PLASTIC SLATE,

FOR

ROOFING

AND OTHER PURPOSES.

The process of reconstructing Slate Stone from a disintegrated state was

PATENTED FEB. 21st, 1865.

It is a combination of

Pulverized Slate and Viscous Matter,

(the latter possessing qualities of geological and chemical affinity for the former,) and is a development of one of the simple but unalterable tendencies of nature.

AS A ROOFING MATERIAL

IT STANDS UNRIVALLED.

A mastic—it adapts itself to every shape and slope. Non-combustible, impervious, non-expansive and undecaying.

Frost does not Crack nor Heat Dissolve it.

The only Roofing Material ever discovered that will resist the action of the elements as long as the structure it protects. Being susceptible of little if any wear from exposure and

PERFECTLY FIRE-PROOF.

It is unequalled as a coating for railroad and farm buildings, bridges, bottoms of vessels, vaults, etc.

Energetic Men and Ladies wanted to canvass for the

ORIGIN AND HISTORY OF THE

BOOKS of the BIBLE,

By Prof. Calvin E. Stowe, D. D.

Showing what the Bible is not; what it is, and how to use it; tracing the history of each book up to its origin with the inspired authors, and completely answering all Infidel cavils and objections to the Scriptures. It is an ordinary library of Biblical History in a single volume, brief, clear, accurate, conclusive and highly interesting. A master piece of common sense. It is needed in every family where the Bible is read, as well as by every Sabbath School teacher, student and clergyman, and being the only book on the subject ever published or sold in this country, agents can easily see the advantage of canvassing for this work. Scenes and Incidents in the Great Rebellion.

Compriising Narratives of Personal Adventure, Thrilling Incidents, Daring Exploits, Heroic Deed, Wonderful Escapes, Life in the Camp, Field and Hospital; Adventures of Spies and Scouts, Together with the Songs, Ballads, Anecdotes, and Humorous Incidents of the War.

SPLENDIDLY ILLUSTRATED, With over 100 Fine Portraits and Beautiful Engravings.

There is a certain portion of the war that will never go into the regular histories, nor be embodied in romance or poetry, which is a very real part of it, and will, if preserved, convey to succeeding generations a better idea of the spirit of the conflict than many dry reports or careful narratives of events, and this part may be called the gossip, the fun, and the pathos of the war. This illustrates the character of the leaders, the humor of the soldiers, the devotion of women, the bravery of men, the pluck of our heroes, the romance and hardships of the service.

The Valiant and Brave Hearted, the Picturesque and Dramatic, the witty and Marvelous, the Tender and Pathetic, and the whole Panorama of the War are here thrillingly portrayed in a masterly manner, at once historical and romantic, rendering it the most ample, unique, brilliant and readable book that the war has called forth.

Amusement as well as instruction may be found in every page, as graphic detail, brilliant wit, and authentic history, are skillfully interwoven in this work of literary art.

Send for Circulars and see our terms, and a full description of the work. Address,

Ladies Repository,

For 1868.

A General Literary and Religious Magazine for the Family.

Published by

POE & HITCHCOCK, Cincinnati and Chicago.
CARLTON & PORTER, N. York, 200 Mulberry St.

It is the purpose of the publisher of this Magazine to retain the present price, and to give its readers the full benefit of any decline they may find in the cost of publication, by enlarging and improving on the Magazine itself. They have determined to add sixteen pages to each number, making each number contain eighty pages. This enlargement will be equal to four volumes of reading matter, in the modern style of book making, worth one dollar and a quarter each; or, in other words, will furnish the family with as much reading as five dollars invested in books, while the whole volume will furnish as much reading for the family for 3,50, as twenty dollars invested in books containing similar reading matter. We now offer to the public the largest and best executed Magazine in the United States for the same money.

The Repository is a Christian family Magazine, and it will be our constant aim to maintain its high character for pure and elegant literature. It will be printed on the finest calendered paper, on beautiful Antique type. Each number will contain

TWO ORIGINAL STEEL ENGRAVINGS,

Executed in the highest style of the art.

We propose the widest range and the greatest variety possible in the literary matter of our pages: Essays, Disquisitions, Tales, Adventures from real life, Biographical and Literary Sketches, Critiques, Poems, and papers on Practical Utility.

Terms.—$3 60 per year or, $1,75 per volume—invariably in advance.

The Repository for 1868 will be issued in two volumes, commencing the first of January and the first of July. jan 28

Unquestionably the best Sustained Work of the kind in the World.

HARPER'S NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE.

Critical Notices of the Press,

The most popular monthly in the world.—[New York Observer.

We must refer, in terms of enlogy to the high tone and varied excellence of Harper's Magazine—a journal with a monthly circulation of about 170,000 copies—in whose pages are to be found some of the choicest light and general reading of the day. We speak of this work as an evidence of the culture of the American People; and the popularity it has acquitted is merited. Each number contains fully 144 pages of reading matter, appropriately illustrated with wood-cuts; and it combines in itself the racy monthly and the more philosophical quarterly, blended with the best features of the daily journal. It has great power in the dissemination of a love of pure literature.—[Trübner's Guide to American Literature, London.

We can account for its success only by the simple fact that it meets precisely the popular taste, furnishing a variety of pleasing and instructive reading for all.—[Zion's Herald, Boston.

HARPER'S BAZAR.

The publishers will commence on November 1st, the issue of "Harper's Bazar," a Weekly illustrated Family Journal, devoted to Fashion and Home Literature. Their aim is twofold: to supply the existing need of a Weekly Fashion Newspaper, and to combine therewith a first-class literary journal, which will be indispensable to every household.

Arrangements have been made, at an immense cost, with the most celebrated Fashion Papers of Europe, especially with the famous "Bazar" of Berlin, which supplies the fashions to the leading journals of Paris, to furnish the same to them in advance, so that henceforth the fastions will appear in Harper's Bazar simultaneously with their publication in Paris and Berlin—an advantage enjoyed by no other journal in the country.

The patrons of Harper's Bazar will receive every fortnight large pattern-plates, containing from forty to fifty full-sized patterns, of ladies', misses', and children's bonnets, cloaks, dresses, underclothing, and other articles, accompanied with the necessary descriptions and directions, and occasionally an elegant colored fashion-plate of the size of Harper's Weekly.

Harper's Bazar will contain 16 folio pages of the size of Harper's Weekly, printed on superfine calendered paper, and will be published weekly.
