

PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA.

THURSDAY, OCT. 17, 1867

ELECTION IN NEMAHA.

We have "waited and watched" to hear something definite from Nemaha county, and finally receive the Advertiser with merely a list of those elected—nothing more. It does not say one word as to whether they are Republicans, Democrats or neutrals; but by hunting up the county ticket we find that four of those elected were on the regular Republican ticket, one upon the bolters' ticket, and we presume the others are Democrats. Those elected on the Republican ticket are, Probate Judge, A. W. Morgan; County Clerk, Jas. Hacker; Coroner, B. Otens; Surveyor, F. Wright. The one elected on the Bolters' ticket is James L. McGee, for County Commissioner—we presume he is a Republican. The sheriff elect is Davidson Plasters, and the Treasurer elect is G. W. Bratton. We cannot help congratulating the Republicans of Nemaha on the defeat of the Bolters' ticket, and hope this little piece of tomfoolery will teach them to do their quarrelling in Convention, and not carry it into the campaign. The result in Nemaha is already claimed by the Cops as a Democratic victory.

WHAT WILL PLATTSMOUTH DO?

The people of Cass County have given their assent to the issuing of $200,000 in County bonds to assist in the building of the Burlington and Missouri River Railroad extension through the County, and now we ask, what will Plattsouth do towards aiding the road. It was used as an argument by some against issuing county bonds that the city would derive more benefit from the road than the country, and there is much truth in the assertion.—The city should take at least $100,000 stock in this road, aside from that authorized by the county. The city can well afford to do this, and we hope steps will be taken at an early day to authorize the issuing of bonds. We have every reason to believe that the counties of Saunders and Lancaster will do something to aid the construction of this road, as it is evidently to their interest to do, and with the credit of the counties and towns thro' which the road will pass loaned to the amount of half a million, we may expect to hear the snort of the iron horse going westward through Plattsouth, Ashland and Lincoln, at an early day. We know that this talk of a railroad has become an old story to some of our people, who have waited years to see their hopes realized; but when we take into consideration the surroundings of the case, it is readily seen that we never had the same foundation for hope that we have now, and there never was a time when action was needed more than now. Let the people of Plattsouth do their duty as faithfully as the people of the county have done theirs, and the day is close at hand when the reward will come.

"Bloody Otoe" has been redeemed—retaken—recaptured—from the remnant of Price's army. On the 8th inst. the Republicans elected four out of the seven county officers. The Republican candidates for Clerk, Commissioner, Probate Judge and Coroner, were elected; and by next fall, when we elect a Legislative ticket, State officers, and have a vote for President of the United States, Otoe will be counted as one of the reliable Republican counties. Otoe has done nobly; and the advocates of humanity, justice and morality in that county are entitled to great praise for the result.

Barnum has secured a live gorilla from Africa. In removing it from the vessel to the museum, the animal became greatly enraged at the jarring it was subjected to. In order to securely remove him from the box in which he was placed to his cage, a rope was inserted and fastened to his chain. But the gorilla seized it, and pulled it away from several men who grasped it. He got it in the cage, cut it from the chain, and dropped it through a hole. A huge wrought iron bar was then inserted, and the gorilla seized the bar, pulled it away from two men noted for their muscular strength, and then bent the bar double the two ends actually meeting. He was finally secured, however. His furious howls excited all the animals, women fainted, and children cried. An immense chain, with a resistant force of six thousand pounds, is attached to him. He is five and a half feet high, with an eye like a human being, and a face more resembling man than monkey, and of color like an elephant. His hand is as delicate as a woman's. When irritable he is quieted by a few cloves or nutmegs.

The Republican of the 15th. says:—Yesterday was the day which the law appointed for the canvassing of the votes of the late county election, and at 2 o'clock in the afternoon the county clerk, with two freeholders, Messrs. Reuben Wood and J. F. Coffman, met at the clerk's office to make the canvass. After consultation, the board deemed it advisable, and adjourned till 4 1/2 o'clock. At 4 1/2 o'clock the board came together again, and canvassed the returns of all the precincts until they came to Omaha precinct. This had been reserved till the last. The board were evidently afraid of it—that they might put their foot in it. But now they must face the music. It puzzled them sorely. But, after much twisting, they decided to throw out both polls. As the Republican ticket had a majority in the outside precincts, the effect of this decision is, of course, to elect the Republican county officers by majorities ranging from 26 to 100. The Democratic candidates, who were present, felt terribly chafed, and took themselves out of the room as silently as possible. Another effect of this decision is to deprive Omaha precinct of all its precinct officers.

Geo. W. Bungay, gossiping about Thaddeus Stevens, says: "His grey eyes are full of fire, and look you squarely in the face in conversation. He has an eagle nose indicative of ability and command. His thin and compressed lips show his decision of character, and his broad and lofty forehead is a dome of thought which would make a phrenologist leap with ecstasy."

