

PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA. WEDNESDAY, AUG. 2, 1865

THE COPPER VISIBLE.

After the surrender of Lee and the assassination of President Lincoln, the rebel element in the North subsided to a considerable extent, and but few of that class were to be found who were foolhardy enough to express their real sentiments.

This kind of talk only confirms us in the belief which we have before expressed, that these men only want the pretext and the power to again involve the country in difficulty.

It may, or it may not, be to the best interest of the country to allow those so lately in arms against the Government, to have the full privileges of citizenship; this is a question that will bear discussion.

In justice to Mr. Duke, our County Treasurer, who has been accused of giving us the tax-list for publication to the detriment of the tax-payers of this county, we would refer said tax-payers to a resolution adopted unanimously by the editorial convention of this Territory, sometime last fall.

That convention was composed of at least one representative from each new-paper then in existence in the Territory, except, perhaps, the Rulo Register; and the resolution in question was to the effect that no paper represented in that convention would publish the list of lands and lots upon which taxes were delinquent, for the compensation prescribed by law.

During the past week there has been a considerable demand for goods at our new mining camps. Staples and general merchandise in fair demand at quotations.

The correspondent of the New York Herald writes as follows from Columbus Mississippi, with respect to the intelligence of the Southern whites: "The candid truth is, that generally speaking, the great majority of the Southern whites are not one whit the superior in education or moral of the negroes."

Gen. Butler's resignation which was sent on the 1st of June, has been returned marked "not accepted" and he has been sent for to Washington, where he is likely to be assigned to duty connected with the Freedmen's Department.

FROM THE WEST.

Fort Laramie, July 27. One thousand Sioux, Cheyennes, Arapahoes, Blackfeet and a few Comanches attacked Platte Bridge Station, on the Telegraph road, day before yesterday.

Number not known, and a loss on our side of Lieut. Collins and one enlisted man of the 11th Ohio Cavalry and 25 men of the 11th Kansas and 9 men wounded.

There is not the slightest disposition manifested on the part of these Indians for peace. On the contrary, peace will only be obtained by severely punishing them.

One of the Powder river columns is now en-route to join the force at Platte Bridge which is moving in the rear of the Indians, and holding them in check until reinforcements arrive.

Julesburg, July 31, 10 A. M.

A party of about 30 Indians attacked a small train of emigrants 40 miles west of here, on Saturday morning, killing and scalping two men and capturing one wagon and team.

War parties of Indians have appeared in several places on the South Platte River and there is no doubt they are a considerable force in the vicinity, bent on mischief.

MONTANA ITEMS.

The Virginia City Post of the 24th ult., furnishes the following: Flour and merchandise generally has been already received at Last Chance, via Fort Benton and the Missouri river navigation.

Markets, Virginia City, June 24th, '65: Flour—There has been a quietus put upon the sales of the past week, the market being well supplied, prices ruling the same as at last quotations, with a lighter demand.

Our Produce Market continues quiet, prices rule about the same as at our last review, little doing.

Provision market firm, with an upward tendency. The demand is increasing for the spring staples.

The correspondent of the New York Herald writes as follows from Columbus Mississippi, with respect to the intelligence of the Southern whites: "The candid truth is, that generally speaking, the great majority of the Southern whites are not one whit the superior in education or moral of the negroes."

The London Herald says the North has lost a million and a half of men in the war, and argues hence that the Government is weak and exhausted.

The Oregonians are getting excited over the discovery of new gold diggings; reputed to be the richest and most extensive ever found in the northern country.

Important Decision in New Orleans—Slidell's Property.

A New Orleans paper says: Judge Durell, of the United States Court, delivered his decision in the intervention of the Citizens' Bank and of Macquard & Co., in the suit of the United States against John Slidell, for confiscation of his real estate in the city of New Orleans.

The Judge further decided that the power of attorney filed by Mr. Slidell's agents did not give them the power to mortgage his property. In regard to the intervention of Macquard & Co., who claim a mortgage in their favor on Mr. Slidell's property for advances, to the amount of $20,000 francs, Judge D. decided that when the mortgage was given in Paris, it was well known to the intervenors that Mr. Slidell was an enemy to the United States, and a traitor; that he was acting as commissioner of the so-called Confederate States; they knew the risk were taking, and they grounded their hopes of repayment upon the prospects of the success of the insurgent States in overthrowing the authority of the United States.

The intervention of the Citizens' Bank and of Macquard & Co. were therefore dismissed at the cost of the intervenors.

Secretary Seward is perhaps the ablest Statesman now living in the United States. His services to the country the last four years. The trained diplomats of Europe have been constrained to yield to his superior ability.

"LITTLE DROP OF WATER," &c.—The town of Waterbury, in Connecticut, has the most varied and extensive manufacture of brass articles of any place in the country, or perhaps in the world; and all spring from one man making a set of brass buttons.

"But general" sez I. "in all this wat do you purpose for us Northern Dimeknicks?" "Toward them our bowels melt with love. We forgive you. Ef you kin take the old autooid, well and good—ef not—"

"Hold!" sez I "don't dreat. A gin-ooine Northern demekrat wants but little here below, but wants that little long—give him a small post orris, a nigger driver to look up to, and a nigger to look down to, and he is soop'rnely happy.—Ef an angel in glory waz two offer 2 trade places with him, harp, golden crown and all, he would ask odds."

INDICTMENTS FOR TREASON—It is reported that the Grand Jury of Andrew county, at a recent session, acting under the charge of Judge Herron, indicted over three hundred persons in that county for treason. The Judge is said to hold the opinion that they are subject to punishment under the State courts, as well as those of the United States.

The defense of these fellows will afford a rich harvest for the lawyers.—"When men dance they must pay the fiddler."—St. Joe. Herald.

The Agricultural Bureau at Washington has received reports from different parts of the country which represent that the crops of hay, potatoes and corn, will be larger than at any previous year. The hay crop will be fully one third larger than ever known before.

The New York Times has the following in regard to the position occupied by President Johnson on negro suffrage: "We have very little doubt that upon this subject he entertains the same opinion as the great body of judicious and reflecting persons throughout the country, namely, that distinctions in political rights and franchises should no longer be based on distinctions of color, but that in every State negroes should be allowed to vote upon the same conditions and under the same circumstances as whites."

The London Herald says the North has lost a million and a half of men in the war, and argues hence that the Government is weak and exhausted.

The Oregonians are getting excited over the discovery of new gold diggings; reputed to be the richest and most extensive ever found in the northern country.

THE STATE SEAL OF VIRGINIA.—The State Seal of Virginia has been materially altered by the new State government. The device is the same, but the motto, "Sic Semper Tyrannis," has been expunged, and the words "Liberty and Union" now appear above the Goddess of Liberty trampling upon the prostrate form of Tyranny.

All the rebels in Canada save George N. Sanders and Jacob Thompson have taken the oath of allegiance and applied for pardon. Gen. Potter has informed them that it will be a long time before the Government will pardon any of the rascally rebels who have been spending their time in plotting raids and piracies on the borders.
