

THE HERALD

IS PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY H. D. HATHAWAY, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

Office, corner Main street and Levee, second story.

Terms:— $2.50 per annum.

Rates of Advertising

Table with 2 columns: Description of ad (e.g., square of ten lines) and Rate (e.g., $1.00).

All transient advertisements must be paid for in advance.

We are prepared to do all kinds of printing.

A short notice, and in a style that will satisfy.

WILLITT POTTEGER, ATTORNEY AT LAW, PLATTSMOUTH - NEBRASKA.

T. MARQUETT, ATTORNEY AT LAW, PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA.

S. F. COOPER, ATTORNEY AND COUNSELOR AT LAW, PLATTSMOUTH, Neb.

Will buy and sell Real Estate, and pay taxes for non-residents.

J. W. RAWLINS, M. D., PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.

Office on Main street, opposite Court House, Plattsouth, Nebraska.

R. R. LIVINGSTON, M. D., Physician and Surgeon.

Office on Main street, opposite Court House, Plattsouth, Nebraska.

Platte Valley House, Ed. B. MURPHY, Proprietor.

Corner of Main and Fourth Streets, Plattsouth, Neb.

H. S. JENNINGS, ATTORNEY AT LAW, General Land Agent, Lincoln, Nebraska.

Will practice in any of the Courts of the State, and will buy and sell Real Estate on commission, P. O. Box 100, Lincoln, Neb.

S. MAXWELL, SAM. M. CHAPMAN, Maxwell & Chapman, ATTORNEYS AT LAW, and Solicitors in Chancery.

Office over Black, Battery & Co's Drug Store, Plattsouth, Neb.

Plattsouth Mills, C. HEISEL, Proprietor.

Have recently been repaired and placed in thorough running order. Custom work done on short notice.

100,000 Bushels of Wheat, Waded immediately, for which the big set marks price will be paid.

J. N. WISE, General Life, Accident, Fire, Inland and Transit INSURANCE AGENT.

Will take risks at reasonable rates in the most reliable companies in the United States.

Office at the book store, Plattsouth, Neb.

Milinery & Dressmaking, by Miss A. M. DESAIR & Mrs. R. F. KENNEDY.

Opposite the City Bakery.

We would respectfully announce to the Ladies of Plattsouth and vicinity, that we have just received a large and well selected stock of Winter Goods, consisting of Flowers, Ribbons, veils, dress trimmings, &c. &c. We will sell the cheapest goods ever sold in this city. We can accommodate all our customers and at many new ones will do so with a call. All kinds of work on our line done to order. Perfect satisfaction given or no charge.

HEALTH, COMFORT, AND ECONOMY.

3 REASONS FOR BOARDING with—

GEO. W. COLVIN, OAK STREET, PLATTSMOUTH, Two blocks northwest of Brick School-House.

He has a BATH HOUSE, free to patrons; his rooms are well ventilated, and his prices are reasonable. (July 23-1869.)

Capt. D. LABOO & CO., Wholesale and Retail Dealers in

Wines and Liquors, Also a very choice selection of Tobacco and Cigars, Main street, second door east of Seymour House, Nebraska City, Nebraska.

Are just receiving a new stock of Genuine Old Whiskey direct from Bourbon county, Ky., Bitters, &c.

Dr. J. W. THOMAS.

Having permanently located at WEeping WATER FALLS, teachers his professional services to the citizens of Cass county, Nebraska. Jan 7 1869

NOTICE.

JAMES O'NEIL is my authorized Agent for the collection of all accounts due the undersigned for medical services; his receipt will be valid for the payment of any monies on said accounts. August 14, 1867. R. R. LIVINGSTON, M. D.

Music Music!

PIANOS, ORGANS, MELODEONS!

I am agent for the best musical instruments made in America, and a reliable, well, stable, wood shed and organ of Portable Organ, or Melodeon can be purchased through my agency on liberal terms as they can from the manufacturers themselves. All instruments fully warranted. J. N. WISE, April 11

FOR SALE OR TRADE!

