

The Union Triumphant!

DEMOCRACY PLAYED!

JOHNSON SCOOPED!

Cass County Redeemed.

OMAHA FOR MARQUETT.

Let the Union Bird Scream!

We have but few returns, but enough to know that the day is ours by a triumphant majority.

Plattsmouth precinct gives 49 majority for Marquett and 33 majority for the balance of the ticket against 20 Democratic last election.

Oreapolis gives 14 Union majority against 2 Democratic in June.

Omaha gives Marquett 12 majority, against a heavy Democratic majority heretofore.

The victory is complete.

Our weekly paper is pretty well filled with election matter, which may not be particularly interesting now; but our readers will bear with us for the good it may have done in the daily.

From Wednesday's Daily.
As we predicted, Marquett had all the argument and Morton all the "nigger" in their speeches at this place.

Teams will be in readiness at the Court House at half past nine o'clock tomorrow morning to convey all who desire to go to Eight Mile Grove—free of charge.

SICK HEADACHE can be cured. How many hundreds, nay thousands of the human family allow themselves to suffer with Nervous and Sick Headache, when the great sovereign remedy, Roach's Blood Pills can be obtained of any respectable druggist.

The Democrats have imported Mr. Woolworth to do battle for them in this county. He relieved himself at Mr. Pleasant last night, and was handled without gloves by Gen. Livingston. Those who were present say that Livingston completely used up this imported constitutional lawyer.

It is to be hoped that a large number of the fair sex will be present at the Grove tomorrow. They have done much toward saving this government from destruction, and they should now assist, by their countenance, in the effort to restore the states to an equal footing. An invitation is extended to all.

During Morton's speeches at Omaha, a Democrat who had become thoroughly nauseated with his constant repetition of "nigger," "chop-shins," "gizzard-footed," and a few more of the phrases which make up the principle part of his speech, cried out: "Oh! talk about something else—talk about the weather!" The rebuke was cutting, and only expressed the feelings of many sensible Democrats where he has spoke.

If anybody thinks Jas. R. Porter, the Demo-copper-johnson candidate for councilman from this county, is not a constitutional lawyer, all they have to do to be convinced is to ask Mr. Woolworth. Porter made a speech at Mr. Pleasant last night, in which he noted the part of an expounder of constitutional law, and taught Woolworth many things which he had never dreamed of. Woolworth twisted, squirmed, winced, and looked at his watch during the whole of Mr. Porter's able exposition, very much in the same way that Democrats did at the speech of the "Maryland man" two years ago at Nebraska City.

From Thursday's Daily.
See advertisement of Wm. S. Thatcher. Go and see him, and get yourself cured without taking any medicine. It is the greatest thing of the age.

Mr. A. D. Richardson, the noted correspondent of the New York Tribune, is seriously ill at Omaha. We learn from the Republican.

If there is a man in Cass county who desires to keep suffrage an open question, he will probably vote the copperhead ticket. All those who desire to see that question placed beyond the reach of parties, should vote to sustain the Constitutional Amendment.

The people of Cass county are having a grand time at Eight Mile Grove to-day. Plattsmouth is nearly depopulated in consequence. The speaking will be continued this evening. Let those who could not go in the day time, be sure and be on hand to-night.

Discussion is a very good way to arrive at truth. The News, J. Sterling Morton's paper, in its issue of yesterday, advises its party men to avoid political discussions. Probably Morton has felt the necessity of this thing, from the manner in which he has been used up.

The News announces, with apparent gusto, that Morton was listened to in this city without any disturbance occurring. It was a Republican audience—"that's what's the matter" Republicans are not in the habit of disturbing meetings.

Messrs. Livingston, Doom, Holbrook and Fuller, were at Weeping Water Falls last night, where they addressed the largest assemblage ever convened in that locality. Their arguments were convincing, and many Democrats came to them after the meeting and said they were in favor of the doctrines they advocated.

From Friday's Daily.
A vote for the Republican ticket is a vote for settling the question of negro suffrage by leaving it to the States themselves.

Let every man who believes the vote of a northern soldier should count as much as the vote of a keeper of a rebel prison pen, turn out on Tuesday next and vote to sustain the Constitutional Amendment.

The new Episcopal church edifice in this city is fast approaching completion. The walls are finished, the rafters and sheathing boards on, and it will be entirely enclosed in a few days. It will be a beautiful building, in a slightly place, and will add much to the appearance of our city.

We understand that J. S. Higbee, the "Auction man," sold out a few copperhead speakers at Rock Bluffs last night, by convincing them that he knew something about the war, and knew how to tell it. Mr. Higbee and others will address the citizens of Rock Bluffs tomorrow (Saturday) evening. Turn out, if you want to hear something rich.

A large number of people were in attendance at the Grove yesterday, and they had a good time generally. Speeches were made by Col. O. P. Mason, Gen. Thayer, Gen. Livingston, W. P. Tenney, A. L. Sprague and others. Mason spoke in his usual earnest and telling style, dealing such sledge hammer blows against "My Policy" as made it extremely uncomfortable for the supporters of A. Johnson. Gen. Thayer did not arrive until a late hour, being detained at the Platt river; but he made it "count" when he did commence.

