

PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 27, 1867

UP WITH THE FLAG.

Fire the Big Gun!

NEBRASKA A STATE.

The act endorsing the conditions proposed by Congress for our admission passed both Houses of the Legislature...

WORK TO COMMENCE.

The Chariton Patriot announces editorially, that the Burlington and Missouri River Railroad company will commence work upon this end of their line...

THE NEWS ENDORSES.

The Legislative row, and hoists a chicken at the head of its editorial column in consequence of the "victory" (as it terms it) obtained by the mob.

It is a well established fact, that the counties south of Platte river contain nearly or quite two-thirds of the voting population of Nebraska...

THE "ROW."

The Omaha Herald is out in a lengthy article in regard to the disgraceful scenes in the House on Saturday night last...

To them, and to the courageous and inflexible adherence to the right of the democratic delegations of Otoe, Sarpy, Lincoln, Dakota and Douglas is due a result in which all sober-minded citizens will rejoice.

The Senate passed a joint resolution on the 23d inst., to prohibit the payment of any claim accruing prior to the 13th of April, 1861, to any officer who joined the rebellion.

Omaha on Her Muscles.

As Omaha feels contempt for the narrow-minded local haters of her interests, her admiration rises for the men of Otoe, Lincoln, Sarpy, Dakota and Kearney...

We consider the above as an outrage upon the intelligence of the people of Nebraska. It is not enough that Omaha should, by an exercise of "muscle," override the people's representatives...

SETTLED.

The Nonpareil comes out with flaming heads and a long article, the substance of which is that Council Bluffs has triumphed over Omaha...

CLOSING REMARKS.

The following neat and appropriate remarks were made by Mr. Rogers, President of the Council...

Gentlemen of the Council:—The hour of final adjournment of the Legislative assembly having fully come, I desire to improve this opportunity of returning to every member of this Council...

ED. HERALD.—Some unprincipled, low-lived, white-livered, gizzard-hearted aristocrat, who thinks labor degrading, entered the Bout & Shoe shop of Gage & Davis...

ED. HERALD.—Some unprincipled, low-lived, white-livered, gizzard-hearted aristocrat, who thinks labor degrading, entered the Bout & Shoe shop of Gage & Davis...

STATE LEGISLATURE.

The members of the State Legislature met at the Capitol, in accordance with the proclamation of Gov. Saunders...

The Council was organized as follows: President—E. H. Rogers, Chief Clerk—Hewer, of Omaha...

The House organized by the election of the following officers. Speaker—W. F. Chapin, of Cass. Chief Clerk—H. W. Merrill...

The two houses met in joint session in the Representatives' Hall to receive the Governor's message.

Gentlemen of the Senate and House of Representatives:

In pursuance of an Act of Congress certified to have been passed on the 5th and 9th of February, 1867, you have been convened in extra session for the purpose of taking such action as you may think proper in regard to adopting or rejecting certain proposed conditions...

The following is certified to me as being a true copy of the bill as it passed both houses of Congress: [Preamble—No. 21.]

Whereas, On the twenty-first day of March, A. D. eighteen hundred and sixty-four, Congress passed an act to enable the people of Nebraska to form a constitution and State government...

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the constitution and State government which the people of Nebraska have formed for themselves be, and the same is hereby accepted, ratified and confirmed...

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the said State of Nebraska shall be, and is hereby declared to be, entitled to all the rights, privileges, grants and immunities, and to be subject to all the conditions and restrictions of an act entitled "An act to enable the people of Nebraska to form a constitution and State government..."

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That this act shall not take effect except upon the fundamental condition that within the State of Nebraska there shall be no denial of the elective franchise, or of any other right, to any person, by reason of race or color, excepting Indians not taxed...

We find the following letter from Omaha in the Nebraska City Press. It was written by a prominent citizen of Nebraska City who was in Omaha at the time of the Legislative riot...

Another witness. We find the following letter from Omaha in the Nebraska City Press. It was written by a prominent citizen of Nebraska City who was in Omaha at the time of the Legislative riot...

having returned to the Senate in which it originated, the bill entitled "An act for the admission of Nebraska into the Union," with his objections thereto...

Resolved, That the said bill do pass, two-thirds of the Senate agreeing to pass the same.

The House of Representatives having proceeded, in pursuance of the Constitution, to reconsider the bill entitled "An act for the admission of the State of Nebraska into the Union," returned to the Senate by the President of the United States...

Resolved, That the bill do pass, two-thirds of the House of Representatives agreeing to pass the same.

No doubt would have been more satisfactory to you as I frankly confess it would have been to me, if Congress had given the settlement of this question directly to the people of the Territory...

The day, in my opinion is not far distant when property qualifications, educational qualifications and color qualifications, as precedent to the privilege of voting, will be known no more by the American people...

Gentlemen of the Nebraska Legislature, I now, with these concise statements of the case, leave the whole subject in your hands, believing that you will act for your respective constituents and for the whole people of the Territory in such manner as will best reflect their sentiments and their wishes...