A good dwelling, containing six rooms, a good kitchen and bath, a well, stable, wood shed and buggy shed on the lot, situated on the corner of Seventh and Locust streets; also, a two story brick building, 25x26, with two lots, situate on Fifth street north of Main. The above property will be sold cheap for cash, or traded for an improved farm in Cass county.

For particulars apply on the premises. GEO. BOECK, Nov 18

All persons indebted to me are requested to call and settle immediately, as I must and will have them settled forthwith. GEO. BOECK, Nov 18

MILLINERY.

MRS. J. F. DOUD,

Having just received a choice selection of Millinery Goods, and a reliable, well, stable, wood shed and buggy shed on the lot, situated on the corner of Seventh and Locust streets; also, a two story brick building, 25x26, with two lots, situate on Fifth street north of Main. The above property will be sold cheap for cash, or traded for an improved farm in Cass county.

WOOLWORTH & CO., BOOKSELLERS, Stationers, Binders & Paperdealers.

SAINT JOSEPH, MO., Oct 26m

TO THE WORKING CLASSES—I am now prepared to furnish all classes with constant employment at their homes, the whole of the time, or for the spare moments. Business new, light and profitable. Fifty cents to $1 per evening, is easily earned by persons of either sex, and the boys and girls can nearly as much as men. Great inducements are offered those who will devote their whole time to the business. I will send you the full particulars, directions, &c., sent free. To all who are not well satisfied with the business, I will send $1 to pay for the trouble of writing me. Full particulars, directions, &c., sent free. Sample sent by mail for 10 cts. Address, Nov 18

LIVERY, FEED, AND Sale Stable.

WM. J. HYATT, Proprietor, PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA.

First-rate Stabling and Wagon Yards for the accommodation of the public, also a good stock of HORSES AND CARRIAGES to let on very reasonable terms. Stable on Main street, near opposite the SHERMAN HOUSE, Plattsouth, Neb. Dec 11

SHANNON'S Feed, Sale and Livery STABLE.

MAIN ST., - - - PLATTSMOUTH

I am prepared to accommodate the public with Horses, Carriages and Buggies, Also, a nice Hearse.

On short notice and reasonable terms. A Hack will run to steamboat landing, and to all parts of the city when desired. J. W. SHANNON, May 29

DR. M. H. M'CLUSKY,

DENTIST, Will be at Dr. Livingston's Office during the last week in each month. All orders left in the post office will promptly be attended to. July 8

NEW TOBACCO STORE!

ON MAIN STREET, OPPOSITE COURT HOUSE, PLATTSMOUTH, NEB., We have on hand a large assortment of CIGARS & TOBACCO, Consisting of the best qualities of CIGARS, FINE CUT, PLUG AND MOKING TOBACCO.

As we deal exclusively in Tobacco we can sell as cheap, if not cheaper than any other store in the city. Give us a call before you purchase elsewhere, and we know you will go away satisfied. B. BRON & CO., February 11, 1869.

R. S. PERLOCK, Co. Clerk and Recorder, R. BAKER WINDHAM, Deputy Clerk & Rec'r, Spierlock & Windham, PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA.

FRONT ROOMS OF COURT HOUSE, Clerk and Treasurer's Office.

LANDS BOUGHT & SOLD, Titles Examined, and Conveyances Made, Taxes paid and receipts forwarded promptly. Plattsouth, June 18, 1869—211.

ONE OF THE LOST ARTS.