ABSTRACT OF VOTES

Polled in the several Precincts of Cass County, Nebraska, at a general election for County and Precinct Officers, on Tuesday, Oct. 8, 1867:

Table with columns for Precincts (Oreapolis, Plattsouth, Rock Bluffs, Liberty, Mount Pleasant, Avoca, Weeping Water, Eight-Mile Grove, Loupville, South Bend, Salt Creek, Total) and Candidates (County Commissioner, Probate Judge, Treasurer, County Clerk, Sheriff, Coroner, Surveyor, Co. Supt. Public Schools, For Issuing R. R. Bonds). Includes vote counts for each candidate and precinct.

LATEST NEWS.

The New York Times gives details of an interview with the President, in which the latter said the reports of the Cabinet changes were unauthorized and untrue. He did not include the War Department, as he regarded that office as virtually vacant, and he did not intend to make any change in haste, and would act for the best interests of the country. He is urged to remove all the Cabinet but Wells and Stanberry. He said the elections did not surprise him. Ohio has rebuked the two extremes, defeating Taftman and Wade; and negro suffrage, the only national issue, has been defeated by 50,000.—This he regarded as a repudiation of the Congressional policy of reconstruction. He hoped this lesson would be followed everywhere, and that the people would avoid the dangerous extremes of both parties, and look only to the welfare of the country.

The Post's special says the President has authorized the publication of the following statement:—Whoever shall be appointed Secretary of War shall be appointed outright Vice Stanton removed, the President holding the tenure of office bill to be unconstitutional, which opinion Stanton concurred, in himself preparing a portion of the veto message denying the power of Congress to pass such a bill. The removal of Stanton being accomplished, the President will simply send a message nominating a successor; should the Senate reject the nomination and endeavor to reinstate Stanton, the latter will be compelled to seek a legal remedy by mandamus and bring the question of the constitutionality of the tenure of office bill before the Supreme Court. The suspension of Stanton was adopted in the first place not without abundant caution in order to bring the act within the bill, but the President from the first intended to make his removal absolute.

The St. Louis Democrat describes a "sailing carriage for the Plains." It has two upright jib sails, and a sail on each spoke of the two wheels, one on each side of the wagon, with steering gear acting on the forward wheels, and provision for transferring the wheel sails to the opposite wheels. The inventor is Charles P. Maczowicz, a German, who has been a sailor, and has since spent several years in traveling on the plains. A similar invention was once made in Illinois, at great expense, and proved a total failure.

A New York paper states that the latest strike in England is that of the curates. "The curate, there, is a hired servant of the regular rector, and it is alleged, generally as hard worked as a mill hand. The curates met in London, recently, and adopted a sort of declaration of independence. They complain of excessive labor, inadequate pay, and 'invidious personal distinctions.' The curate often receives $100 or $600 per year from a rector who has an income of $7,000 or $8,000. The superior clergy are said to be alarmed at this unexpected concert of action, but sorely puzzled to know how to equalize the 'invidious social distinctions.'"

The Memphis Post is arguing that the next Republican National Convention should be held in that city, on the ground that it ought to be held upon soil conquered by the Republican party from slavery—a very good reason.

The Leon (Ill.) Statesman hoists the name of Clement L. Vallandigham for President, on the issue of "Redemption of Government Bonds in Greenbacks; or, Repudiation."

THE GREAT VICTORY IN OTOE.

From the Nebraska City Press of the 10th, we copy the following, which will serve to show the extent and significance of the great Republican victory in Otoe county:

"OTOE REDEEMED.—Otoe county is redeemed. She has triumphed gloriously over the opposition that clogged and retarded her advance, and now takes the proud and influential position in the State to which she is justly entitled. She is now ready and able to discharge her duties to herself, the State, and the Nation, and will in future unite with the rest of the State in patriotic measures to promote the public good. She has forsaken the counsel of her blind leaders, and true to the suggestions of her early history has now cast in her lot with that party whose policy is especially the development of these western communities, and with that party that gave us the homestead law, and inaugurated a system of internal improvements, that will greatly increase the general wealth of Nebraska as well as other States of the Union. Of the seven candidates on the county ticket, the Republicans have elected four and the Cops three. At the last general election the vote stood: Morton 834, Marquette 450. Democratic majority 384. This election it stands: Goodlett (Dem.) 500, McCallum (Rep.) 550. Republican majority 50. A gain in the Republican majority of 434 votes in one year. Taking the vote on Mr. Roberts, the candidate at the head of the ticket, and the second on the roll, we have a majority of 44 votes, a gain in the Republican majority of 425 in a year.

THE REASON.

