Major Freeman, with 50 men of B Company, 27th Infantry, took a large train and a herd of beef cattle through to Mill Kearney without loss.

Small parties are now active in various directions, and succeed in killing considerable cattle.

The editors of the New York Evening Gazette have been asked by some of their young lady readers if they believe with the Apostle Paul that it is best not to marry.

"Yes and no, dear girls. That depends upon circumstances. A husband is like a blacksmith's largest hammer, in being a very handy and useful article to have about, if you need it and can manage it, and very useless and malapropos if you don't and can't."

Harvey moved to refer H. R. No. 8, on the Constitutional amendment, to a committee of the whole, on Wednesday, 29th, at 2 p. m.

Mr. Wardell presented a minority report. Freeman introduced a resolution that the Secretary of State report to the Senate whether the proceedings of the first session of the Legislature of the State of Nebraska have been journaled and published.

"PLAYED OUT."

Time was when slavery was considered a divine institution—but that has "played out." Time was when the Democracy found a pleasant recreation in bartering abolitionists and rolling them in the river—but that has "played out."

4 P. M.—The clock of St. Paul's has struck. There will be a meeting of the Dean and Chapter to consider the next step.

6—Big Ben struck. Little Ben has struck. There will be a meeting of the Dean and Chapter to consider the next step.

8:30—A journeyman watchmaker caught in the act of making a face.

1—A rumor ran; but all quiet. 1 a. m.—Everything going on like 1 o'clock.—Punch.

The White Mountains are in danger of being invaded by gold hunters.

The late war between Prussia and Austria brought into world-wide notoriety the invention of a novel cannon, got up on the needle principle.

"Mister, I say, I suppose you don't want to hire nobody to do nothing, don't you?" The answer was, "Yes, I don't."

HOUSE COMMITTEES.

The following is a complete list of the standing committees of the House of Representatives for the present session: Privileges and Elections—Daily, Kelley, Bennett, Griffin and Crawford.

6:30—The clock hands have met. Great excitement in the city. Further information impossible, as we have not received any minutes of the proceedings.

6—Big Ben struck. Little Ben has struck. There will be a meeting of the Dean and Chapter to consider the next step.
