Men Frozen to Death. Yesterday morning, at 10 o'clock, Mr. Pooler's train from Denver crossed the ferry at Belmont, having made the trip in from Denver in twenty-two days. The train experienced very severe weather, and laid over one day at

Fort Kearney. Two men froze to death going from Kearney City to the Fort, a distance of only two miles .-

Their bodies have not been found, being buried in the snow. At Rock Creek, on the 13th, two men were frozen to death. Each had a team. Three horses out of the four also froze to death. The members of Mr. Pocler's train made up a subscription of $45, and delegated Mr. Wm. Delaney, of Colorado, to disburse it to their families. He rode twelve miles that night to do so, besides giving them all the spare provisions on the train, as they were entirely destitute of food. The names of the unfortunates were
