

PRINTERS-TAKE NOTICE

We want a first-rate practical printer, one who understands the printing business thoroughly, as a partner in the Herald office.

THE CHARLESTON DELEGATES.

The selection of Delegates to attend the National Democratic Convention at Charleston by the Democratic Central Committee of this Territory, was a very unwise movement.

A VISIT TO ST. JOHN'S

At one o'clock precisely, on Wednesday the 28th day of last month, we straddled a bag of the Mustang order, and were soon jolting westward, on our way to a town that boasts of the reverential name of St. John's.

Logan is situated on the Missouri bottom alongside the river, has a good hotel, a saw and grist mill, and bears unmistakable signs of having been knocked in the head.

Indian murdered. A week ago last Wednesday, Frank West, an Indian in the streets of Niobrara, killing him instantly. The Indian had engaged to sell a pair of moccasins for him by a certain day, and coming to town the day appointed, excused himself on the ground of having no moccasins to work with.

Tri-weekly mail to Ponca. The citizens north of here, need the establishment of a tri-weekly mail from this city to Ponca.

Fashions. Silk dresses made with a high plain collar, and rounded body and waistband, are in fashion in Paris.

Notice. The members of the Dakota city company will remember the notice of sales of the 25th inst. and present address will be other business to attend in.

There is but one store to minister to the wants of the community, while more are needed. St. John's is an Irish Catholic settlement and was founded by the "St. Patrick's Colony" in 1857.

Gov. Magoffin, of Kentucky, recommends the legislature of that State to prohibit by law, under severe penalties, the marriage of co-sins.

Homestead exemption. We do want a Homestead Exemption Law, and hope to see our Legislature pass one before it adjourns.

Notice. The Old South Church, in Boston has an annual income from its real estate of nearly $30,000. It has two ministers, and pays each of them a salary of $4,000.

Notice. Gerrit Smith is recovering. His wife was permitted to visit him a few days ago, and it is thought he will soon be able to return to his home.

Notice. The death of Hon. Linn Boyd, Lieutenant Governor of Kentucky. He has been in feeble health for twelve months and had become so exhausted by suffering, that his life, on several occasions, was despaired of.
