

PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA.

THURSDAY, NOV. 14, 1867

STATE OF NEBRASKA. BY D. BUTLER, GOVERNOR.

A PROCLAMATION. In accordance with a time honored custom the appropriateness of which has been long and profoundly impressed upon the hearts of our Christian people...

And I most earnestly recommend, that all persons suspend their usual labors and assemble in their accustomed places of public worship, and there engage earnestly in exercises suitable to the occasion.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the State to be affixed this thirty-first day of October, A. D. 1867.

By the Governor, DAVID BUTLER. THOMAS P. KENNARD, Sec of State.

NOTICE. Books of subscription of Stock to the Plate River Bridge Company are opened at the office of Maxwell & Chapman.

The friends of Garibaldi state that he had only 4,000 men in the recent battle. The sons of Garibaldi are still at large, but concealed.

LATEST NEWS. Rome is regarded as liable to a rupture at any moment.

Farmdale colliery near Glamorgan.—Three hundred miners were at work; and at last accounts two hundred lives were lost.

Lindsey, the colored agitator at Richmond, has been arrested and will be tried by the military.

There is talk of Davis' trial being again postponed.

"THE PEOPLE." Much is said by Democratic journals about the rights of "the people" of the States.

Who caused it? An argument against the Republican party, that we have an immense national debt; that the country has been deluged in blood; that heavy taxes are levied; that all kinds of goods are sold at double the prices that ruled before the war...

THE WAR OF RACES. Our northern secessionists who evince so much anxiety to write up a war of races in the Southern States.

Why did Adam bite the apple? asked a country school master of his pupils. "Cause he hadn't got no knife," said a youngster.

THE SCHOOL LANDS. Ed. Herald:—As the School Lands in our country are advertised to be sold next January, I desire to call attention to some features of the law authorizing the sale.

Sec. 16 of the act reads as follows: Payments for land sold under the provisions of this act shall be made as follows: for prairie lands one tenth of the price, cash in hand, and for other lands, one half cash in hand, with a promissory note for the remainder, to mature on the first day of January, 1880.

That, Mr. Editor, certainly seems strong enough to secure, at least the State of Nebraska, against any possible loss, but it is the interest of the State, also, to protect her citizens in the enjoyment of their rights, and thus add to the general prosperity. It might be well to enquire for what purpose these notes thus secured by endorsers are given? Is it for the payment of the land, or merely as collateral security for the payment, or as a sort of indemnity against possible loss.

Who caused it? An argument against the Republican party, that we have an immense national debt; that the country has been deluged in blood; that heavy taxes are levied; that all kinds of goods are sold at double the prices that ruled before the war...

THE SUFFRAGE QUESTION IN OHIO. While the mere partisan exults over the victories of the hour, heedless of the ultimate results which they portend, the thoughtful and patriotic lover of his country and of truth, ponders the lessons which they teach, and profits by their instructions.

The vote of the people of Ohio on the suffrage question in Ohio, viewed that is not so discouraging to the advocates of its partial suffrage as its enemies seem to imagine. The Democrat says: "The vote given for the enfranchisement of the negro in Ohio was 216,981, which, as the Commercial well remarks, is a larger vote than was ever given in any age or country, by one race, to make political equals of another."

NEGRO SUFFRAGE. How many, or what proportion of the Democratic voters of the United States do you suppose comprehends the real point at issue in what is called "negro suffrage?"

—Mr. Briggs has the frame of a dwelling up, near the Steam Sawmill. —Dr. D. M. Tingley is erecting a two story stone house on 10th street, to be occupied as a drug store.

—J. R. Dorn is just completing a stone building on 'O' St., opposite Sherman's hardware establishment.

—Messrs. Bebee & Abbott, are preparing to build on Q St., one block east of the Methodist church. Their material is nearly all on the ground.

—S. B. Galey, County Clerk, and S. B. Linderman, Deputy Clerk, have just completed a very neat stone structure on North side Market square.

—Srao's new business house on the corner of 'O' and 11th Streets, has been purchased by Mr. Sherwood, who is fitting it up for the hardware business. He will open very shortly.

—Judge Cadman having bought the walls of the Seminary building facing Market Square, is converting it into a hotel. He expects to move in in a few days.

—We notice a very neat little cottage house going up on 9th street, belonging to Mr. Cook lately from Massachusetts.

—Our Methodist Episcopal friends will soon have their church completed on the corner of 'Q' and 10th Street. Rev. Mr. Hawks, the preacher in charge is superintending the work.

—Langdon has secured the contract for building the school house, and is already at work. The structure will be of sandstone, 23 by 30 feet. It is being built on block No. 27 opposite and south of University Square, facing south. It is to be ready for occupation by the 25th of this month.

—Mr. Ward, a builder from Chicago, who proposes to compete for the contract for the erection of the Capitol has been here inspecting the quarries. He left for Omaha two weeks ago.

—Mr. W. seems well satisfied with the character of the Limestone and Sandstone of Lancaster county.

THE SUFFRAGE QUESTION IN OHIO. While the mere partisan exults over the victories of the hour, heedless of the ultimate results which they portend, the thoughtful and patriotic lover of his country and of truth, ponders the lessons which they teach, and profits by their instructions.

—The Council Bluffs and St. Joseph railroad has been definitely located through Atchison county; that company, says the Atchison county Journal, having adopted the old survey up the bottom between the two rivers. They are being contracted for, and a large force is already at work in the northern part of the county preparing the road bed for the ties. The cars will be running as far south as Hamburg Iowa, from the northern terminus, by the middle of November, and as far north of St. Joseph as Forest City, in Holt county, by the first of January next.

