sometime swallow up New England, with her manufacturing, Pennsylvania, with her iron and coal, and Ohio and the Great West, with their rich agricultural products. He sees no rights for the South. He is willing to sacrifice everything—even the Union—to gain his ends. He acknowledges no middle ground. He holds in utter condemnation the situation of our country, and the slave system cannot exist in the same government, and favors entire and unconditional emancipation, by fair means, if possible, forcible if it cannot be done in any other way. In effect, he desires the right of each state to make its own laws, and direct its own domestic institutions, as provided by the Constitution of the United States. If he, or any one like him is elected, aggressions upon the rights of sovereign States will at once be commenced. His success will be a signal for discord and national ruin. The Constitution will be disregarded, and the right to control their own institutions will be denied to the States. The Anti-Slavery element will be made to pervade every department of the government from the Supreme Court down. Laws will be enacted to suit the political views of the party. Congress will be empowered to interfere in the territories. The Union will be weakened, and perhaps dissolved. Upon such issues as these, the Republican party, with Seward at their head, and his Rochester speech for their political text-book, will endeavor to conduct the next campaign. On such a platform, they cannot carry half a dozen States in the Union. The Democratic element of the country—the love of Union and concord—will defeat all such unhappy schemes. With Mr. Douglas, the Constitution and the rights of the people under it, the Democracy may go into the contest sure of success.

ARRIVAL OF THE EXPRESS FROM THE MINES

INDIAN OUTRAGES.

Denver City dates to the 2d inst. This express brings nearly three thousand dollars in dust. Quite a number of prospecting parties have returned from the South Platte diggings during the last few days, and although not denying the existence of gold in that region they deny the practicality of successful mining.

Extensive Indian outrages have been reported by them. The carcasses of many mules and horses, pierced by bullets and arrows, have been found, the owners of which are supposed to have been murdered and their bodies concealed. The perpetrators of the slaughter are members of the Utah tribe.

On the evening of the 25th, a German butcher, by the name of Frederick Milley, formerly of Chicago, was fatally stabbed in Aurora by a countryman, a barber by the name of Phillip Schwagerl, formerly of Quincy, Illinois. The affray took place in a bar-room and jealousy is assigned as its immediate cause. Milley received thirteen wounds, and died, after intense suffering, on the second day. Schwagerl first endeavored to escape the country, but finally returned, and is now having a preliminary trial before a justice of the peace.

Heavy thunder storms have prevailed during the preceding week; strokes of lightning did considerable damage in Denver City.

The first horse race took place on the 25th instant, a short distance from Denver City, and was largely attended by the citizens.

On the evening of the preceding Friday a large and enthusiastic meeting was held at the Denver House, John S. Jones, the general superintendent of the Express Co., presided. Many speeches were made, and a committee appointed to prepare memorials to the President of the United States and Congress, in which the present condition of the gold fields is to be described in detail, and the wants of their inhabitants expressed. An Indian agency, a military post, a wagon road from Denver City to Salt Lake City, will be mainly prayed for. Resolutions approving of the energy and enterprise displayed by the Express Co., were passed.

Hotel Burnt—Several Lives Lost.

New York, Sept. 6. The Harmonie Hotel at Hoboken was destroyed by fire to-day. Mr. Basee, the proprietor, and three of his daughters perished in the flames. Mrs. Basee was severely injured by leaping from a window. The eldest daughter also leaped from a window, but was caught by a Mr. Herling in his arms. This person was on a ladder endeavoring to assist the inmates of the building to escape.

GOLD IN MISSOURI.

The Alexandria Delta says a piece of quartz, very rich with gold has recently been found near Waterloo, Clark county. There is also gold-bearing sand in South-east Missouri, that will pay $1 to $2 a day for washing, we are informed. It is not a day's drive from Ironton, but we are not at liberty to make public the location. The St. Louis News received a letter from a subscriber in Texas county, stating that gold had been found there in considerable quantities.

VERMONT ELECTION.

The whole Republican ticket is elected by 2,000 majority. In 21 towns the vote stands: For Governor Hall, 5,320; Saxe, 2,657—Republican majority, 2,663. Last year the result in the same towns was as follows: Hall, 4,087; Keyes, 2,401. In 60 towns the Republicans have elected 31 of their candidates against 8 Democrats, and one no choice. Last year the same towns elected 40 Republicans and 10 Democrats.

