

LOCAL NEWS.

Gen. Washburn at Memphis.

The stone work on the new building, corner of Main and Third streets, is about completed.

Dr. Blackburn, of Yellow Fever notoriety, has been admitted to bail in the sum of $8,000.

Twenty-four hundred Rebel prisoners at Camp Chase, Ohio, have taken the oath of allegiance and been discharged.

W. H. Miller has resigned the editorial chair of the Rejo Register. We are not informed who is to be his successor.

Those wishing extra copies of the Herald will confer a favor by leaving their orders as early as Saturday morning of each week.

Five thousand men are reported to have gone from New York and Philadelphia within a few weeks, it is supposed for Mexico.

A Washington correspondent asserts that it is known there that the Emperor Maximilian and Kirby Smith have recently been in negotiation.

We understand that orders have been received at Omaha to remove all business connected with the U. P. Railroad from that city to Bellevue.

A fish was caught in the "Old Muddy" yesterday which weighed 67 pounds. Who can beat our "fish story?"

Butter is selling at retail in this market for 25 cents; Eggs 20 cents; potatoes $2.25 per bushel; hams 20 cents per pound; flour from $4 to $4.75, per hundred.

The Rebel Gov. Harris of Tennessee has been captured with $500,000 belonging to that state. The state archives and bonds have also been secured.

The average pay due each soldier is $250, and the Government is ready to pay and discharge every man of the two armies now in Washington.

The Committee on the Conduct of the War has adjourned sine die. Its report has been submitted to the Secretary of the Senate.

Gen. Sheridan, it is said, goes to Texas with orders to destroy and lay waste, if the Rebel forces persist in holding out after receiving fair notice.

John Miller, of the White Cloud Chief, proposes George Francis Train, of "Immensity of space," as a candidate for President in 1868.

A man bound for Colorado was robbed in this city, a few days since, of $100, by a man in his employ as a teamster. The scoundrel left for parts unknown.

Melons & Epperson, Second street, near Ferry Landing, have received an immense stock of groceries, which they are offering off to emigrants, freighters and farmers at reduced prices.

Wages by the Republican that a train has left Omaha for the west, taking their chances on the north side of Platte River. May success attend them, but the chances are against them.

Max, of the Nebraska City News, was in the city on Monday. He informed us that he thought of "investing" but we have not heard of any rise in "Lager" yet.

Report prevailed in New Orleans on the 15th inst. that Kirby Smith had been assassinated by Major Meke in consequence of a difficulty growing out of a cotton speculation.

The record kept by the Ferry company shows that twenty-three hundred empty emigrant and freight wagons crossed the Missouri river at this point during the month of May.

Major General Suez, having resigned his position in the army, is now chief editor of the Wheeler, one of the best Republican papers published in Baltimore, Md.

L. Golding has opened a Clothing House on Main street, between Fourth and Fifth. He proposes erecting a brick business house as soon as material can be obtained.

The brick kiln in the South part of town has been fired, and we may expect to see some new buildings going up in a short time. The scarcity of building material has been a great drawback to our city the present season.

A Washington dispatch says that Gen. Banks was not removed from command for any political consideration whatever. Gen. Grant displaced him for military reasons, and refuses to discuss the question of reconsideration.

Gen. Mexico.—The Farmers' Club will meet at the Sheriff's office in Plattsmouth, at 2 o'clock on Saturday next. Let every farmer turn out, and show, by his presence at least, that he is interested in the Agricultural advancement of our country. Do not stay at home because you are busy, but take time to inform yourself of the progress others are making, and also to impart your own views and experience, that others may profit thereby.

Clothing.—Read the advertisement of S. Bloom, and then don't fail to go and buy something. They are selling goods as cheap as they can be had in the east, with addition of freight. Who could ask them to sell for less?

It is now stated that the paper found on the person of Booth, implicating Jeff. Davis in the crime of the former, was in cipher, and that it was read by means of another document written in a similar character previously found in Davis's house at Richmond.

On the 9th inst. Jeff. Davis, after dividing a portion of his specie among his escort, informed those with him that they would have to look out for their personal safety. He then started with a few friends for the coast, but before reaching it he was captured.

