

The Nebraska Herald.

LOCAL NEWS.

The "Herndon House," in Omaha is to receive a new name.

They are taking steps to organize a Literary Association at Council Bluffs.

Remember that Clark & Plummer are selling cheaper than any other house in the county.

It is said that snow has fallen to the depth of eight inches at Julesburg.

The Parish Aid Society will meet at the Rectory this (Thursday) evening.

The United States District Court, Judge Miller, of Iowa, Presiding, commenced its fall term at Omaha last Monday.

To find the best bargains in Dry Goods, follow the crowd to Clark & Plummer's.

Several head of fat cattle have been stolen recently in the vicinity of Pacific City, Iowa.

The second term of the Western Iowa Collegiate Institute, at Glenwood, will open on the 18th inst.

The best article of seasoned oak wood is selling in this city at $0.50 per cord.

Gen. Livingston has purchased the house formerly owned by E. C. Lewis, and is having it enlarged.

If you want a suit of clothes of the latest style you will find it at Clark & Plummer's.

Farmers are busy gathering corn. The crop is generally light for this country, but would be a heavy crop in most States.

Col. Smith, the manager of the recent great editorial excursion over the Pacific Railroad, is writing a book giving a detailed account of the trip.

A colored man named Wm. Smith, was killed in Omaha last week by the Deputy U. S. Marshall. The officer was endeavoring to arrest him.

The New York Cash Store has an immense stock of boots and shoes which are being sold at prices before the war — less than the retail prices in any of the eastern cities. Call and see them.

Capt. Murphy, of the Plate Valley House, in this city, has been "astonishing the natives" about Omaha by sending up a specimen of the Sweet Potatoes raised in this county.

J. R. Clark, of the firm of Clark & Plummer, left for the east a few days ago. He will be absent about six weeks, and will purchase a winter's supply of goods for their store.

A large quantity of lumber has been taken from this city to Lincoln during the past month. The road between here and Lincoln has scarcely a hill, and monstrous loads can be hauled over it.

Ladies, Clark & Plummer have received a nice lot of traveling and work baskets.

Tootie, Hanna & Clark are making some changes in their banking office — putting in a new counter, etc. The business of the bank is transacted in this store during the repairs.

The New York Cash Store, corner of Main and Second streets, has one of the best selected stocks of goods ever brought to Nebraska, and the people have found it out, too. Mr. Wiggenhorn has gone east to replenish.

Weigh your Saleratus when you buy a paper. You will find D. B. De Land & Co.'s Best Chemical full weight, and that others are not. Try all things and hold fast to that which is best and true on weight and quality both.

Gen. Simpson, President of the board of Government Railroad Commissioners, has been relieved from further duty on the board and ordered to other service. He is succeeded by Gen. Burford.

Secretary Kennard has our thanks for a copy of the laws, Joint Resolutions and Memorials of their second and third sessions of the State Legislature, together with the constitutions of the U. S. and the State of Nebraska.

See the big advertisement of Wm. Stadelmann. He is an energetic business man, and understands that it is through the influence of printers ink that customers are found. He has an excellent assortment of goods, and is selling them very low.

Bro. Rob. Morris, the well known Masonic author and poet, is about to visit Nebraska. He will give a recitation of Masonic poems in Omaha on Monday evening, 18th—none but Master Masons admitted. We hope he may give us a call at Plattsmouth.

Clark & Plummer are receiving fresh supplies of goods almost daily. They are determined to keep their stock complete.

Grading has been going on lively for the past week. It looks like the city council had determined to do something for the general good. Some four or five different sets of hands and teams have been at work in as many different places and they have been making the dirt fly with a will. Main St., Second, Third, Sixth and Seventh have received the principal part of the work.

Farmers will find a large stock of farming implements and goods suited to their trade at Clark & Plummer's. w2

The people of Omaha and Council Bluffs are somewhat agitated over the location of the Railroad bridge again. They think the question is soon to be decided. The indications at present are that the location will be made at Omaha or a short distance above.

Maj. Frank North, in command of the "Pawnee Scouts," attempted the punishment of one of his men last week for insubordination, when about sixty of the command mutinied and left for the reservation. Maj. North has been in Omaha consulting the military authorities in regard to the affair.

From the Press we learn that a fire occurred in Nebraska City last week, which destroyed the dwelling houses of D. B. McMechan and Mike Mentle. In the endeavor to save McMechan's house the parties were torn loose and it fell upon Hon. John Graves, killing him instantly. Mr. Graves was one of the oldest residents of the country, and was respected by all who knew him.

As it will be seen in another part of to day's paper, the initiatory steps to organize a Literary Association were taken last Friday evening. Let those who feel an interest in the matter be on hand to-morrow (Friday) evening, at the office of Hen. T. M. Margaret. Look over your books and see if you have not a few good volumes that you can donate to the Association. Several have already been promised.

