

VALENTINES

O. F. JOHNSON & CO.

Read the Legislative Proceedings.

We have plenty of mud and slush on our streets.

A temperance political party has been started in Michigan. Success to it.

The bridge across the Missouri river at this point is getting rather frail.

Remember that O. F. Johnson & Co. have all styles of Valentines.

Mr. Hesser has something new. For description and full particulars enquire of Mr. H.

Presbyterian Sociable at C. H. Parmele's next Tuesday evening. All are invited to attend.

A horseman says he has cured the worst case of scratches he ever saw with two applications of white pine turpentine thoroughly rubbed on.

If you want to get a pretty Valentine, go to O. F. Johnson & Co's.

The legislature closes on next Tuesday. There is some talk of an extra session, but it is very unpopular with the members.

Several of the "Lo" family were perambulating our streets on last Saturday. From what we understand they do not admire the sport of "snow-balling."

The revival which has been going on at the M. E. Church, in this city under the auspices of Rev. J. J. Roberts has just closed with an accession of about twenty.

The Legislature of Georgia a few days ago refused, by a vote of 76 to 56, to reconsider their resolution debaring the colored members their seats, and informing said members that, that decision must stand.

If you want to perpetrate a "goak," go to O. F. Johnson & Co., and get a sweet-Valentine.

In addition to the requirement of the annual report, 30,000 acres of public land will be disposed of to actual settlers during January, in Nebraska, Minnesota, Iowa and Wisconsin, according to the returns at the General Land Office.

The Central Pacific R. R. is completed 510 miles east of Sacramento, leaving 240 miles of transcontinental road to be built. The track on this road is being laid at the rate of from three to four miles per day.

If you want to get a good Cigar, or "A No. 1" Fine Cat and Plug Tobacco, go to L. Brom & Co., on Main Street, opposite the Court House. They have as fine a lot of Tobacco as can be found in the city.

O. F. Johnson & Co. have a large stock of Valentines.

When a cow or ox gets choked, it is said that immediate relief may be obtained by strapping the fore leg, and compelling the animal to jump. This will cause the obstruction to fly out.

We call attention to the advertisement of Horton & Jenks, to be found in another column. They have on hand a large stock of goods which they are selling very cheap. The farmers in that vicinity will do well to give them a call before going elsewhere.

Singing School.—On account of the inclemency of the weather last Monday evening, L. F. Johnson will give another lesson in Vocal Music this evening, Feb. 11th, in the basement of St. Luke's Church. All are cordially invited to attend to-night as the lesson is free.

A delegation of the woman's suffrage association was received by the Missouri legislature yesterday in joint session. Strong speeches were made by several ladies and gentlemen. After the adjournment of the convention, a suffrage petition was signed by the governor, lieutenant governor and 80 others, which almost assures the submission of the constitutional amendment to be voted on by the people.

Be sure and buy your Valentines of O. F. Johnson & Co.

A Washington despatch informs us that the President has pardoned Dr. Mudd, now confined at the Dry Tortugas, on a charge of complicity in the assassination of President Lincoln, also efforts are being made to secure the pardon of Arnold and Spangler, the two remaining prisoners confined on this charge, and there is reason to believe they will be successful.

It is thought the B. & M. Road will reach the Missouri river by January, 1870.—Register.

"Twit, eh? Where did you get your information? Guess you haven't heard from this section lately. Come out this way and look at the gangs of workmen pushing things right along; look at the long lines of grading rapidly approaching each other, and these all ready for the rails; cast your eyes along at the various stations on the line between Afton and the Missouri, and see the depot grounds that are being cleared, the buildings going up, &c.; look at all these certain signs of speedy completion and then go home and tell the world that 'it is certain the B. & M. Road will run through trains from Burlington to Glenwood before the leaves of the forest shall fall, nipped by the frosts of another autumn.'—Opinion.

B. & M. R. R.

"We all know how this same Company has bamboozled Plattsmouth, and how it continues to hector that town and Cass county. For years this has been going on and the Burlington Railroad will be nearer being built to that place than it was five years ago."

