Prospectus

OF THE Omaha Republican,
DAILY AND WEEKLY.

Its paper is universally recognized as the Leading Organ of the Republican Party,
AND THE

Best, Most Entertaining, and Most Widely Circulated Newspaper in Nebraska.

The Republican Party of Nebraska constitutes three fifths of its voting and fully four-fifths of its newspaper-reading population. Of this largely dominant party the REPUBLICAN—the only Republican Journal published at the Capital—is the recognized organ. In this wide field it has no rival and no competitor, in influence or circulation.

Herald of the Republican cause upon it banner the principle of Equal Rights for All,

and while fighting that great battle through-if God will—to the end, it prompts heretofore to furnish all who rally to its support even a better and more attractive newspaper than ever before.

In the fulness of its State Correspondence, the completeness of its Local and Commercial Reports, in its Statistical Exhibits of the progress of the Trade, Agriculture, Manufactures, &c. of the State, and in every department of Local and General Intelligence, the REPUBLICAN is without a rival.

The Proprietor of the REPUBLICAN is determined to spare no pains or expense to maintain the position of the REPUBLICAN as the most popular and influential journal and the most attractive newspaper west of Chicago.

OUR WEEKLY
Will now be a complete repository of all the Local and General, Telegraphic and Commercial News published in our Daily, as well as all its Original and Selected Literary Matter, and in return for this effort to make the Weekly the Pride of Western Journalism, we ask the united efforts of all our friends to obtain for us

Two Thousand New Subscribers.