We publish an advertisement this week of the origin and history of the "Books of the Bible," by Prof. Calvin E. Stowe, D. D. Judging from the title of the work and the known ability of the author, we doubt not this will prove one of the most interesting and useful books in the language. We have sent for a copy, and will speak of it again after having examined it.

Some idea may be had of the amount of business along the "old muddy" when it is known that there is an average of three boats running daily and that for two months past it has been impossible to get a pound of freight aboard at St. Joseph in consequence of the great rush of through freight. Is there no business enough to justify the building of a railroad? Yes, two or three of them.

A new advertisement of Gage & Davis' "Central Store," will be seen in to day's paper. They embarked in the Dry Goods, Grocery and Provision business last summer and have built up a very nice little business. They are both well acquainted throughout the county, and many of our farmers will trade with them. They keep a good assortment, are always accommodating, and are deserving a good patronage from the people of the city and country.

The card of Wm. J. Ford, Upholsterer and paper hanger, appears to-day. This is a branch of business much needed in the city, and Mr. Ford should receive encouragement of a substantial character. He is an excellent workman, as any one can know that will test his manufactures. If you have a room to paper, go and get Ford to do it. It will be much cheaper than to spoil the paper yourself and then be compelled to get an experienced hand to paper it afterwards.

It is already an established fact, that Clark & Plummer have the largest stock of men, women and children's boots, shoes and gaiters offered in this store during the repairs.

The New York Cash Store, corner of Main and Second streets, has one of the best selected stocks of goods ever brought to Nebraska, and the people have found it out, too. Mr. Wiggenhorn has gone east to replenish.

Weigh your Saleratus when you buy a paper. You will find D. B. De Land & Co.'s Best Chemical full weight, and that others are not. Try all things and hold fast to that which is best and true on weight and quality both.

Gen. Simpson, President of the board of Government Railroad Commissioners, has been relieved from further duty on the board and ordered to other service. He is succeeded by Gen. Burford.

Secretary Kennard has our thanks for a copy of the laws, Joint Resolutions and Memorials of their second and third sessions of the State Legislature, together with the constitutions of the U. S. and the State of Nebraska.

See the big advertisement of Wm. Stadelmann. He is an energetic business man, and understands that it is through the influence of printers ink that customers are found. He has an excellent assortment of goods, and is selling them very low.

Bro. Rob. Morris, the well known Masonic author and poet, is about to visit Nebraska. He will give a recitation of Masonic poems in Omaha on Monday evening, 18th—none but Master Masons admitted. We hope he may give us a call at Plattsmouth.

Clark & Plummer are receiving fresh supplies of goods almost daily. They are determined to keep their stock complete.

Grading has been going on lively for the past week. It looks like the city council had determined to do something for the general good. Some four or five different sets of hands and teams have been at work in as many different places and they have been making the dirt fly with a will. Main St., Second, Third, Sixth and Seventh have received the principal part of the work.

Farmers will find a large stock of farming implements and goods suited to their trade at Clark & Plummer's. w2

The people of Omaha and Council Bluffs are somewhat agitated over the location of the Railroad bridge again. They think the question is soon to be decided. The indications at present are that the location will be made at Omaha or a short distance above.

They are taking steps to organize a Literary Association at Council Bluffs.

Remember that Clark & Plummer are selling cheaper than any other house in the county.

It is said that snow has fallen to the depth of eight inches at Julesburg.

The Parish Aid Society will meet at the Rectory this (Thursday) evening.

The United States District Court, Judge Miller, of Iowa, Presiding, commenced its fall term at Omaha last Monday.

To find the best bargains in Dry Goods, follow the crowd to Clark & Plummer's.

Several head of fat cattle have been stolen recently in the vicinity of Pacific City, Iowa.

The second term of the Western Iowa Collegiate Institute, at Glenwood, will open on the 18th inst.

The best article of seasoned oak wood is selling in this city at $0.50 per cord.

Gen. Livingston has purchased the house formerly owned by E. C. Lewis, and is having it enlarged.

If you want a suit of clothes of the latest style you will find it at Clark & Plummer's.

Farmers are busy gathering corn. The crop is generally light for this country, but would be a heavy crop in most States.

Col. Smith, the manager of the recent great editorial excursion over the Pacific Railroad, is writing a book giving a detailed account of the trip.

It is said that snow has fallen to the depth of eight inches at Julesburg.

The Parish Aid Society will meet at the Rectory this (Thursday) evening.

The United States District Court, Judge Miller, of Iowa, Presiding, commenced its fall term at Omaha last Monday.

To find the best bargains in Dry Goods, follow the crowd to Clark & Plummer's.

Several head of fat cattle have been stolen recently in the vicinity of Pacific City, Iowa.

