

POLITICAL.
The New York Union wants Sanford E. Church for Vice President.
Vallandigham alleges that Senator Doolittle has no brains.
The Lowell Courier says Chase is "dead in love" with the Presidency.
George Alfred Townsend denies that he will edit a Chase organ, and says he is for Grant & Gofax.
The Republican Congressional Convention for the Third District of Iowa, will meet at Union City, Sept. 2.
The Union League Club of New York has struck the name of Andrew Johnson from its roll of honorary members.
The Toledo Blade learns that Gen. Buckland will not be a candidate for Congress in the Ninth Ohio District, he having served two terms. D. W. Swigart of Crawford county, is mentioned by the Blade to succeed him.
The Utica Herald rather pungently says that Chase's letter declaring him self not a candidate for office, but averring that it will gratify him if the Democrats would go for universal suffrage, reads much like the old gentleman's advice to his sons: "Boys it is very wrong to go fishing on Sunday, and is contrary to my orders; but you know your father likes fish!"
An ex-Representative in Congress from Alabama writes to the editor of the Mobile Advertiser, from Washington, to the following effect: "The man who stands strongest with the people, is true to the Constitution, and advocates the principles of Justice, should be our choice, though he may have led the forces of the Union in the late war, and devastated the fairest portions of our country."
In his Washington letter, last Saturday, to the Philadelphia Press, Col. Forney makes this pointed remark: "Until Ulysses S. Grant took command of our armies, rebellion was confident of success. Until Ulysses S. Grant took command of the R-republican party the Democratic party was equally confident of success. And as he finished the first, so will he finish the second."
The Democratic Ohio Legislature has disfranchised the poor crippled and disabled inmates of the Soldiers' Homes throughout that State. Here is an evidence of the friendliness of the Democracy to the men who sacrificed their lives and limbs for the perpetuation of the Union! A more slimy and black-hearted and scoundrelly deed than that of depriving these poor battle-scarred sufferers of the right to vote for their beloved leader Gen. Grant, has never been perpetrated in the annals of partisan warfare.—Troy Herald
MISCELLANEOUS.
The refurbishing of the Astor House cost $280,000.
It costs New Yorkers $30,000 every Sunday to take their "exercise" in Hoboken.
Greely says the name of our new territory is Alaska. Sumner says it is Alaska. The difference seems to be all in your eye.—New York Mail.
The hole number of immigrants arriving at Castle Garden, New York, from Europe, during the two months ending on the 11th inst., is officially stated at 81,781.
Twenty-five hundred dollars has been refused for a tapestry picture now on exhibition at Hartford. Easy, steady and skilful work was used in making it.
On election day in Washington, some of the saloon keepers administered grog to the negroes who partook of lemonade at their counters. While the darkeys were on the rampage the next night, they remembered these things, and cleaned out the restaurants.
The young lady boarders at a convent in Bordeaux got hold of some of the naughty songs of the famous Therese, and when the Mother Superior confiscated them, raised a mutiny and tried to suffocate one of the teachers between two mattresses.
An investigating committee of the Boston City reports that during the past five years the city has disbursed $14,368 to policemen for services not rendering, paying them humanely, but illegally, while disabled by sickness or accident.
An extensive bed of fossil oysters, more than two feet in thickness, has been discovered at a depth of nearly four hundred feet, in sinking a coal shaft in West Lancashire, England. The oysters are small, and are petrified into a solid mass, as hard as flint.
The Topeka Record of the 11th says the last of the ten sections of land given by the United States Government to the State of Kansas toward building a State Capitol have been disposed of, and the money is in the treasury to be used on the new Capitol. They brought a little over $8,000.
Silas and Charles T. James, who have been on trial at Worcester, Mass., for the murder of Joseph G. Clark, have been found guilty of murder in the first degree, and sentenced to be hanged. Clark was a gambler and was murdered in his private room at night. His mistress was the principal witness in the case.
At a collection lately made at a charity fair, a young lady offered the plate to a rich man who was noted for his stinginess. "I have nothing," was his curt answer. "Then take something, sir," she replied; "you know I am begging for the poor."
"What is the most beautiful attitude for defense?" said a pupil to a well known pugilist. "Keep a civil tongue in your head," was the significant reply.
A Richmond editor says that Mr. Colfax is not in the true acceptance of the term "a gentleman," because he began life as a printer.
