DENHAM OR DENMAN.

Who is he? We only know he is a Kansas gentleman, and, it is said, has been appointed to succeed Mr. E. B. Taylor in the Indian office in Nebraska .- Omaha Herald.

We call for a recosideration. We say to Andrew Johnson that Nebraska has men of her own to fill this vacancy. The appointment belongs to the Territory, of right.

It would appear from the above that Andrew has been breaking more "pledges." Did you suppose, gentlemen, that he would prove true to you got the power? Look at it. Didn't after having betrayed as noble a set of men as those who defended and saved our flag from disgrace?

GREELY'S ACCEPTANCE. Here is Horace Greely's letter of acceptance of the nomination for Congress conferred upon him by the Republican convention of the fourth dis trict of New York:

NEW YORK, Oct. 21, 1866. GENTLEMEN :- I heartily accept the nomination you have tendered me.

I came into this district while vet a minor, more than thirty five years ago, and have been at work in it ever since. I have been a legal voter and have voted in nearly or quite every one of the Wards which compose it. My legal residence is now in an adjoining county; but whatever property I have was earned in this district, and here most of it remains. So long as ad investigated. Money loaned on Real Estate I shall be able to follow my calling, I shall doubtless follow it here. There being no obstacles in law or reason, to my serving the district in Congress, should I be chosen by it, I am sure that the very large proportion of as electors who will vote against me, will do so for some reason to them far more cogem and cati-factory than that founded on the location of my dwelling.

Gentlemen, you can hardly have hoped for my election, and know that I did not covet your nomination. I thank you however, as heartily as though the district were not overwhelmingly adverse to us, and shall be as much obliged to our fellow citizens who may support me as though their votes would suffice to clect me.

We are gaining ground, and if we persevere in well-doing, it will not be more than two hundred and fifty years until we have things our own way. Few of us will live to see it, perhaps, but those who come after us will take care of our fame, and the record of the heroic Bread and Buner Brigade. Bully for we'uns. after all. Truth is mighty and must prevail; and if it don't prevail in due season, Andrew will make it prevail. We have much to encourage us. All true patriots endorse our platform. Forrest sends greeting to us, and Quantrell is praying for us; Lez and Beauregard are with us, and his Excelency, President Davis yearns for our success, as a babe for its regular milk. Good joke on the yearns.