Thos. B. Monroe, Jr., the editor of the Lexington Statesman, is to be Secretary to Governor Magoffin, of Kentucky.

REPUBLICANISM! Its Fruits!

"Ye shall know them by their fruits." "Every good tree brings forth good fruit." "A corrupt tree brings forth evil fruit."

Practical Abolitionism!

A White Woman, sleeping with a Nigger

One day last week a strapping digger and a fine looking, well dressed white woman, some twenty-two years of age passed through this place in company, each carrying a carpet sack. They called at Mr. Cowen's a mile or two south of town, for some bread, which was given them. The woman took it and wrapped it up in a copy of the Astorian Sentinel which she had with her. Mrs. Cowen made some inquiry of the woman as to where she was from and whether bound, but could get no satisfaction from her.

On the next day a young man, the brother of the young lady, came along in search of the precious couple. We learned from him that the bigger was a fugitive slave from Tennessee, that he arrived in Jefferson Astorian county, some two years ago. He had been petted by the abolition fanatics of that town and the father of the unfortunate girl had made his house the home of the darkey, and taught his children the doctrines of the Republican party of the Reservers, that no distinction should be made on account of color and that the negro is entitled to all the civil and political rights enjoyed by a white man.

Under these teachings the girl, had heretofore borne a good character, became intimate with the nigger, and an engagement was the result of that intimacy. The young man threatened the life of the bigger if he should succeed in catching him. The catching usually comes before the killing. He was particularly severe on Cuff, and let out some pretty big oaths about his always voting the Republican ticket and standing up for black men, and his determination to do a—that party for the balance of his natural life. [Police (C.) Form.]

Comments are unnecessary—we close with another quotation from the Great Teacher.

"Every tree that brings forth good fruit is known and cast into the Sea."

WARRIORS.

"BY THEIR FRUITS SHALL YE KNOW THEM"

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE!

That the Republicans passed a law last winter, in the state of Massachusetts, compelling foreigners to remain in the country seven years before they can vote!

Fast time by a Fast Nag.—It is recorded, in the latest annals of the turf, that Felix Tom, the celebrated racer, who with her equally celebrated competitor, Princess, passed through our city on her way Westward, on Monday, made the fastest time known on Sunday night, having accomplished the almost incredible feat of running a mile on the track in one minute and thirteen seconds. This seems astonishing, but it is nevertheless true, as we have our information from a conductor on the Pennsylvania Railroad, by which she was brought here, who actually saw the feat performed, and timed her by his chronometer. [Pittsburgh Post.]

MORE FRAUD.

The editors of the Republican in this city, brought with them several thousand envelopes, with the frank of Hon. E. S. Spaulding, member of Congress from the Buffalo district New York, and while Spaulding is more than fifteen hundred miles distant, have repeatedly attempted to load down our mails with these franked envelopes. Mr. Hitchcock, another bright shining light in the Republican party, and at present a candidate for District Attorney, has also been busily engaged in sending off Black Republican documents for electioneering purposes in this Territory, franked by the Hon. John Gevone, M. C. from Pennsylvania. [Abolitionist.]

That speaks for itself. The editors of the Republican, and five Hitchcock, commenced on rather a larger scale than Daily. He undertook to operate on fifteen dollars. That is right Nebraska; expose the rascals, and when they cry "fraud" tell the people to clap their hands on their pockets and keep a sharp look out. What they will not do in the way of defrauding the Government is not worth trying.

MISSISSIPPI.—The following is the Opposition ticket in Mississippi: For Governor—H. W. Walter of Marshall. For Secretary of State—H. H. Southworth of Sunflower. For Auditor of Public Accounts—A. R. Reynolds of Fishemingo. For Treasurer—Joseph Regan of Claiborn.

Dr. David Dale Owen, now engaged in the geological survey of Arkansas, has published a letter in which he states that diamonds may be found in that state.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

For Deputee in Congress, GEN. E. ESTABROOK.

COUNTY TICKET.

For Representative, BARNABAS BATES, CORNELIUS O'CONNOR.

