The deplorable contest in our country, which for the past four years has separated States and p-opie, inaugurated and carried on to destroy the Fideral Union of the United States, is now ended. History enthroned in the maje ty of a coming judgment, with We are citizens of States whose prosthe calmness of retrospect, and the impariality of truth, will determine on the Union. We are citizens of States whom the responsibility rests of this crime against representative government. It will award to sections and individuals their merited condemnation. The oracles of truth and justice, unimpaired by the passions and prejudices of men, will proclaim a final and unalt-rabie decree. Let us then leave to these autributes of Omniscience their divine duties. The civil war is closed. Effort of parriots and sta esmen must now be directed to the restoration of unity and concord among the people who so lately were in hostile array against each other. The things that are behind must no longer occupy our and mankind. thoughts, since they excite discord and embattered association. The future must engage all our energies.
