THE Chicago Republican

Daily, Tri-Weekly and Weekly Editions.

PROSPECTUS FOR 1868.

The "Republican" after a period of unexampled prosperity, has entered the year 1868 with a vigor and energy worthy of its name and history. This name given to this paper, was chosen in good faith, and with the full appreciation of a meaning to which its policy will ever remain true.

The "Republican," as the Western exponent of the American system, recognizes the commercial and financial center-stone of our property in the doctrine of Protection to Home Industry.

Embodied in that Republican platform, whose value to the country, in all times, was sealed by the life, services and noble death of Lincoln. It opposes the pernicious policy of the British free-traders, who desire to make the United States dependent upon England as India or Ireland.

ITS COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT
is under the superintendence of one of the best commercial reporters in the northwest, and the name already gained for it as one of the best commercial papers will be maintained, making it an invaluable daily visitor to every business man.

THE DAILY EDITION
Of the Republican contains the latest news by telegraph, express and mail, up to an early hour in the morning, submitted carefully and ably written on the different topics of the day, and reports of the Chicago and Eastern markets, full and complete.

THE TRI-WEEKLY EDITION.
Issued each Monday, Wednesday, and Friday morning, contains the news of two days, carefully reviewed and arranged.

THE WEEKLY REPUBLICAN.
A carefully compiled edition, laden with news—Religious, political, agricultural, and general—and in short, anything and everything that tends to make a lively, interesting paper.

EVERY MAN OUGHT TO SUBSCRIBE FOR A NEWSPAPER.
In this enlightened age of the world's history we need but a glance to see the necessity for every man to subscribe for a newspaper. The results of the coming year will be decided largely by the opinions we are approaching a political campaign of great importance. Every man should be well informed respecting the current topics of the time, and in a way can this information be obtained save by buying a constant reader of a first-class metropolitan newspaper?

Such a paper is the Republican. It will be found to be complete in its department, and of a character that will commend it to the general public alike interested and support. As its name indicates, it is Radical in its course. It is the friend of the Poor, the laborer, and will continue to advocate its welfare and advancement.

Persons interested in the formation of clubs will do well to bestow attention to the following rates:

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION TO THE RE-PUBLICAN.

Unquestionably the best Sustained Work of the kind in the World.

HARPER'S NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE.
Critical Notices of the Press.

The most popular monthly in the world.—[New York Observer.]
We must refer in terms of eulogy to the high tone and varied excellence of Harper's Magazine—a journal with a monthly circulation of about 100,000 copies—in whose pages we find the most interesting, the most instructive, and the most readable material of the day. We speak of this work as an evidence of the culture of the American people, and the journal, as we have called it in our notice, is the best of its kind. It has a great power in the dissemination of a love of pure literature.—[The Liberator's Guide to American Literature, London.]

We can account for its success only by the simple fact that it meets precisely the popular taste, furnishing a variety of pleasing and instructive reading for all.—[The Herald, Boston.]

HARPER'S BAZAR.
The publishers will commence on November 1st, the issue of "Harper's Bazar," a Weekly Illustrated Paper, devoted to the interests of the Home Literature. Their aim is twofold: to supply the existing need of a Weekly Fashion Newspaper, and to combine the best features of the first-class illustrated journal, which will be indispensable to every household.

Arrangements have been made, at an immense cost, with the most celebrated Fashion Papers of Europe, especially with the famous "Bazar" of Paris, which supplies the fashion to the leading journals of Paris, to furnish the same to them in advance, so that hereafter the fashions will appear in Harper's Bazar simultaneously with their publication in Paris and London—an advantage enjoyed by no other journal in the country.

The patrons of Harper's Bazar will receive every fortnight large attractive cards, containing from thirty to fifty full sized patterns, of ladies' dresses, and children's dresses, coats, dresses, and other articles, accompanied with the necessary descriptions and directions, and occasionally an elegant colored fashion-plate of the size of Harper's Weekly.

Harper's Bazar will contain 16 folio pages of the size of Harper's Weekly, printed on superior colored paper, and will be published weekly.