CANDIDATE'S DEPARTMENT.

General E. Estabrook will meet and address the citizens of northern Nebraska, at the following places and times.

- At Dakota City, Monday, Oct. 24, at 4 P. M.
- " Ponca City, Tuesday, " 4th, " 2 "
- " St. James, Wednesday, " 5th, " 2 "
- " St. Helena, Wednesday, " 5th, " 5 "
- " Dixon, Thursday, " 6th, " 4 "
- " St. John's, Friday, " 7th, " 3 "
- Gov. S. W. Black and other distinguished gentlemen have been invited and are confidently expected to be present and address the people. Citizens turn out and hear for yourselves. Sept. 26, 1859.

Martin Stowell.

This gentleman has visited our city, and announced himself an Independent People's Candidate for Delegate in Congress. He did not deliver himself of a speech, but visited in person many of our citizens. Those who have been prominent in the holding movement in Dakota, received him kindly, and looked complaisant at the idea of having a candidate of their own. Democrats were not materially excited, while Republicans were chafed, and seemed indignant that any one should dare to oppose their own candidate. As we saw him, he appeared a pleasant, affable and intelligent gentleman. In personal appearance he has much the advantage of Daily, and moreover, claims to be a consistent temperance man. He is a citizen of Nemaha county, and a near neighbor of the Republican candidate. He has issued a modest, well-written circular, which if we had space, we would insert entire—but we select the following in relation to Mr. Daily. Being his fellow citizen and former partisan, we suppose he speaks of his habits and follies, from an adequate knowledge of facts.

"A rebuke to any man who seeks our votes, for the purpose of enabling him the better to secure for himself School Lands, previously entered by fraud, thereby robbing our children of one of their most sacred rights. Let the people throw every politician overboard who lays his hands on our School Lands."

"A rebuke to one who made a fair private contract with another party for public printing, then basely exposed him to government vengeance for so ill-faith purposes and against the interests of Nebraska; thereby showing a shameful want of good faith, both public and private."

"A rebuke to one who secured his own nomination by using his official influence to prevent public meetings of his own party, to select delegates to Bellevue, while privately securing delegates for himself, thus forcing himself upon us and thereby insuring his own defeat."

"A rebuke to party wire-pullers for attempting to force a trickish, whiskey politician down the people's throats. Nebraska is willing or not willing. We have had too many disgraceful drunken broils in Congress already."

How different from the above is the testimony of Furnas, also a citizen of this same Nemaha county, who speaking of Gen. Estabrook, says "he is a man against whom nothing can be said." As for ourself, we would rather have this voluntary tribute, from a corrupt and venal editor, forced for once to speak the truth, than spend a life in Congress branded as a robber of School Lands—a pot-house politician, and abandoned drunkard. The voters of Dakota County know Gen. Estabrook too well, to throw him aside for such a man!

The vote which Mr. Stowell will receive may not be very large, but will express the strength of the party whose candidate he is. It will however greatly reduce Daily's vote north of the Reserve, and swell the majority for Estabrook.

The insurance agents in London, refuse to insure the monster Steamship, Great Eastern, on her trial trip across the Atlantic unless at an exorbitant price.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE!

That the two oldest and most reliable Republican papers, the Cleveland Herald and Boston Bee, say the bigger are more capable of voting than Irishmen and Dutchmen!

Another of his Snubby Tricks!

The Ethiopian candidate for Delegate to Congress, has been letting himself out to a styronet warranted by the facts, in Depts, Cumming City and other towns north of the Platte. In these places he not only denied having any participation, with those who attempted to dismember the Territory, but stated he was an earnest opposer of the scheme. We commend the following letters to the perusal of the dubious.

Omaha, Sept. 15th 1859. T. J. Mackey, Esq.—Dear Sir:—Knowing you to have been an active friend of the late movement to annex the Southern portion of this Territory to Kansas, and learning that you were a participant in the Convention of those favorable to that measure who assembled at Brownville on the 6th of January last, I take the liberty of enquiring of you whether the Hon. Samuel G. Daily was a member of the Convention, and whether he swayed by voice or vote, any of its measures; and if so what those measures were?

