The wife of Judge H. P. Bennett, of Colorado, died recently in Denver. They had extremely cold weather "down east" two weeks ago. A female suffrage organization has been effected in Omaha. It only takes five days now to go from Plattsmouth to Salt Lake City. The Republican says they want a glove and mitten manufactory at Omaha. We have one in Plattsmouth. Joe was formed on standing water, the thickness of one inch last Monday night. The lumber for the new capitol at Lincoln was shipped from Chicago last Monday. The Jacob Saw passed up Tuesday afternoon. She will probably be the last boat of the season. Express—a splendid new assortment of Dress Flannels at CLARK & PLUMMER'S. The boiler from Edgerton's Mill is undergoing repairs at the shop of Johnson & Price. The Press, at Nebraska City, is putting on city airs. They have in use a patent mailing apparatus. With Sprattin, formerly a well known and respected citizen of Rock Bluffs, in this county, died at Council Bluffs on the 25th inst. We were in Omaha a few days ago. They have built several new houses there this season. The Pacific Railroad starts from Omaha. They have been playing "Swinging around the circle" at the Council Bluffs Theatre. We thought Andy had the exclusive right to that play. Mr. Galey County Clerk of Lancaster county, was in the city last week. He is laboring hard for the best interests of his county and city. The new block on Farham street, Omaha, is a magnificent affair. It would do honor to any of the eastern cities. We advise dealers to have a good stock of fence wire on hand next spring. There is an immense amount of fresh turned prairie "cat doors." Mr. Stadelmann returned from Lincoln a few days since. He is very much pleased with the prospects of the city. Jackson Wagons at CLARK & PLUMMER'S. Page county, Iowa, has appropriated $1,000 towards defraying the expenses of a Railroad Survey to the Missouri river. Charles Dickens has arrived in the United States. We presume there will be a terrible strife between Omaha and Council Bluffs to determine which place shall have him first. Mr. Dunovan, of Lincoln, has sold his new hotel building, and is now preparing for the erection of another on a more extensive scale. He sold to Mr. Seroggin, of Wisconsin. Our friends in Lancaster and Saunders counties will please remember that we have the best assortment of legal blanks to be found in Nebraska. Orders filled on short notice. As this is Thanksgiving day, we are compelled to "cut short" on reading matter. Our types are fond of going to Church and eating turkey—especially the latter. Maj. Balcombe thinks that Omaha can go ahead without the capitol, especially as the old building has not been removed. We are glad the Maj has come to that sensible conclusion—the balance of the state thought so some time ago. We learn that Mr. Richard Claiborne, formerly a journeyman in the Democrat office of this city, is about to take hold of the Bellevue Times establishment. The small bridge just this side of Platte river is sadly in need of repairs. The covering is composed of loose sticks, and it will be a wonder if some of its team does not get crippled there unless it is fixed. A Lutheran Church edifice, says the Advertiser, is being built in Nebraska county. There are in that vicinity thirty five families, with a membership of one hundred and twenty persons. Mr. Keefe, late Steward of the Colorado, has received a silver pitcher, goblets and tray, worth $300 from the recent excursionists, as a testimonial of their appreciation of his services to them while on the steamer. Mr. Farmer, of the Bellevue Times, was in the city last Tuesday. He says Plattsmouth is a much larger city than he had supposed it to be. Most people are happily disappointed in the same way when they come and see us. A gentleman who resides in Lincoln, visited this city last week, and after staying here a day he said he was agreeably surprised to find that our people took so much interest in the success of Lincoln. Why, bless you, there is no place we think so much of, except our own city.

