

LOCAL NEWS

Despain & Kennedy have just received a new stock of fall goods. Now is the time for ladies to make selections.

A new frame dwelling, of good proportions, has recently been erected immediately west of the Presbyterian Church.

Parnele has put on a daily line of Coaches to Lincoln via Ashland, Hurrah for the Plattsmouth and Lincoln Stage Company.

Maj. D. H. Wheeler arrived at home last Tuesday from a trip to St. Louis to attend a session of the Grand Commandery.

Where did Porter get the $15,000 which he proposes to spend in the Campaign? Did he sell his 2 cows, 1 calf, 1 horse, and 1 sleigh for that amount?

Remember the dances to-morrow (Friday) evening at City Hall, under the auspices of the Johnson Bros. It is a first rate place to be—have tried it.

A portion of the Lindsay II use, in Nebraska City tumbled down last week, in consequence of the softening of the ground by heavy rains. Loss about $3,000.

The ticket at the head of the editorial columns of the news should read "J. C. Campbell, vice J. Stelling Morton kicked out by the Democratic Central Committee."

A few more "Tanagers" uniforms can be had by applying to Sheriff J. W. Johnson. Apply soon if you want them, for they go off like "hot cakes" on a cold morning.

The communication signed "South Bend" will appear next week. We have to much County Convention and Republican Rally to find room for it in this issue.

Look here, travelers! There are now two daily lines of coaches running between this city and Lincoln, and the fare is only $2.00—cheaper than Weston could walk it.

Where were all the Democrats last Saturday? There was an audience of about 3,000 Republicans, but not a democratic head was visible after the first gun was fired by Gen. Thayer.

Several parties have been in the city during the past week who look very much like they intended to invest heavily. Wait and see. The contract for grading the B. & M. R. R. has been let.

Mr. Jeff. Smith has procured the agency for A. D. Richardson's famous book entitled "Beyond the Mississippi," and will call on the citizens of this place for subscriptions. We have a copy of the work, and pronounce it an excellent thing.

Lot—A fair leather Pocket Book containing between $75 and $90 in money. The property of Thomas Mitchell. Any one finding the same and returning it to Mr. Mitchell will be liberally rewarded.

Doom Bro. & Co., of this place, have the agency of the celebrated Van Brunt Broad Cast Seed Sower and Cultivator Combined, and we would advise all our farmers wanting a Seed Sower and Cultivator combined to call and look at their sample before ordering any other kind. Go and see for yourself.

One of the Saloon keepers in this city says he will more whiskey before 10 o'clock a. m. on the day of the democratic meeting in this city, than he sold all day last Saturday, at the time of the Republican rally, notwithstanding there were four times as many people in the city last Saturday as at the democratic meeting.

Mr. Porter says he is aware of the fact that the Governors salary is small, and insufficient to support that office respectably. After the salary has been expended, how long would 2 cows, 1 calf, 1 horse, 1 sleigh, and $100 worth of household furniture "maintain the dignity of the office, and after the 2 cows, 1 calf, the horse and sleigh were gone, where is the balance to come from? The people are interested in a knowing.

Republicans! Read over the list of registered voters in this issue, and if you know of a Republican voter whose name does not appear, see to it that he goes before the Registrar prior to the final closing of the books, and if you know of any lawful reason why any person whose name does appear on the list should not be entitled to vote, report it to the Registrar, at once. With a complete registry of the legal voters, and the proper effort to get the vote out on election day, Cass is sure for 300 Republican majority in October, and the State for 2,000.

Our advice from Richardson county indicate great dissatisfaction among the democracy. They say their candidate for Governor promised to spend $15,000, and more if necessary to carry the election, and that he isn't doing it. What inconsistency! How do they expect a man to spend $15,000, when all the "monies, credits, and personal property" he has consists of 2 cows, 1 calf, 1 horse, 1 sleigh, and $100 worth of taxable household furniture, all valued at $300? If any person foolish enough to suppose the democratic candidate for Governor has more than this, we refer them to the assessors books, filed with the Clerk of Cass county where they can find the affidavits under the signature of J. R. Porter.

J. A. Hellman, Democratic Candidate for Presidential Elector, recently advised that one of his party friends named Adkinson who resides at Lincoln, "was a d—d fool and had no brains." Adkinson came into the Grant and Colfax Club at Lincoln last week and denied the charge; whereupon a committee of three was appointed by the Club to ascertain whether or not Hellmans statement was correct. The committee was authorized to examine Mr. Adkinson and report whether or not he was "a d—d fool and had no brains."

Messrs. J. B. Burr & Co. of Hartford Conn., have in press a new book entitled "Sunshine and Shadow in New York," by Mathew Hale Smith. As Metropolitan Centre of the United States, New York City reflects all the good and evil of the world its most intense forms. To know New York well is in a sense to know the whole country; and there is no man, however often he visits New York, or indeed no matter how long he may have resided there, who cannot learn from others something valuable to know regarding the city and its mighty interest. The work is sold by subscription only, and agents are wanted in every county and town to canvass for it. For full particulars address the publishers.

Hellman's performance at Lincoln last week reminds us of the fellow on the steamboat who invited all the lady passengers out on the deck to witness how he would frighten one of the natives at a wood yard. He rushed up to the fellow in home "spun-furnished a large 'Bowie,'" and told him he had been looking for him for three weeks past. The man in home spun deliberately drew one hand out of the pocket where it had been concealed, knotted the fellow over the bank of the river into the current and turning around asked if "anybody else on that boat was looking for him." Hellman invited his friends in at Lincoln to witness how he would "skin" Mr. Marquett. Has any one else been looking for Marquett?

We understand Hellman ran all around Lincoln last week inviting his friends to come in to the joint debate between himself and Hon. T. M. Marquett, and bear him "skin" Mr. Marquett. Well, they come in, and he "skinned" Mr. Marquett just like the fellow held the man on the ground—with his nose between the fellows teeth. Parties who were present inform us that Hellman was the worst used up man that ever climbed a stump in Nebraska. An arrangement has been effected whereby they will hold joint discussions at Brownville on the 24th, Rulo on the 25th, Falls City on the 26th, Tecumseh on the 28th, Peru on the 29th, and Nebraska City on the 30th. Look out for fun! "Ingins around!" We hope Hellman won't "cease" before they reach this city.

MARQUETT VS HELLMAN
After Mr. Hellman's time was up, Mr. Marquett arose amid a storm of applause, and made one of the most brilliant and effective arguments we ever heard. The skinning that poor Hellman received, entitles him to the sympathy of every charitable breast. It was terrific and reminded one of the campaign of '66, when Marquett performed the same flaying process upon the body of the late Mr. Morton, who at that time was not too disreputable to run on the Democratic ticket for Congress.—Commonwealth.