I do this for the reason that it is claimed for and by Mr. Daily that he never favored or countenanced any of those measures.

I have the honor to be, Sir, Very Respectfully, Your Obedt Servt, E. ESTABROOK.

Omaha, N. T. Sept. 18, 1859. Hon. E. Estabrook—Sir:—Yours of this date has been received and contents noted. In reply to your enquiries as to "whether the Hon. Samuel G. Daily was a member of the South Platte Convention that assembled at Brownville on the 6th of January last, and whether he swayed by voice or vote, any of its measures, and what those measures were," I have the honor to state, that the Hon. Saml G. Daily was a member of that Convention, and that he sustained its measures by his vote. These measures were in strict accordance with its organic character as an assembly of delegates from the counties south of the Platte favorable to annexing that portion of Nebraska to the proposed State of Kansas, to secure thereby the advantages of an early State organization, and embraced 1st. Resolutions fortifying and vindicating the policy of annexation.

2d. A memorial to the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States in Congress assembled, praying that that portion of Nebraska Territory, bounded on the north by the first parallel of latitude, south by the 40th parallel, east by the Missouri river, and on the west by the 101st meridian of longitude, might be embraced within the limits of the proposed State of Kansas.

3d. An address to the people of Kansas asking their aid and co-operation in furtherance of the object of the Convention.

As a member of the Brownville Annexation Convention, and the author and framer of the "memorial" and "address," I am fully advised of all the proceedings of that body as attested by the written records. Its measures were all adopted unanimously, and the vote of Nemaha county was cast in favor of annexation, by Hon. Samuel G. Daily, E. W. Furnas and others.

I am, Sir, yours, &c, T. J. MACKEY.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE!

That the Republican candidate for Delegate in Congress was in favor of dismembering the Territory, by annexing the South Platte district to Kansas!

Let them howl!!!

The two journals that have abjured Democracy and now swear by Daily,—one on account of local, the other on account of pecuniary reasons—have set up a pitiful howl, because people who have been in the habit of calling things by their right names, now call them Abolitionists. If their sensitiveness is wounded it is entirely owing to the position they have taken, and the penchant the public has for looking at things as they are. It is but a reasonable presumption that any one who would support or rank an Abolitionist as Mr. Daily, for an office so important as that of Delegate to Congress, in an Abolitionist body and soul. The spectacle of them returning from Democracy to Abolitionism, strongly resembles the dog that returned to his vomit or the sow that went back to the mire. It is a favorite maxim of Fenelon's, that you could always tell what a man was by the company he kept.

TURN OUT!!!

By reference to another column it will be seen that Gen. Estabrook, and other distinguished persons, will address the citizens of the various towns, north of the Reserve, between the 31st and 7th of this month. Let there be a general attendance of all who have room for more than one idea in their heads!

The sterns of the Island of San Juan, by General Harney, was entirely upon his own responsibility, and without any instructions from Washington. No doubt is entertained by the Administration that the matter will be immediately and amicably adjusted, as the question of the Oregon boundary is now with the Commissioners appointed for its determination. The action of our troops is considered of no importance as affecting the result.

Postmaster-General Holt did not begin his Reform movement on Republican documents. Some months ago, fifteen thousand Democratic documents, bearing the frank of Senator Brown, of Mississippi, were refused transmission through the mails, the frank not having been written by the Senator himself. The law will heridgely and impartially enforced.

Leigh Hunt the brilliant, sparkling English author is dead. The news of his demise was brought by the Anglo Saxons.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE!

That Saml G. Daily is branded by his neighbors as a whiskey politician, school Land plunderer and a man of bad faith.

Withdrawal of Maj Gregory.

Recent and increasing difficulties connected with the discharge of my official duties, induce me formally to decline the nomination tendered me by the Dixon County Convention. In doing so I return my grateful acknowledgments to those whose preference assumed me for the position, and particularly to the many friends who have so kindly tendered me their support.

AGARD.