From Saturday's Daily.
Porter & Co. have been extremely anxious to hold joint discussions, but were always careful to want them at our appointments. They were unwilling to make arrangements and advertise joint discussions, but would occasionally come around and ask the privilege of speaking at our meetings. They have been granted that privilege every time it was asked, although some of our own speakers have been compelled to give way to accommodate them. Did Mr. Porter get enough at Louisville last night?

From Monday's Daily.
Those who were present say that Marquett warped Morton even worse at Nebraska City than he did here. Hurrah for Marquett.

Col. O. P. Mason, Gen. Livingston, and others speak at Rock Bluffs to-night. Pottenger, Sprague, Chapman, and others speak at Union School House to-night.

Call and see the magnificent Calumet Picture at Thomas' Gallery, taken by Mr. Reno. This is something new or our western country. Those wanting Photographs should call soon, as this fine weather won't last many days.

Marquett arrived at home late last night, having spoken in all the towns in the southern part of Nebraska since leaving here. Morton did not accompany him beyond Nebraska City. We incline to the belief that Morton has about enough of "Kas County Kussea."

Maj. Taffel arrived here late on Saturday evening, and made a short speech at the School House. A goodly number were in attendance, considering the time notice was given. The Maj. says the fires of liberty burn bright throughout the Territory, and that victory is certain if we all do our duty. Let us do it in Cass.

The steamer Ben Johnson was sunk near Brownville while on her way down the river. She had on board 240 sacks of wheat for Simpson, Sharp & Co., of this city, and some, we do not know the amount, from Sharp & Palmer, of Iowa. We understand the boat and cargo was a total loss.

See to it that every Union Republican is at the polls before 6 o'clock tomorrow. The copperhead orators threaten another war, and probably the peace and welfare of the nation is at stake. Devote one entire day to your country, and teach demagogues that there is a ruler in Israel.

From Tuesday's Daily.
Wm. Irish, Esq., has our thanks for a beautiful cake, of his own manufacture. Mr. Irish knows how to "do up" all kind of plain and fancy cooking, in the very best style. His restaurant one door west of Stadelmann's clothing House, is becoming deservedly popular, from the fact that he serves up his dishes in a style that will tempt the appetite of an epicure.

The election is passing off quietly with indications of a pretty full vote. Result will be given to-morrow.

J. M. Woolworth has been going about through this county stating that he had fifteen cents, and that when he passed the houses of certain individuals, naming some of the best men in Cass county, for instance Hon. Samuel Maxwell and Capt. Isaac Wiles—he held it tight, for he knows they steal! We take great pleasure in informing Mr. Woolworth that he is looked upon by many of our good men as either a consummate knave or a blundering ass for attempting to make political capital at the expense of the honesty of men who are as well and favorably known in this county as are those named by him as men whose honesty could not be trusted. That kind of talk may be good copperhead argument, but it shows a lack of principle.

We had the pleasure of visiting this morning, that part of the city of Plattsmouth known as Young & Hay's addition. It is located on the beautiful sloping ground immediately west of the original entry, and is the most desirable part of the city for residences. The lots are much larger than those in the business part of town—being only eight in a block instead of twelve—and each lot has either a street or alley on three sides of it. We suggest to those desiring to secure good locations that now is the time to get them. If you wait you may be compelled to pay higher figures than at present, and you cannot lose much by purchasing now. Young & Hay's addition will be the most valuable part of Plattsmouth—excepting the present business portion, perhaps—in the event of this becoming a large place, (as we confidently expect it will). Therefore, we say, now is the best time to buy. Mr. Hay is offering to sell at reasonable figures, and a prettier place for residences cannot be found. Secure a lot, and build on it when you can.

MARRIED.
GILMOUR-TOWNER—In this city Oct. 2nd, 1866 at the residence of H. J. Straight, Esq., by Judge Marshall, Mr. WILLIAM GILMOUR, Jr., son of the Hon. William Gilmore, sen., and Miss LUCY E. TOWNER, daughter of Judge A. Towner, all of Cass Co., N. T.

ERRORS OF YOUTH.
A gentleman who suffered for years from Nervous Debility, Premature Decay, and all the effects of youthful indiscretion, will, for the sake of suffering humanity, send free to all who need it, the receipt and directions for making the simple remedy by which he was cured. Sufferers wishing to profit by the advertiser's experience, can do so by addressing, in perfect confidence, J. C. CONYER, No. 42 Cedar St., New York.

In going for or ordering goods, the great question to be solved is where they can be had so as to enable the purchaser to make the greatest profit. If they can be had near home for about the same money that would have to be paid at a greater distance, it is certainly an inducement. Let our dealers in Groceries, Liquors, &c., reason upon this subject, and when they want anything in the line, go to Westheimer & Epstein, in St. Joseph, and we doubt not they can make it more profitable than to send or go further east.
