

an unlimited pre-emption sale. The promoter, in the first place, is secure against the ruthless speculator; in the second place, it will encourage the rapid settlement of the territory; in the third place, it keeps the money in the country, which comes in with the emigration, until there is a surplus of produce raised in the country, for a distant market, thereby keeping up a free circulation of money in the country; giving health and tone to mechanical, agricultural and commercial pursuits; and, in the fourth place, the lands will be settled up by industrious farmers, instead of being entered by foreign speculators, and then held back for a high price, until the country looks more like a barren wilderness, than well cultivated fields.

Fellow Citizens, there are a thousand other arguments that might be adduced, but space forbids any more being offered at this time. I will now conclude this article, by making a few remarks in reference to self: First—in politics, I am a Democrat; by trade, a house-carpenter; thirty-five years old, six feet high, weigh one hundred and seventy pounds, have a wife and three children. Expected to be sneered at, belied and opposed by all, at whose interests my principles strike, but I want it to be distinctly understood, that I shall walk this race through, adopting the language of Richieu: "That there is no such word in the Lexicon of Youth, as fail."

Mexican Mustang Liniment.

With a Healing Balm we come to greet you.

THE action of this Liniment is one of the most perfect remedies ever offered to the afflicted. Its action upon the organization is truly wonderful. Its volatile, penetrating, soothing and healing properties diffuse themselves to the very bones. It enters into the circulation of the blood—gives a new impulse to whole nervous system to the very extremities of the fingers—and stimulates the absorbents and secretions, and thus assists NATURE to throw off and rid herself of any diseased action of the nervous chords or ligaments, making it equally applicable to sores of any kind, rheumatism pains in every part of the body, from a diseased action of any of the structural portions of the system. While it is perfectly harmless to healthy flesh, skin or bones, it has the property of entering into combusting and dissolving any of the organic tissues when they are diseased, or their vitality is destroyed. Possessing these peculiar powers, is the reason why it is equally efficacious in so many different complaints. It acts upon scientific principles and fixed laws of the Creator!

The large number of cases in which this Liniment has proved its value, in the short time it has been before the people of America, is sufficient to give the greatest confidence that its virtues are incomparable in curing rheumatism, bruises, strains, burns, wounds, swellings, broken or cracked breast, old sores or pins in any part of the body.
