The Nebraska Herald.

LOCAL NEWS.

☞The steamer Turner has been raised and steamed down the river.

☞A large drove of fat cattle passed through town last Monday morning going east.

☞The Council Bluffs Bugle printing establishment is offered for sale at a low figure.

☞J. N. Wise, Esq., has sold his Book Store and News Depot to Capt. E. B Murphy.

☞Has any body seen Crawford? We hear it reported that he has gone to Iowa to stump for the Democratic ticket.

☞John F. Buck, Esq., has shown us a specimen of the Bartlett Pear raised by him, which is ahead of anything of the kind we have seen in Nebraska.

☞We call the attention of our readers to the speech of Dr. Renner, to be found on the first page of to-day's paper. It is worthy of a careful perusal

☞A new meat market has been opened at the old Fickler stand. We presume the proprietors will let themselves be known through the columns of the HERALD.

☞There will be a Sunday School Festival and concert, for the benefit of Parish Missions, on Tuesday evening, Oct. 1st, at City Hall, under the direction of the teachers of St. Luke's Sunday School.

☞It is reported that a thousand young ladies between the ages of sixteen and twenty, left New York early last week for the Western frontiers. They go in search of gold, silver and precious stones.

☞We see by the Republican that Hon. J. W. Chapman has been over to Omaha making a speech. Chapman is a vigorous speaker, and we are pleased to see that he still feels an interest in Nebraska politics.

☞The Mayor of Shyster Gwyne's native town, Urbana, Ohio, has written a letter to a gentleman in Omaha, in which he speaks of the Shyster in terms that are not the most flattering. We have a fellow of the Gwyne stripe down here—at least he was here.

☞Remember that the registry books will be open on Monday and Tuesday next for the last time. See to it that every Republican voter is registered before they are closed on Tuesday evening. A failure to register is a failure to vote.

☞Intelligence has been received that the contractor for building the St. Joseph end of the Council Bluffs & St. Joseph Railroad, was to commence work on the first section of ten miles last week. The road is to be completed by next July.

☞The Brick School House, on Sixth street, has been thoroughly repaired and is now a credit to the educational interests of the town. We learn that Prof. James has been engaged to superintend the public schools.

☞S. S. Billings is selling large quantities of fruit. He has peaches, apples, grapes, plums, etc., in abundance. We have seen a specimen of the raisin grape from his vineyard. It is worth a year of ones life to go through Billings' grounds during the fruit season.

☞We have the authority of the clerks of the different steamboats for saying that Plattsmouth has shipped more grain this season than any other two towns on the Missouri river. "Straws show."

☞Wm. H. Valleau, of Brownville, has challenged any one in the State to play a game of billiards, one thousand points, for five hundred dollars a side. The challenge has been accepted by some one in Omaha, probably Johnny Shoaf. The preliminaries are not arranged.

☞See new advertisement of C. G. Herold. "Gus." is wide awake, and is selling hosts of goods at the very lowest figures. We are pleased to notice a general disposition on the part of Plattsmouth merchants to sell goods at greatly reduced prices.

☞The Democracy of Mills county have acknowledged themselves without a man suitable for the office of County Treasurer, and have recommended that Democrats vote for the Republican nominee. There is not one among their own number that they are willing to trust with the funds of the County.

☞Clark & Plummer are now receiving their first instalment of fall and winter goods. Mr. Plummer is east purchasing goods, and within a few days they will have a complete assortment of everything. They are determined to sell goods whether they make one cent on them or not.

☞See the advertisement of Viggenhorn & Co. They have opened one of the finest stocks ever brought to this city, and those who have purchased of them say the "New York Cash Store" sells goods the cheapest of any store in the west. Go and see for yourself.

☞The lots sold at Lincoln during the sale at that place amounted to $38,000. Of this sum $15,000 worth was taken by persons residing in Otoe county, $10,000 worth by other residents of Nebraska, and $13,000 worth by citizens of eastern States. The sale was opened in Nebraska City on Tuesday last. We have heard nothing from it there.

☞The Republican says some chap attempted to garrotte Dr. Pinney about 9 o'clock on Wednesday night, as he was returning from a patient near the Rail road shops. The scamp came up in the dark and suddenly grabbed the Dr. by the collar and attempted to get at his throat; but the Dr. was prompt in action and dealt the chap a couple of hard blows in the mouth, which made him let go his hold and run rapidly away.

☞Every day we see large loads of lumber leaving town for the west, where it is forthwith made to assume the shape of a dwelling of some kind. The old settlers have raised good crops for which they are receiving good prices; new comers are constantly making their appearance among us and erecting their houses—from the homestead shanty to the elegant residence, according to their means—and everything looks bright and prosperous for the future of Nebraska.

☞Wm. Stadelmann, Esq., has just returned from the east, and is now receiving one of the largest stocks of Clothing, hats, caps, boots, shoes, trunks, valises, and everything in his line of business, ever brought to this city. His stock is so large that he has been compelled to open a part of it in the room adjoining his old stand. Call on him if you want bargains.