We copy the foregoing scrap from a late number of the Nebraska City Press, not for the purpose of thanking our temporary for the sympathy implied, nor yet for the purpose of endorsing, in any degree, the charge so gratuitously made against the Burlington & Missouri River Railroad Company, or any of its Agents, for fancied enquiring with the localities named, on the railroad question which has of late taken a new impulse, but simply to show the sourness of stomach which troubles our neighbors after the late outburst of enthusiasm excited by the sight of a couple of railroad officials. We trust our contemporaries will, upon a sober second thought and a full survey of the whole ground, think better of the whole matter, and so gradually resume their accustomed equanimity of temper, and, like ourselves patiently await the development of events. We ourselves have sometimes chafed and yielded to fits of impatience in view of what we have imagined unnecessary tardiness in the movements of the Company, but never in the darkest hour of our prospects have we indulged in harsh utterances against the B. & M. Company on the ground of unfair or dishonest dealings with us on this question. That Company's conduct toward us has been uniformly marked with candor, and courtesy, and consistency. In our eagerness to pry into and ascertain their purposes and ulterior designs, we may have manifested undue importunity, but no one may charge us with having lost our sense of justice toward the Company, or having indulged in railing against its agents. As often as we have approached them upon this vital question vital to our county, we have been met with politeness and have been informed that if they at any time were ready and desirous to communicate with us on the subject, they would give us due notice and receive any proposition which we might feel disposed to offer to the Company as an inducement to take Cass county in the line of communication westward, into the fertile prairies of Nebraska. We are satisfied because we have the utmost confidence in the honor and ability of the company to fulfill all its contracts, and we have so much confidence in the wisdom of its Directors, as to feel assured that they will pursue the course which will be for the ultimate advantage of both the Company and the people of South Nebraska, and whether they shall decide to take Plattsmouth, or Nebraska City, or any intermediate point on the river, in their course, we shall give an earnest approval. The Burlington Company is no wild cat Company, but one of the most powerful corporations in the West, seeking to penetrate the fertile prairie lands of South Nebraska, and will become a powerful agent in the development of our boundless resources, by bringing within our reach the vast coal fields of Iowa, and ruttling us in direct communication with the best pineries of Minnesota and Wisconsin. Let us then lay aside all local jealousies and merge all personal interests in the accomplishment of this great end.

About five years ago Mr. Thos. Thomas, of this county, picked a few kernels of wheat from some canary seed in Black & Butters store, and concluded to try the experiment of cultivating them. The first year the crop was destroyed by vermin, except a few stalks from which he obtained 90 grains; the product of these 90 grains, up to this year, is 42 bushels, notwithstanding the grasshoppers do serious damage to it during the past two years. Mr. Thomas thinks from what experience he has had with this new kind of wheat (which, from the method of obtaining it he calls Canary Wheat) that it will yield about 50 bushels to the acre with a fair opportunity. It makes good flour, of a yellowish cast, raises well and makes a good biscuit as our best spring wheat flour. In order that the seed may be preserved, and others may have a chance to try this wheat, Mr. Thomas proposes to dispose of a small quantity at $3.00 per bushel.

He also has a small quantity of the famous "Surprise Oats," from which he raised 2 1/2 bushels from 2 quarts the first season; and this year 44 1/2 bushels from the 2 1/2, notwithstanding the grasshoppers both seasons, after they were headed out. The Oats will be disposed of, in small quantities, at $3.00 per bushel. Specimens of the Wheat and Oats can be seen by calling on Mr. Thomas, or at the Herald office.

FARMERS

Don't you buy the Wier, Deor or any other Cultivator until you go to Forgy's shop and examine E. Newlon's Celebrated Patent Walking Cultivator. It is the champion. C. E. Forgy is manufacturing them, and is making the shoes out of the best refined cast steel, and the wood work of the best timber that can be had. This Plow is victorious wherever exhibited with others. This Plow took the premium over the Wier Plow in his own county. See testimonials:

This is to certify that I attended the Iowa State Fair, held at Clinton, October 1, 2, 3 and 4, 1868, and my Improved Cultivator was examined and found to be one of the best out of the different Cultivators. Premium withheld.

Ed. Newlon.

Illinois State Fair, Quincy, September, 1868.—Newlon's Cultivator was examined and found to be one of four of the best on the ground. Premium withheld.

Ed. Newlon.

Pickaway county, Ohio, Sept. 1868.—Newlon's Cultivator was awarded the first premium over all others.

Orin LUTREY Agent.

I certify that my Cultivator was awarded the first premium in Warren county, Illinois, over all others in 1865.

(Take notice, this is in Wier's own county.)

Wier's Plow was at all of these Fairs, except in Ohio, and I beat him every time.

Ed. Newlon.

Levi Todd, Esq., Mt. Pleasant, Mo., writes: "I have used Newlon's Cultivator, and it has ever used this plow in Nebraska, except some of his neighbors, and after giving it a thorough trial with several other Plows, including the Wier Plow, is decidedly in favor of Newlon's Improved Champion Cultivator."

Flowing Marches.

I attended a match at Col. Hutchison's. There were 15 different Cultivators present. Every plow in the match had either diamond or twisted shovels, except mine. I was one out of five of the best 15. Premium withheld.

Ed. Newlon.

North Henderson, Ill.—Newlon's Plow victorious over all others at a plowing match here.

J. C. MESSENGER.

This is to certify that I attended the State Fair of Nebraska, and Newlon's Cultivator was examined and it was found to be one of the best of two out of seven. Premium withheld.

C. E. Forgy.

Reasons why you should buy of Forgy:

1st. The shovels are of the best cast steel, which no other shovel plow can boast successfully.

2d. It is much easier handled.

3d. It is much lighter on your team.

4th. They are made at home and the money you pay for the plow stays here; and you can get it in the fall with the corn you raise.

5th. If your plow breaks, you know where to go with it. If you break it in the morning, you can get it in the afternoon, and have it ready for use by evening.

6th. The Plow is nicely arranged to raise or lower, to suit high or low corn.

7th. They are the best in use.

8th. They are all warranted to give the best of satisfaction after three days fair trial.