We insert above the card of Major Gregory, withdrawing his name as a candidate for the Legislature, to represent the counties of Dakota, Dixon, Cedar and L. Hau qui Court. His reasons for so doing are of an official character, and it will be a source of deep regret to his many friends that they cannot manifest their attachment to him, by casting their votes for him for the office for which he is so eminently fitted. We make no suggestion as to a candidate for the position. The Democrats of Dakota county, will submit the question of a choice to the upper counties, and will vote for any good Democrat they may designate. We have heard of the name of Judge Roberts of St. James, spoken of, and we know no one whom we would more cheerfully support, or who would carry with him a larger majority at the coming election.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE.

That Gen. Estabrook, the Democratic nominee and next delegate from this territory will be elected by a triumphant majority.

The Frost.

The effect of the frost of 4th ult, has been most disastrous on the farmers of Northern Nebraska. It was so intense as to amount to a freeze, and the destruction consequently, so complete that growing-corn was literally killed. It was about the usual period of its development, and on careful inquiry we find that only a small proportion of the growing crop, was in such a state of forwardness, as to be beyond the reach of injury from freezing. The amount of a merchantable article will therefore, be inconsiderable. Of bucolic wheat there was a complete destruction—not a bushel will be harvested north of the Reserve. We have also suffered in the loss of garden crops, melons, beans, &c. The exultation which has fallen on us, has been generally east of here, and much farther south than the latitude of forty-two degrees, which is the southern Nebraska limit of its ravages. Potatoes escaped with the destruction of their tops, and are now sending up green leaves, and promise an abundant yield. Our farmers should not be discouraged. No frost as early as this has ever been known in this region. We have yet a soil and climate left which in ordinary seasons, renders this need to no other as a desirable farming or grazing country.

Potatoes.

There is a general complaint of the failure of the potato crop in the East. North of this place the dry weather has cut the crop very short, while in Dakota and Dixon counties the promise of a good yield was never better. Let farmers dig every bushel and safely house them for next year. The price must be paid, and our farmers must be satisfied that it is the most certain and profitable crop that they can turn their attention to, in this country.

Hon. Thos. A. Hendricks, Commissioner of the Land Office at Washington, has resigned his position, and the President has accepted his resignation. He is a prominent candidate for nomination as Governor before the Indiana Democratic State Convention.

Ex-Congressman Hughes of Indiana, has, it is rumored, been tendered the office, made vacant by Hendricks's resignation.

Case County.—We have received a private letter from a well-known, and reliable citizen of Case county, in which he says: "I now have no fears of Case county giving General Estabrook a handsome majority." So it goes! By election day, nearly every county in the Territory will be ready to poll "a handsome majority" for our nominee.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE.

That Saml G. Daily, the Democratic candidate, will go up the spout on the 11th inst.

The Frankfort, Ky., Commonwealth, the leading American paper in that state, says that Mr. Brown, Democratic Congressman elect from the Fifth District, and who is not yet twenty-five years of age, is in point of general ability, the first man in the State—as an orator he has no superior in the beauty of his language, chastity of thought and graceful action.

Gen. E. Estabrook, formerly Attorney General of this State, and now a citizen of Nebraska, has been nominated by the Democrats of that Territory as their candidate for Delegate to Congress. We can from personal knowledge assure our party friends in Nebraska that they have made a good and a strong selection. Gen. Estabrook, is a high-minded intelligent gentleman, decided in politics, and a man of ability and integrity. He will of course be elected. When he ran in this state we gave him between 8,000 and 10,000 majority. We hope he will be as strongly endorsed in his new home. [Green Day] [Wis.] 3rd ed.

New York.—The Democracy of the Empire State are at last united. They laid aside their chronological differences, met at Syracuse on the 10th of last month, nominated delegates to the Charleston convention and adjourned amid cheers. This looks well for the cause in that State and the may now be put down as being in the Democratic line in 1860.

A number of persons in New York are about to present General McMahon, the Duke of Magenta, with a horse and mountings valued at $2,000.

Not the same Man.—The Louisville *Journa*l says the Maj. A. J. Donelson, who recently died in Louisiana, was not Andrew Jackson Donelson, the adopted son of New Orleans' hero, and candidate for Vice President on the Fillmore ticket.

Lord Radstock publishes a letter from Richard H. Dana of Boston, on the subject of balloting in the United States. Mr. Dana shows the benefit of this system in this country, and to prevent fraud it is necessary to deprive it of a secrecy.