☞A speaker at the Democratic convention on Tuesday last exhorted the democracy to "go out and hunt up the dutch" and bring them to the polls to vote. That may be very fine democratic language, but it would have required only a small amount of gentility to have spoken in more respectful terms of a class of people who have proven their loyalty to their adopted country as effectually as the Germans in the United States have.

☞We have received No. 2 of the Holden Enterprise, containing Mr. Giles' "introductory." The following is what he says in regard to the politics of his paper:

"As to politics, we have no political aspirations, and as a sage statesman once said, we have no political friends to reward nor enemies to punish, and consequently the part we will play in politics will be to defend the right and condemn the wrong let it come from what source it may, and as an honest journalist to be vigilant in noticing bad and faithless officials, and see that they do justice to the public in the discharge of their respective duties. We are here as before stated for a far better Mission than talking and pesting society on politics."

☞Almost every day we hear complaints about the horrible condition of the road leading out of town towards the south-west. It is sidling in many places, and at some points it is almost impassable during the muddy seasons. This is one of the principal thoroughfares to and from the city, and should be kept in good repair. The travel from Mt. Pleasant, Eight Mile Grove and Weeping Water all passes over this road and we consider it the duty of somebody to see that so important a road is kept in good order. There is nothing more damaging to the commercial interests of a town than bad communication; and just now, when permanent grain markets are being established along the river, it is important that our roads should be made to excel. We have frequently called attention to this matter, but hope we shall not have the necessity of doing so again.

☞W. F. Crawford was arrested last week on the charge of embezzlement. The warrant was issued on the affidavit of Mr. Ahl, Gen. Agent of the Cincinnati Home Insurance Co., which Co. Crawford had been representing at this place Crawford had started west "between two days," but was found by Sheriff Taylor at Ashland and brought back. He was admitted to bail and trial set for last Tuesday at 1 o'clock. At 12 o'clock Crawford could not be found; and his bondsman and attorney—W. Pottenger—has been on the hunt of him since. He was last seen making his way towards the R. R. at Pacific City, and C. H. Parmele close after him.

LATER.—Crawford dodged Parmele at Pacific, stopped the train about ten miles above and got aboard. Went to Council Bluffs, and was nabbed by Sheriff Taylor, of this county, who was in waiting for him.

☞Fairbanks Scales, advertised in another column of our paper, were awarded the highest premium, a Silver Medal, at the great "Paris exposition," being designated Standard Scales in the award. This speaks well for American manufactures, as other scales were on exhibition from this country and from England, France, Germany, Russia, Austria, Prussia and Switzerland.

The Faults of Others.

Mrs. G. N. Denning, Rochester, N. Y., writes: "I have used one of your machines fifteen months, and it has given perfect satisfaction. I find it very easy to operate, not liable to get out of order, and capable of doing every variety of work; while it is entirely free from many faults of other machines, such as dropping stitches and drawing the seam.—[Letter to Wilcox & Gibbs S. M. Co., April 2d, 1866.]

☞If every housewife will throw her cheap, worthless kind of Saleratus and Soda to the dogs, and use only the best Chemical Saleratus, there will not be so much yellow, heavy bread and biscuits to be seen, and consequently not so many dyspeptic ailing persons. Get a paper and if it does not suit your money will be refunded.

RAILROAD Meeting on Friday Night, at the Court-house.

ATTEND! EVERYBODY!

☞A copperhead paper calls the Grand Army of the Republic the 'Grand Army of Rascality." That is a true copperhead idea of the Army and the men that rescued the nation from the clutches of treason. While they are extremely anxious to wheedle soldiers into voting the copperhead ticket, they cannot hide the disgust with which they look upon soldiers who served in the army of the Republic, and it occassionally crops out in just such little slips as the above. Go on; the Army of the Republic has proved victorious over rebel bullets, and can easily withstand those of their allies, the copperheads.

MARRIED.

At the residence of Mrs. J. M. Marsh, of Dubuque, Iowa, September 18th, 1867, by Rev. N. R. Eorhart, of Waterloo, Mr. CHAUNCEY WILTSE, of Plattsmouth, and Miss AUGUSTA C STRONG, of Dubuque.

Mr. Wiltse is chief clerk in the Surveyor General's office in this city, and during his sojourn among us has proven himself a man of most estimable qualities. Miss Strong—now Mrs. Wiltse—has been since her childhood, connected with the public schools of Dubuque, and arose therein through her own industry, energy and ability to the highest position attainable by her sex. The happy couple arrived here last week. May their journey through life be ever pleasant, and their happiness as complete as they merit.

DIED.

On Wednesday, Sept. 18th, at 3 o'clock a. m., FOREST C, only son of J. H. and Mary E. BROWN, aged 7 years and 5 months.

A cycle short was his, a silver span,
Scarce longer than the arch from morn to eve;
A dewdrop through Time's restless seive
Was gathered sweet to Heaven. Yet they must grieve
Who had so loved his youthful joys to plan.