The Sacramento Union, in a well written article on the recent election in California, has the following: "Those who regard this election as a triumph in favor of obsolete Democracy, or as a verdict against the plans of Congress for the reconstruction of the ex States, or an affirmation of the conduct of the President, are greatly in error. These things did not engage the attention of the voters; or, if they did at all, it was only to reduce the majority given against the head of the Union ticket. A square vote on the issue between the President and Congress to-day would result in a majority of 12,000 for the latter. The ruling idea in the election last Wednesday was just this: That the people mean to hold their leaders to fair and honorable dealing in political affairs, and that they will condemn any candidates who do not accord with this sentiment. That the innocent were made to suffer with the guilty is the fault of that general apathy among Union voters which resulted from the necessity of supporting candidates and sanctioning arts they could not approve, or of staying away from the polls. Of the twenty-two thousand four hundred voters registered in San Francisco, a quarter stayed away from the polls; in the Sacramento City one-eighth of the registered voters did not vote; in the strong Union county of Nevada, one of the local papers tells us that 'out of 5,700 voters on the Great Register, hardly 3,500 voted, were cast in the county.' It was the same, we presume, in nearly all the counties; and of those who did vote it is safe to assume that nine-tenths were of the Union party. With a ticket such as the people would have nominated, the Union vote of the State would have been 20,000 more than it is recorded. They were utterly disgusted at the hypocrisy and corruption of the politicians who assumed their leadership, and all the terror of party discipline were as unavailing as the idling. So may it ever be. In this degree of spirit, intelligence and honor the welfare of the State is so safely lodged that no one need ever again despair of it."

A CONTRAST.

The New York World publishes the following contrast between His Excellency and His Accidency. The supreme egotism of Johnson's address is the best comment that can be made upon it. The "flag of the Republic and the Constitution of our fathers" are appealed to, as his own won:

President Lincoln's Address at the Dedication of the National Cemetery at Gettysburg, Nov 19, 1863: "Four score and seven years ago our fathers brought forth upon this continent a new nation, conceived in Liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal. Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and so dedicated, can endure. We are met on a great battle-field of that war. We are met to dedicate a portion of it as the final resting place of those who here gave their lives that the nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this. But in a larger sense we cannot dedicate, we cannot consecrate, we cannot hallow this ground. The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it far above our power to add or retract. The world will little note or long remember what we say here; but it can never forget what they did here. It is for us, the living, rather to be dedicated here to the unfinished work that they have thus far so nobly carried on. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us—that from these honored dead we take an increased devotion to the cause for which they here gave the last full measure of devotion—that we here highly resolve that the dead shall not have died in vain, that the nation shall under God, have a new birth of freedom, and that the Government of the people, by the people, and for the people, shall not perish from the earth."

Col. Forney's LETTERS FROM EUROPE. BY JOHN W. FORNEY, Esq., Editor of the "Philadelphia Press" and "Washington Chronicle," and Secretary of the Senate of the United States.

Since the commencement of the publication of Colonel Forney's letters from Europe in The Press the number of copies of that paper has been in the receipt of innumerable inquiries from those who wished to know if the correspondence would not appear in book form. In accordance with their requests, we will now state that the letters, carefully revised and re-written, with important additions, are now in press and will shortly be ready to the world in a large double-volume volume of 600 pages, by the publication house of T. E. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia, who are sparing no expense to make of it a book which shall combine every feature of typographical excellence characteristic of the best publications of this time. It contains an excellent portrait of the author, engraved in the finest style of the art by one of the best artists in the country, and it will be in every respect a work acceptable to the numerous friends of Colonel Forney. It will be published in a large double-volume volume of over 600 pages, bound in cloth. Price, $2.00. Bookletters, news agents, canvassers, and all others are solicited to order at once whatever they may want of the above work, so that their orders can be filled from the first edition. Address all cash orders, wholesale and retail, to the Publishers of it, T. E. PETERSON & BROTHERS, 206 CHESTNUT STREET, Philadelphia, Pa. Copies of the above book will be sent in any quantity in advance of the day of publication, at any place, postage paid, on receipt of retail price.

THE NEBRASKA "COMMONWEALTH." The undersigned having made arrangements for establishing a Republican paper at Lincoln, the Capital of the State, have the honor to announce to the public that the materials for a first-class publishing and job office have been ordered and will be ready for business in a short time. The "COMMONWEALTH" will labor for the early and rapid development of the resources of our interior counties and the State generally, by the influx of hardy immigrants, and for the immediate construction of the iron highways of commerce, to make a market for the first grain growing section of the Union. As an exponent of Republicanism it will sustain the policy adopted by the Congressional majority, in obedience to the mandates of the man who carried the flag from the "River to the Sea." But while faithful to the principles of the Republican party, we shall freely consider and discuss the great questions of the day as they present themselves, in all candor and with such ability as we may possess. Subscription price $2. per annum in advance. The "COMMONWEALTH" will be issued at the earliest practicable day. C. H. GERE & CO.
