While we were yet watching with eager eyes the count of our own vote in Nebraska, the electricity flashed us the news that Ohio, Pennsylvania and Indiana have all gone Republican, thus teaching Frank Blair and his co-workers in the endeavor to overthrow our free institutions that we are yet to have the midst of this throng of beauty and Mile Grove Martial Band at their head a country. Ohio gives 25,000, Pennsylvania 12,000, and Indiana 7,000.

ROCK BLUFFS.

Friday morning broke clear but windy, and fears were entertained that he very disagreeable stage of the weather would prevent many persons from turning out, especially those from distance, and that the occasion would fail to be as good as was anticipated. But as the hours rolled by the wind THE LAST HOPE OF REBEL seemed to abate, and all loyal hearts beat to hope we would have a good day of it after all. Knowing that our great standard bearer never once faltered amidst storm or rain, shot or shell, we felt it no more than a duty, in credit to his untarnished example, to "rally round the flag," despite the unfavorable greetings of old Boreas.

> At about 9 a. m. the Plattsmouth del egation formed in informal procession at the Court House, and after the sig nal "forward" was given moved onward to the seat of the occasion. Af ter wending cheerily along thro' the valleys and over the hills for a few hours we reached a point a little west of town, came to a halt and joined the Rock Bluffs and other delegations, who were waiting impatiently for the Plattsmouth delegation to come up and joined in one grand procession. At about 12 m. all was in readiness. and the procession began to stretch out DEMOCRATIC BIRD SINCE THE Chief Marshal, accompanied by his assistants. Next came the Johnson Bro.'s Cornet Band filling the air and the hearts of the loyal masses with their soul stirring music, while the Democratic hearts were not quite so exultant at the patriotic strains of some of those good old war songs, such as "Rally Round the Flag, Poys," and an either side of the road, loaded with 37 mained to make a full house. beautiful young ladies dressed in white. with beautiful wreaths entwined about gan to assemble in the lower room of their heads, and each bearing in hand the Odd Fellow's building. loyalty stood Miss Julia Lemon, repre. marched through town.