See card of H. S. Jennings, of Lincoln in to day's Herald. The Judge has invested in Lincoln and proposes making that his permanent home. Those of our citizens who may require the services of an attorney at the Capital, will find Mr. Jennings just the man they want. The people of Brownville are moving heavily in Railroad matters. They propose sending a delegation to Washington to lobby for a grant of land for a western road. The county commissioners will submit a proposition for the county to take $350,000 of stock in the road. Mrs. Simpson's music class gave a concert at her residence last Saturday evening. We learn from those present that the singing was excellent and done honor to Mrs. Simpson's abilities as a teacher as well as to the aptness of her pupils. A young man named Ferguson, who has relatives living in Glenwood, Iowa, was arrested in Nebraska City last week on the charge of attempting to pass counterfeit money. Upon examination, however, it was ascertained that he was innocent of the crime, and did not know the money he was offering was counterfeit. Messrs. Vollentine & Hain have opened a large stock of general merchandise at Ashland. They are energetic men, and are bound to make themselves heard and felt in a business capacity. They have procured the printing of a large lot of posters at the Herald office. They are well known to most of the old settlers having been in business on the plains for some time. We never passed a more pleasant evening than in listening to Bro. Rob. Morris, last Monday evening, at Omaha. His mind is already richly stored with Masonic knowledge, yet he is on his way to the Holy Land—the birth place and cradle of Masonry—there to seek out all the veritable things that may be found pertaining to the Order. He will leave America sometime during the winter. At the meeting of the Mercantile Library Association last Friday evening, donations of nearly fifty volumes were promised. This is the right spirit, and if kept alive will soon give us one of the best libraries in the west. Remember that there will be another meeting tomorrow evening, at the office of D. H. Wheeler. We expect arrangement will then be made for the commencement of a regular course of lectures. Smiling faces are the household lights. Can a wife expect her husband to smile when she sets before him poor bread? Can a husband look for smiles from his wife if he offers her inferior material for making bread? If you, sir, will please your wife, get D. B. De Land & Co.'s Best Chemical Saleratus, and she will produce bread and biscuits that will please you—that will please her, and there will be light in the household—smiles all around. Use it instead of Soda. Marshall Murphy brought one Wm. Chandler in his senses rather suddenly last Friday evening. Said Chandler was rather noisy on the street, and the marshal remonstrated with him. Chandler feeling somewhat "elevated," pulled off his coat to fight the marshal; but before he fairly comprehended the "situation," he was on the way to the "lock-up," where he passed the night. He was brought before Recorder Dorrington Saturday morning and induced to pay a small sum into the city Treasury. "Those who dance must pay the fiddler." We acknowledge the receipt, from J. W. Barnes, at Murphy's Book Store, of one of those excellent pocket Diaries for 1868, containing a counting house calendar, a complete almanac, a table of postage rates and the time occupied in the transmission of mails between principal points, money order regulations, an abstract of stamp duties, a complete miniature day-book, ledger, cash book and memoranda—in fact everything required in the transaction of business. They have a few more of the same sort and a complete stock of everything in the stationery line. Go and enquire for anything you want in their line, and Barnes will take pleasure in showing it. A serious runaway occurred last Friday. The large bay team belonging to the Messrs. Lazenby, got frightened at the rattling of a chain attached to a small dog, ran over another team belonging to Mr. Jacob Valery, severely bruised Mr. Valery's little boy who was riding in the wagon, and dashed things up generally. One of the runaway horses broke his leg and the owners had to shoot him, and the other drove a large sized hole in his chest by coming in contact with Valery's wagon box. Moral—small "dodge" with chain attachments should not be allowed to run at large. As there appears to be some little misunderstanding among the people about who is County Superintendent, we would say that B. Spurlock, county Clerk is the acting Superintendent. At the time of the election some doubt existed as to whether there was authority for electing a Superintendent, and it was thought best to place a candidate in nomination. Since that time it has been ascertained that there was no authority for such election, hence the election of Mr. Kirkpatrick is of no effect, and the county Clerk is acting Superintendent until such time as legal provisions are made for the election of some person to fill the office.

In going to Lincoln recently we were agreeably surprised to find such excellent roads. In the vicinity of Weep Water Falls the people have repaired every foot of road that needed it—grading hills, bridging gutters, filling up grades, and placing it in the best possible condition. The people generally of that locality are working to their interests, and no man among them does more for the general good than E. L. Reed, Esq. There are many natural advantages about the Falls, and we expect yet to see not only a densely populated country thereabouts, but to see a thriving town at the Falls. The natural advantages of the place, and the perseverance of the leading men will bring things out all right in time. We have received and partially perused, a copy of "Letters from Europe," by John W. Forney," published by T. B. Peterson & Bros., of Philadelphia. These letters are very instructive to American readers, being upon subjects which cannot fail to interest them. The well known ability of the writer is a sufficient guarantee of the character and truthfulness of what he says. So far as we have read them, these letters give a more vivid description of European manners, customs, progression, governments and noted historical points than anything we ever seen in the same space. The price of the book, in good substantial binding is $2 00. Any one forwarding that amount to T. B. Peterson & Bros., Philadelphia, will receive a copy post paid, by return mail. VESTRY ROOM, ST. LUKE'S CHURCH (PLATTSMOUTH, NEB., Nov. 26, 1867.) D. H. WHEELER, Esq., Agent Hartford Fire Insurance Co., Plattsmouth. Stone, D. D. Shows what the Bible is, who it is, and how to use it; tracing the history of each book up to its origin with the inspired authors, and completely showing all its hidden truths and its application to the scriptures. It is an ordinary library of Bible lore in a simple volume, brief, clear, accurate, concise and highly interesting. A master piece of common sense. It is needed in every family where the Bible is read, as well as by every Sabbath school teacher, student and class member; and being the only book on the subject ever published or sold in this country, agents can easily see the advantage of canvassing for it.
