

CORRESPONDENCE.

We are desirous of receiving correspondence from all parts of the State...

Governor McClurg, of Missouri, has pardoned, at one stroke, thirty-four convicts in the penitentiary...

A JURY.

Judge Lane, of New York, has decided that nothing less than twelve men can constitute a jury within the meaning of the Constitution...

COLFAX.

Is the name of the new county formed from the eastern portion of Platte county at the recent session of the Legislature...

INDIAN POLICY.

The dispatches indicate that Gen. Grant will inaugurate an entire new system in regard to Indian affairs...

The Southern Nebraskan says, "we have just learned upon good authority, that the Indian reservation in the south east part of Nebraska and northeast Kansas has been bought by the Government...

We clip the following from the editorial columns of the New York Tribune. A greater compliment to the resources of our young State could not be made...

"Within nine years past the Nebraska lands have increased most in value. They sell now for nearly four times as much as they did just before the war...

A HUGE MISTAKE.

We notice that nearly every paper in the State has published the amount charged by the State Land Commissioners for locating lands at about ten times more than it is...

$41,000.

Some parties have endeavored to create the impression among the people that railroad companies did not and would not pay taxes into the county treasuries of the different counties in Nebraska...

We see from the proceedings of the Missouri Legislature that the State has a lien on the Hannibal and St. Joe Railroad for $3,000,000.

A DECEPTION.

We learn the story is being circulated, to some extent, that the recent enactment of the Legislature legalizing certain bonds, has the effect to legalize the vote taken in this county some two years ago...

SECTION-LINE ROADS.

There appears to be a misunderstanding on the part of many as to what action was taken by the recent Legislature in regard to declaring section-line public highways...

BONDS.

Some of our good people, and among them some of the very best citizens of Cass county, argue against giving any aid to Railroad corporations...

squarely on the side of assisting railroads from the first. Dodge county has reaped her reward, and last though not least, look at Douglas county with the terminus of the greatest road in the world...

State Land Commissioners.

Whatever may be the judgment of the people regarding the reasonableness of these bills, it should be understood that these commissioners were instructed to select the lands as far as possible, from actual observation and examination...

A New York Colony for Nebraska.

A meeting of the Excelsior colony of Nebraska was held on Saturday evening at No. 65 East Broadway, Mr. Louis A. Walker in the chair...

RAILROADS VS. MECHANICS.

Mr. Editor:—I see by your last issue that you favor issuing bonds to aid in the construction of a railroad through Cass county westward. Now, Mr. Editor, I am opposed to issuing these bonds, and I will tell you why...

the very day it is completed you and every other man who buys his provisions will have to pay Chicago prices for the same. All kinds of farm produce will bring Chicago prices...