—A voting machine is one of the inventions of the nineteenth century, and a patent has been applied for at Washington. The machine invented is intended to facilitate the taking of the year and days in public bodies.

—By an arrangement of wires similar to that of the hotel annunciator, connecting the desks of the members of a deliberative body with the voting apparatus, members are enabled to vote all at once, and after a moment's time allowed for a change of vote by any member who may desire it, the result, that is, the individual vote of each member, together with the aggregates respectively of the yeas and nays, is plainly shown on the dial plates. Simultaneously with the summarized result, the name of each member voting is printed. This machine is soon to have a public trial in the chamber of the Washington Common Council. If it succeeds, it will be a death-knell to the legislative dodge of killing time by calling for the yeas and nays.

—When the intelligence of the result of the Pennsylvania and Ohio elections reached Montgomery, Alabama, the old Irish news agent there ran along the streets with the morning papers, crying out: "Good news for the rebels, good news for the rebels—the best I have had since the time they defeated the Yankees, during the war!"

—Jerome lost twenty thousand dollars on the race of Kentucky against time. John Hunter won five thousand dollars, and one hundred and fifty thousand changed hands on Wall street.

LINCOLN CITY ITEMS. We clip the following items from the Commonwealth:

—Elder Young is building a stone residence near his present place. —Mr. Briggs has the frame of a dwelling up, near the Steam Sawmill. —Dr. D. M. Tingley is erecting a two story stone house on 10th street, to be occupied as a drug store.

—J. R. Dorn is just completing a stone building on 'O' St., opposite Sherman's hardware establishment.

—Mr. W. seems well satisfied with the character of the Limestone and Sandstone of Lancaster county.

LANCASTER COUNTY ELECTION. The following are the official returns of the election in Lancaster County:

Table with columns for Probate Judge, County Commissioners, County Clerk, Sheriff, Treasurer, and Surveyor. Names include W. R. Field, John Cadman, John Helman, M. A. McPherson, J. H. Hawk, M. Langdon, C. Carter, E. Tullis, P. S. Schamp, E. Lange, and M. Larsh.

CORN RAISING. EDITOR PRESS:—I find in your issue of November 2d, that Messrs. J. F. President and J. W. Secretary of Camp Creek, Farmer's Club are very much exercised about my statement of having raised and cribbed corn to nine cents per bushel, and wish me to give them the figures at the various stages, and be it remembered that was in 1862, and that I have not farmed but a very little since until this year; having rented almost entirely, until I was hand again on a small scale with satisfactory results; I did all the labor myself, hired none, plowed and planted ten acres, cultivated and cribbed in the time herein given:

Table showing corn raising statistics: 4 days plowing (2 1/2-2 acres per day) at $2.50 per day, 1 day harrowing, 1 day working, 1 1/2 days planting with hand planter, 8 days cultivating with double shovel, 1 plowed it over four times, five acres per day, 10 days cribbing at $2 per day, Making in all, My corn yielded 65 bushels per acre, making 650 bushels, and at nine cents per bushel would be $58.50, leaving $4.50 for cost of seed, wear, tear and tax which in my estimation was sufficient. H. C. WOLPH. Nov 4, 1867.

—As an illustration of the way in which the Democrats of New York swelled their majorities, the following facts, editorially made public by the Tribune on the day before the recent election, are worthy of notice:

"We have just seen a lot of so-called naturalization papers, which are such a common sight in the land now, that almost almost detect them. There are three separate signatures purporting to be the name of James M. Sweeney, Clerk of the Superior Court, and the names are all written by different persons, probably members of the Sweeney family. In one instance the man naturalized confesses that he is only 19 years old; another paper was handed to a fellow in the street, and another was given out in a rum shop. One of the men says he has not been fifteen months in the country. The lower part of the city, especially the Fourth Ward, is flooded with runners, who have dozens of such papers, and who are on the lookout for anybody who will take the risk of trying to register and vote the Democratic ticket on the fraudulent documents."

—The Chicago Times thinks it 'impolitic' to elect Vallandigham, whom it calls a "martyr to violated law," to the Senate at present. It says: "Mr. Vallandigham should himself see the situation as it is. His time is not yet. It will probably come. Let him wait until he shall be called. The Democracy will let him know at the very first moment when it shall want him."

—The following is one of the school essays, written by one of the "youngsters" of Cairo, which was not published in the Tablet: "About dogs—dogs is usefulest as cats. Mice is affered of mad cats. They bite 'em. Dogs follow boys and catches a hog by the ear. Hogs rarely bite. People eats hogs and not the Jews as they and all other animals as doesn't chew the cud isn't clean ones. Dogs sum times gits hit with bootjacks for barkin of nites.—Sleepy people git mad and throw 'em. Dogs is the best animal for man. Tha do more for man than ground hogs or kooks or even goats. Goats smell. The end."

—Who hath gladness? Who hath success? Who hath a growing business? Who payeth his notes promptly? Who gaineth the confidence and patronage of men, and raiseeth to affluence? He that advertiseth liberally, that through the journals of the day maketh himself and his business known. He hath chosen the path of wisdom, and his honor increaseth like the light of the morning. His shadow groweth.—His complacency increaseth. His fame extendeth. His happiness endureth, and he is honored and blessed of all men.—Ex.