The second term of the Western Iowa Collegiate Institute, at Glenwood, will open on the 18th inst.

The best article of seasoned oak wood is selling in this city at $0.50 per cord.

Gen. Livingston has purchased the house formerly owned by E. C. Lewis, and is having it enlarged.

If you want a suit of clothes of the latest style you will find it at Clark & Plummer's.

Farmers are busy gathering corn. The crop is generally light for this country, but would be a heavy crop in most States.

Col. Smith, the manager of the recent great editorial excursion over the Pacific Railroad, is writing a book giving a detailed account of the trip.

It is said that snow has fallen to the depth of eight inches at Julesburg.

The Parish Aid Society will meet at the Rectory this (Thursday) evening.

The United States District Court, Judge Miller, of Iowa, Presiding, commenced its fall term at Omaha last Monday.

To find the best bargains in Dry Goods, follow the crowd to Clark & Plummer's.

Several head of fat cattle have been stolen recently in the vicinity of Pacific City, Iowa.

The second term of the Western Iowa Collegiate Institute, at Glenwood, will open on the 18th inst.

The best article of seasoned oak wood is selling in this city at $0.50 per cord.

Gen. Livingston has purchased the house formerly owned by E. C. Lewis, and is having it enlarged.

If you want a suit of clothes of the latest style you will find it at Clark & Plummer's.

Farmers are busy gathering corn. The crop is generally light for this country, but would be a heavy crop in most States.

Col. Smith, the manager of the recent great editorial excursion over the Pacific Railroad, is writing a book giving a detailed account of the trip.

It is said that snow has fallen to the depth of eight inches at Julesburg.

The Parish Aid Society will meet at the Rectory this (Thursday) evening.

The United States District Court, Judge Miller, of Iowa, Presiding, commenced its fall term at Omaha last Monday.

To find the best bargains in Dry Goods, follow the crowd to Clark & Plummer's.

Several head of fat cattle have been stolen recently in the vicinity of Pacific City, Iowa.

The second term of the Western Iowa Collegiate Institute, at Glenwood, will open on the 18th inst.

The best article of seasoned oak wood is selling in this city at $0.50 per cord.

Gen. Livingston has purchased the house formerly owned by E. C. Lewis, and is having it enlarged.

If you want a suit of clothes of the latest style you will find it at Clark & Plummer's.

Farmers are busy gathering corn. The crop is generally light for this country, but would be a heavy crop in most States.

Col. Smith, the manager of the recent great editorial excursion over the Pacific Railroad, is writing a book giving a detailed account of the trip.

It is said that snow has fallen to the depth of eight inches at Julesburg.

The Parish Aid Society will meet at the Rectory this (Thursday) evening.

The United States District Court, Judge Miller, of Iowa, Presiding, commenced its fall term at Omaha last Monday.

To find the best bargains in Dry Goods, follow the crowd to Clark & Plummer's.

Several head of fat cattle have been stolen recently in the vicinity of Pacific City, Iowa.

The second term of the Western Iowa Collegiate Institute, at Glenwood, will open on the 18th inst.

The best article of seasoned oak wood is selling in this city at $0.50 per cord.

Gen. Livingston has purchased the house formerly owned by E. C. Lewis, and is having it enlarged.

If you want a suit of clothes of the latest style you will find it at Clark & Plummer's.

Farmers are busy gathering corn. The crop is generally light for this country, but would be a heavy crop in most States.

Col. Smith, the manager of the recent great editorial excursion over the Pacific Railroad, is writing a book giving a detailed account of the trip.

It is said that snow has fallen to the depth of eight inches at Julesburg.

The Parish Aid Society will meet at the Rectory this (Thursday) evening.

The United States District Court, Judge Miller, of Iowa, Presiding, commenced its fall term at Omaha last Monday.

To find the best bargains in Dry Goods, follow the crowd to Clark & Plummer's.

Several head of fat cattle have been stolen recently in the vicinity of Pacific City, Iowa.

The second term of the Western Iowa Collegiate Institute, at Glenwood, will open on the 18th inst.

The best article of seasoned oak wood is selling in this city at $0.50 per cord.

Gen. Livingston has purchased the house formerly owned by E. C. Lewis, and is having it enlarged.

If you want a suit of clothes of the latest style you will find it at Clark & Plummer's.

Farmers are busy gathering corn. The crop is generally light for this country, but would be a heavy crop in most States.

Col. Smith, the manager of the recent great editorial excursion over the Pacific Railroad, is writing a book giving a detailed account of the trip.

It is said that snow has fallen to the depth of eight inches at Julesburg.

The Parish Aid Society will meet at the Rectory this (Thursday) evening.

The United States District Court, Judge Miller, of Iowa, Presiding, commenced its