IS IT SO?

We hear a rumor that the President has virtually vetoed the bill equalizing soldier's bounty, by issuing instructions to the last Congress...

WILL THEY ENDORSE IT.

The Philadelphia "assemblage of brains" which had no outlet claims that the "Constitution is precisely as it was before the war"...

An unusually frank Southerner says, in the Macon (Ga.) Telegraph: "The bugle now sounds the rallying cry, and we must give back the swelling echo—'On to Philadelphia'..."

The Philadelphia Convention.

We are unable to express our views in regard to the action taken by the above convention, as we have not yet received the proceedings in detail.

THE NOMINEE.

We notice some lightest among the papers of the Territory in regard to who shall be the nominee of the Brownville Convention for Delegate and Member of Congress...

STAND FIRM.

We hear occasionally of a stray Republican expressing himself well pleased with the "Philadelphia Address."

"WAIT AND SEE."

To such persons as are really blinded by the plausible surface of the Philadelphia Address and Resolutions; and to such as think they are destined to be the foundation of a party that will rule, and who desire to be on the "winning side," regardless of the great principles of liberty and justice...

LINCOLN'S POLICY.

As a great deal has been said in regard to Lincoln's policy of reconstruction of the rebel States, and it is claimed by the party of "brains" that they are carrying out the policies of Mr. Lincoln...

HELP FROM MISSOURI.

The following Washington special appears in a late number of the Chicago Times: "The Missouri Delegation have strongly and earnestly recommended Maj. Gen. H. H. Hath, for the Governorship of Nebraska..."

INTERESTING TO SOLDIERS AND THEIR HEIRS.

We copy from the N. Y. Tribune the following very important and interesting intelligence for those soldiers having claims against the Government under the bounty act:

A NOBLE APPEAL.

The following appeal from Southern Unionist will send a thrill through the heart of every loyal man in the nation, and especially those brave "boys in blue" who fought for and with these Southern Unionists...

WHY IS IT?

There is no man or newspaper in the land that dare deny, publicly, that the first duty of the government is to give protection to loyal citizens; yet we find a party organizing on the principle of giving the power of the government into the hands of rebels...

some boldly, that those people in the South who were loyal to the government during the war are not deserving of protection and consideration above those who fought for the overthrow of the government.

GRANT AND JOHNSON.

The Chicago Tribune of the 22d inst., gives a full explanation of Gen. Grant's presence at the time Johnson received the Dread-Notter Committee from Philadelphia.

CALLING A THING BY ITS RIGHT NAME.

"One of the delegates from Wisconsin to the Philadelphia Convention having telegraphed to Mr. Geo. M. Gray, of the Michigan Southern Railroad, concerning commutation tickets over that road, received the following answer:

"There will be no deduction on tickets to the rebel Convention."

Geo. M. GRAY, General Passenger Agent, Michigan Southern."

"We presume the Michigan Southern Railroad Company will not be slow in dismissing Mr. Geo. M. Gray from their service."

"The Philadelphia Convention being in great part composed of rebels, will be a 'rebel Convention,' and Mr. Gray only called the thing by its right name when he thus termed it."

"We are very sorry to learn that the Michigan Southern Railroad Company, a thoroughly loyal institution, should 'dismiss' Mr. Gray to gratify the rebel Times, or even repudiate his action."

who helped us in our necessity, and the blood of the innocent, wantonly shed, will be shed by malignant, vengeful rebels, will rest heavily on his soul."

—N. Y. Tribune.

"The Kansas Jeffersonian says the Philadelphia Convention adjourned because the Northern speakers were ashamed to look their Southern brethren in the face after having run off to Canada and left them to fight alone for four years."

Who says now that a dog cannot be looked out of countenance?

CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—Fill telegraphic correspondence between the authorities at Washington and the authorities at New Orleans, in reference to the late riot in that city, were published this morning, but they are cut down very much and rather disconnected, so they will not be transmitted until they are received in full by the mails.

The President is making many removals, and appointing in their places, endorsers of his policy, among which are Wade Hampton, who has been appointed Postmaster of Pittsburgh.

Many soldiers who refuse to support the President, are receiving their dismissals every day.

There is no confirmation of the report that Sheridan will be relieved and no faith is put in it.

The Indiana Republican State Central Committee have appointed a delegation to the Southern Unionist Convention, including Gov. Morton, Senator Lane, Thomas H. Nelson, Richard W. Thompson, William McKee Dunn, L. Gov., Conrad Baker, &c.
