Child's Mills ergo and Northwestern roads I would be comparatively a matter of indifference to the Union Pacific road ing of a bridge at Child's Mills were in the Union. The yield per acre it not that the latter company, in the given in bushels and tenths: event of the refusal of the other roads to unite with them on a bridge at Bellevue or some point in that vicinity, propose the extension of the B & M. road some two hundred miles west of the Missouri, and there tap the Union Pacific road. This would effectually cut off a large amount of business that otherwise would go to Omaha and thence be divided with the C. R I. & P and the C. & N. W. roads. It is to be hoped not only for the fut ire inand more especially the undeveloped resources of Nebraska, that the latter course will succeed While at Omaha dred miles fariher west-would throw the great bulk of trade and travel via west line .- Burlington Hawk-Eye.

This will give the B. & M. the right of Senator Wade to sit as one Road the entire Chicago trade of all this great scope of country, which would otherwise fird its way to St. Louis, and would effectually do away with any objections the Pacific Co. would have to a connection two Eundred miles west of their eastern terminus. It seems to us that this connec tion with Denver is one of the greates importance to the commercial interests of Chicago, as well as all other towns along the line, and one which they cannot afford to do without.

ANOTHER "REACTION"

Council Bluffs "reacted" last Monday, and elected the entire Republican tick et except one alderman. Everywhere the people are sataining, by their votes, the action of Congress in impeaching Andrew Johnson, and ar denouncing the men who favor a violation of the National faut by repudiating the War debt. In Council Bluffs the Democracy came out boldly in favor of repudiation, and the people have repudiated them. So will it ever be where the real principles of the Democratic party are known. For the last two years the Democratic press has presistently made light of the assertion that the Republican party was found ed upon a great moral principle-the right of man-but we think the recent elections in various parts of the country must be convincing them that the people see some good in the principles of the Republican party. They have in an attempt at sarcasm, heralded to the world that we were a "God and Humanity party" "founded upon a great moral idea," in the hope that their sar-2; Salt erick, 2 that the Republicans of the various castic application of these terms would draw from our ranks. PRECINCT MEETINGS. As will be seen from the official call in this issue of the HERALD, the Republican voters of the different precincis are invited to assemble on the 11th of April to choose delegates to represent them in the County Convenion on the 18th. It is important that every Republican voter attend these primary meetings, as upon their action depends in a great measure, the State icket to be selected rt the State Con vention. Remember that the campaign before us is one of no ordinary importance, and success or failure may depend upon the manner in which it is started. The precinct meetings reflect he direct will of the people where they are properly attended, and hence the great importunce of every voter attend ing them. It is as necessary that a good ticket-one giving general satisfaction to the people and representing their will-be selected, as it is that it should come out victorious. Your precinct meetings are a foundation for the campaign. See to them.

FRIDAY, THE 13TH,

Is the day upon which Andrew John son is sum roned to appear at the bar of the Senate to answer to the charge of committing .. high crimes and misdemeanors." This is the first instance in the history of our government where the Pre-ident has been tried on impeachment articles, as it it the first time in the history of our government where the President has so willfully and flagrantly violated so plain a law. That Andrew Johnson will be found guilty, and removed from office, we have not the least doubt; in fact, we cannot see how the result can be other wise. That the Democracy will set up a very large howl, and afterwards "come down" and declare that they never did support Johnson in this matter, we are thoroughly convinced. And there is no sensible man who does | Morgan N Y Yates not believe that, with a man in the of the country at heart, the entire re. number: construction question will be settled in Bayard a very short time, and then our country will again have quiet and peace, and all parties will see that the present action of Congress was just what it

Some of those men was fought so erribly behind sutlers' counters during the recent war, are getting brave just now-about as brave as the old fellow who staid up stairs while his wife killed the bear. The Omaha Herald says Congress ' did not dare to suspend the President during the impeachment tri al," and that "they knew that any step looking to the viscement of the President from his office pending his trial before the Senate would produce instant war." This is said from a Democratic stand point, where it is taken for granted that everything is to be done in furtherance of their purposes that they dare to do. Congress dares to do what is right and necessary. It is right enough that Andrew Johnson should be suspended but the only question is, "is it neessacry for the good of the country?"-Should Congress conclude that it is Andrew Jhonson will yet be suspended A loyal Congress dared to fight a dis union Democracy in all its strength because it was necessary; and they dare to do it now if Andrew Johnson at tempts to impede the impeachment trial by the exercise of his functions a President.