Senate called to order. Doom introduced Senate bill No. 1, "An act declaring the assent of the State of Nebraska to an act of the Congress of the United States, entitled 'An act for the admission of the State of Nebraska into the Union,' which, after going through the various readings, was passed by the following vote: Ayes—Messrs. Davis, Doon, Hassall, Majors, Presson, Sheldon and Rogers—7.

Nays—(Democrats, except Hassall, having left the Hall.) In the House the bill was passed by the following vote: Ayes—Butler, Clark, Cole, Collins, Crow, Frost, Fuller, Griffen, Hardenburgh, Haywood, Hoile, Kelley, Parmelee, Rockwell, Slader, Waldner, Wiles, Wallichs, Unthank and Mr. Speaker—20.

Nays—Crawford, Dusham, Graves, Harvey, Rolfe and Trumble—6. Gov. Saunders was instructed by a joint resolution to transmit two certified copies of the act to the President of the United States, one by mail and one by the hands of Hon. John M. Thayer.

Both houses adjourned sine die at 12 o'clock, M., Thursday the 21st.

Another witness. We find the following letter from Omaha in the Nebraska City Press. It was written by a prominent citizen of Nebraska City who was in Omaha at the time of the Legislative riot...

Another witness. We find the following letter from Omaha in the Nebraska City Press. It was written by a prominent citizen of Nebraska City who was in Omaha at the time of the Legislative riot...

country a much larger representation in proportion to its population, than the southern part of the Territory was allowed. The combinations which have been from time to time effected, have enabled the northern section to maintain an apportionment so unjust that a bill to remedy the wrong was lately introduced into Legislative Council...

Resolved, That the said bill do pass, two-thirds of the Senate agreeing to pass the same.

The House of Representatives having proceeded, in pursuance of the Constitution, to reconsider the bill entitled "An act for the admission of the State of Nebraska into the Union," returned to the Senate by the President of the United States...

Resolved, That the bill do pass, two-thirds of the House of Representatives agreeing to pass the same.

No doubt would have been more satisfactory to you as I frankly confess it would have been to me, if Congress had given the settlement of this question directly to the people of the Territory...

The day, in my opinion is not far distant when property qualifications, educational qualifications and color qualifications, as precedent to the privilege of voting, will be known no more by the American people...

Gentlemen of the Nebraska Legislature, I now, with these concise statements of the case, leave the whole subject in your hands, believing that you will act for your respective constituents and for the whole people of the Territory in such manner as will best reflect their sentiments and their wishes...

Senate called to order. Doom introduced Senate bill No. 1, "An act declaring the assent of the State of Nebraska to an act of the Congress of the United States, entitled 'An act for the admission of the State of Nebraska into the Union,' which, after going through the various readings, was passed by the following vote: Ayes—Messrs. Davis, Doon, Hassall, Majors, Presson, Sheldon and Rogers—7.

Nays—(Democrats, except Hassall, having left the Hall.) In the House the bill was passed by the following vote: Ayes—Butler, Clark, Cole, Collins, Crow, Frost, Fuller, Griffen, Hardenburgh, Haywood, Hoile, Kelley, Parmelee, Rockwell, Slader, Waldner, Wiles, Wallichs, Unthank and Mr. Speaker—20.

Nays—Crawford, Dusham, Graves, Harvey, Rolfe and Trumble—6. Gov. Saunders was instructed by a joint resolution to transmit two certified copies of the act to the President of the United States, one by mail and one by the hands of Hon. John M. Thayer.

Both houses adjourned sine die at 12 o'clock, M., Thursday the 21st.

Another witness. We find the following letter from Omaha in the Nebraska City Press. It was written by a prominent citizen of Nebraska City who was in Omaha at the time of the Legislative riot...

Another witness. We find the following letter from Omaha in the Nebraska City Press. It was written by a prominent citizen of Nebraska City who was in Omaha at the time of the Legislative riot...

New Advertisements.

IMPORTANT.

The owners of a valuable property, being refused by the war to carry on the business, and desiring to sell half of all for cash, or part to desirable lands in Nebraska, in the vicinity of Plattsmouth...

1120 acres of Land, 400 cleared, but only 200 in cultivation this year—fine cotton and corn land. Water fine, which will very probably net from $1000 to $1200 this year...

Under the provisions of an act of the Territorial Legislature, approved February 1st, 1867, the holders of Territorial warrants must present their warrants for payment at my office...

NOTICE.

Under the provisions of an act of the Territorial Legislature, approved February 1st, 1867, the holders of Territorial warrants must present their warrants for payment at my office...

Stray Notices.

Taken up by the subscriber, at his farm in Louisa, Missouri, on the 20th of January, 1867, one white cow, 3 years old, with long horns, white face, a red collar...

Taken up by the subscriber, at his residence in Rock Creek, about 7 miles south of Plattsmouth, on the 20th day of January, A. D. 1867, one white cow, 3 years old, with long horns, white face, a red collar...

