in the most flattering terms; never having seen so fine a prospect; especially in the vicinity of Elmwood, a few miles west of town.

This country has the soil, the men (the women not excepted) and the means to develop some portion of the resources of this fine country...

CHASE AND HIS ASPIRATIONS.

As soon as it became evident that Grant was going to be the nominee of the Republican party, Chase climbed the fence on neutral ground...

He may be made the standard bearer of the Democratic party, but his disappointed ambition will find no fruition in that position...

ABOUT NEBRASKA.

The following is a portion of a letter written by a resident of this State to friends in the east who ask information relative to Nebraska:

Timber is far from being plenty; but after getting twenty miles from the river, timber is found on nearly all the streams in the State...

GRANT'S PERSONAL CHARACTER.

I first met Gen. Grant on his way to Donelson, before the world had heard of him. His unassuming frankness, and a certain quiet earnestness, which seemed to "mean business"...