Services.—In accordance with the proclamation appointing Thursday, the 1st day of June, as a day of mourning, humiliation and prayer, the different religious denominations of this city will meet at the Methodist Church, at 11 o'clock a. m.

The people of Omaha are considerably exercised about a bridge across the Platte. They are holding meetings almost every night, and if wind work would stand on the quicksands of the Platte they would already have material enough for half a dozen bridges. But it takes something more than gas, as our neighbors will find to their sorrow, to enable trains to cross that troublesome stream.

Read the advertisement of E. T. Duke & Co. in to-day's paper. They have an almost endless variety of everything in their line and are selling them at lowest figures. They have a few of Stewart's celebrated cooking Stoves, which are a little the nicest arrangement for the kitchen we ever saw. Give them a call if you want to get your money's worth.

It is reported in town that the people of Glenwood unceremoniously suspended one of their citizens to a limb a few days since. He had been caught stealing horses, and they concluded to make an example of him for the benefit of others engaged in the business.

Pic Nic.—A large number of the young people of Plattsmouth went to Eight Mile Grove on last Saturday, where they were joined by the "Youth and Beauty" of that neighborhood, and had an agreeable picnic. Everything went off to the satisfaction of the young folks, and they returned in the evening impressed with the agreeableness of picnics in general, and that one in particular.

In Town.—L. Frost, of the firm of L. Frost & Co., Nebraska City, and Samuel Burns, of the firm of Ketchum & Burns, Omaha, were in town on Monday. The most enterprising business men of our neighboring cities are beginning to cast their thoughts upon Plattsmouth as the most desirable point on the river to locate, and we may soon look for a "rush" to this place.

To CORRESPONDENTS.—We have received several communications of a literary character, which have been laid aside—not that we did not appreciate them, and it we were publishing a literary paper would be pleased to receive them; but we are trying to publish a news paper, and consequently do not wish to interfere with the business of the Ledger, Mercury, or other papers of like character. We will be pleased to publish all communications which contain news that will be of interest to our readers, or which tend to develop the resources and advantages of our Territory, but we shall not attempt to compete with eastern journals in literary matters.

THE TRIBUNE for 1865. PROSPECTUS.—The Military and Naval successes of 1864, with the auspicious result of our Presidential contest, have lifted a heavy weight from the breasts of the loyal millions of our countrymen. It is now felt, earnestly those who have been distressed and faint hearted, that the Union is to emerge triumphant and united, and that the Republic is to be preserved in its integrity. The people of foreign intervention and of Western insurrection are safely passed; Arkansas, Louisiana, the helm of state for four years longer; the rebellion, palpably weakened by its defeats, and lower during the last year—with its credit so reduced that its purse-leaver, essentially declares that its Treasury can only be kept afloat by a loan at the rate of twenty five per cent, while its bonds command but six cents on the dollar; and while the blow which shall soon strike the sword from its pariah hand be to the elements, of a world wronged and justly incensed but bearing and exp. amitious people. Such are the prospects which justify our faith that the present year will see the Stars and Stripes float unchallenged from every battlement in the Republic. The New York Tribune, founded in 1841, will continue upon its twenty-fourth year with quickened hope and enlarged means of acquisition. Its principal object is to re-assert the principles of the diffusion of intelligence and the insurrection of a spirit of Freedom and humanity. We are the only paper which has been generally recognized and established as the basis of our institutions and policy, that is a fearful mistake—that no community or state can afford to neglect even its humblest duties, and that our land to be more in the calm sunshine of peace and prosperity.

Terms.—The Tribune has for the last year been published without profit to its proprietors, solely because of the depreciation of our currency and the expense of the paper and other materials at a cost considerably above the amount received for our advertisements. On our weekly edition, the net loss has amounted to several thousands of dollars; while our large readers from advertising have the weekly proceeds, Telegraphing, etc., devoted to the benefit of our country. As we do not expect our readers to share the loss which we should work for them at our cost, and prefer not to be patronized by any who will not pay for the paper, we have advanced for the ensuing year the price somewhat above that of our daily edition. This increase is purely nominal; there never before was a time when the Tribune was so generally read as now. The Tribune for a little of their own products or labor as they can by the use of the Tribune.