Taken up by the subscriber, at his residence in Louisa, Missouri, on the 20th of January, 1867, one white cow, 3 years old, with long horns, white face, a red collar...

Petition for Divorce.

Mary L. Hudson, vs. William S. Hudson. In the District Court of the Territory of Nebraska, in and for Cass County.

Noticed that Mary L. Hudson, defendant, in and for Cass County, Nebraska, did, on the 13th day of February, A. D. 1867, file her petition for divorce against William S. Hudson, her husband...

Legal Notice.

In the District Court of the Territory of Nebraska, in and for Cass County. Lydia H. Haveland, formerly Lydia H. Stanley, formerly Lydia H. Stanley, by her next friend, Henry O. Jones.

Jonathan T. Rogers will take notice that the complainant, Lydia H. Haveland, formerly Lydia H. Stanley, by her next friend, Henry O. Jones, did on the 18th day of February, A. D. 1867, file her petition for divorce against Jonathan T. Rogers, her husband...

CHANCERY SALE.

Simpson C. Rathel and John H. In Chancery. Frederick K. Richards, Deft. In Chancery. In pursuance and by virtue of a decree of the District Court of the 2d Judicial District in and for Cass County, Nebraska, in the case of Simpson C. Rathel and John H. vs. Frederick K. Richards...

Monday March 4th, 1867.

at 12 o'clock noon of said day, all the real estate of said John H. (1st) of the north east corner (1st) of section No. twenty-two (22) and the south half (1-2) of the south east corner (1st) of section No. twenty (20) in township No. twelve (12) north of range No. nine (9) east of and being in Cass County, N. B., and containing 19 1/2 acres...

Probate Notice.

Notice is hereby given that John Jackson has this day made application to the Probate Court of Cass County, N. B., to be appointed administrator of the estate of Lewis Simpson, late of said county, deceased. Therefore, the Court has appointed...

Legal Notice.

John B. White, of the County of Cass, will take notice that Calvin H. Parmelee, of the County of Cass, did on the 13th day of February, A. D. 1867, file his petition for divorce against John B. White, his wife...

Legal Notice.

Charles Baskin, defendant, will take notice that Calvin H. Parmelee, of the County of Cass, did on the 13th day of February, A. D. 1867, file his petition for divorce against Charles Baskin, his wife...

Notice.

To Joseph Kinney J. You will take notice that there is now on file in the office of the Clerk of the District Court in and for Cass County, Nebraska, a certain mortgage...

Cottonwood BARK.

Is a most useful and safe remedy for horses, ponies and doxies than all the medicinal powders in market.

COTTONWOOD.

Is very valuable for use in perfect safety in any part of the United States or foreign countries. It is a most useful and safe remedy for horses, ponies and doxies than all the medicinal powders in market.

COTTONWOOD TREES.

Can be easily obtained near Plattsmouth, Nebraska, and any one desiring to purchase, please apply to the undersigned at Plattsmouth, Nebraska.

COTTONWOOD TREES.

Safely enclosed in 500 per cent, sent by mail in good condition, and postage paid.

COTTONWOODS.

Knows nothing better for the cure of coughs, colds, and all the various ailments of the throat, chest and lungs, than the use of Cottonwoods.

COTTONWOOD BARK.

By my brother's recommendation, I have used for several years a medicine called Cottonwood Bark, and find it to be a most useful and safe remedy for horses, ponies and doxies than all the medicinal powders in market.

COTTONWOOD POLE.

Was soon laid before him. Immediately he bit it, gnawed off all the bark, then ate hay and grain as usual.

COTTONWOOD TREES.

Knows nothing better for the cure of coughs, colds, and all the various ailments of the throat, chest and lungs, than the use of Cottonwoods.

REAL ESTATE.

D. H. Wheeler & Co., Real Estate Agents. PLATTSMOUTH, N. T.

Offer for sale the following Real Estate. East half northwest quarter Sec 7 1/2 R 28 22 12 11 80 West half northwest quarter Sec 12 12 11 80 North half northwest quarter Sec 12 12 11 80 South half northwest quarter Sec 12 12 11 80 East half southeast quarter Sec 12 12 11 80 West half southeast quarter Sec 12 12 11 80 North half southeast quarter Sec 12 12 11 80 South half southeast quarter Sec 12 12 11 80 East half southwest quarter Sec 12 12 11 80 West half southwest quarter Sec 12 12 11 80 North half southwest quarter Sec 12 12 11 80 South half southwest quarter Sec 12 12 11 80

THOMPSON'S ADDITION.

East half of blocks 1, 2, 7, 8 and 10. West half of blocks 1, 2, 7, 8 and 10. Lots 6 and 7 in block 5.

A. L. SPRAGUE.

dealer in Groceries, Provisions, PRODUCE & C. OPPOSITE THE POST-OFFICE.

All kinds of Produce taken in exchange for goods. I keep the very best of goods, and am bound to sell them as cheap as any house in the city.