An anecdote of Wendell Phillips has recently come to our knowledge, and we think it too good to be kept longer out of print. About a year ago Mr. Phillips arrived in a certain Western town to deliver his lecture on the Lost Arts. He had been particularly requested by the Secretary to give that lecture and no other; but, after getting to the town, he learned from a friend that the literary association for which he was to lecture had been so manipulated as to fall into the hands of a Committee of Democrats, who had sworn to abolish from their platform all political discussions, especially those which involved the treatment of black folks. By the mere engagement of the great lion of abolitionism the committee expected to show their impartiality, by confining him to the Lost Arts they thought they had chained him to a period in the history of the world, and they felt inclined to pat their own backs over their shrewd management. "I'll fix 'em," quietly remarked Mr. Phillips. The hour arrived, huge audience; Democratic committee hugely delighted that they had the abolition orator on a safe subject. Mr. Phillips was introduced on the very emphatic announcement that he was to lecture on the Lost Arts. What was the horror of the committee as the orator proceeded during the first fifteen minutes to describe the Democratic party as one of the Lost Arts, tracing its career with his own terrible sarcasm, invective and ridicule. After thus punishing the committee to his heart's content, the orator wheeled around into antiquity and went on with the lecture as usual. Meantime the committee learned a useful lesson in the philosophy of free discussion, and came to the conclusion that any lecturer who is worth hearing is rather disinclined to being put into a cage.—Independent.

How "Dixie" Became the "March-rite" of the South During the War.

In the first place, the song and chorus of "Dixie" was composed and arranged by Dan. Emmet, a member of a traveling minstrel party, who, while at Mobile, in the winter of 1867-8, heard some negro laborers singing on the levee while loading a steamboat with cotton. The thought struck Dan, that, with a little change of measure, it could be made a good song and "walk around," which generally winds up a negro minstrel concert. Dan arranged it and produced it. It became a success, and was sung and played all over the country by all the hands. In the spring of 1861, Mrs. John Wood came to New Orleans to play an engagement at the Varieties Theater. During the time she appeared in Brougham's burlesque of "Pocahontas." At the first rehearsal of the piece everything went well till near the close of the second act. Tom McDonough (now agent for the Leffingwells) the prompter, got up a zouave march and drill by twenty-two ladies, led by Susan Denin. Everything ran smoothly, but the music for the march could not be fixed upon. Carlo Patti was leader of the orchestra, and he tried several marches, but none suited McDonough; one was too slow, another was too tame, and another not enough of spirit. At length Patti struck up the air of "Dixie." "That will do, Patti—the very thing," said Tom, and "Dixie" was played and the march gone through with, and the chorus by all the characters, and "Pocahontas" had a "run," and from that time out the streets and parlors rang with "Dixie." The war broke out that spring, and the military bands took it up, and "Dixie" became to the South what the "Marseillaise Hymn" was to the French. And that is how it became the popular song of the South.—Memphis Post.

A BEAR JOKE.—The following conversation is said to have taken place the other day:

Judge —, who is a lover of the very highest order of drama, met a well known theatrical manager and thus addressed him: "Well, my old Thespian friend, I hope you'll favor us with the legume of the coming season." "It won't pay, Judge. Sensation and limbs are the rage. I have in preparation a Russian spectacle, with the crunching snow device from Paris, and ballet robes for the actors. But the ballet troubles me, I want to outstrip all previous efforts, and still preserve the unity of the piece." "All you have to do is to bring them in on bear skins," replied the Judge sarcastically.

SENSELESS.—A handsome young widow applied to a physician to relieve her of three distressing complaints which she was afflicted with.

"In the first place," said she, "I have little or no appetite. What shall I take for that?" "For that, madam, you should take air and exercise." "And, doctor, I am quite fidgity at night time, and afraid to be alone.—What shall I take for that?" "For that I can only recommend that you take a husband."

"Fie! Doctor. But I have the blues terribly. What shall I take for that?" "For that, madam, you have, besides taking the air and a husband, to take a newspaper."

Sterne, who used his wife very ill, was one day talking to Garrick in a fine, sentimental manner, in praise of conjugal love and fidelity. "The husband," said Sterne, "who behaves unkindly to his wife deserves to have his house burnt over his head." "If you think so," said Garrick, "I hope your house is insured."

A lady asked her little girl on returning from church, if she remembered the text "Oh, yes," she said, "It was this: 'The ladies' sewing society will meet at Mr. McCracken's house, on Monday evening next.'"

"John, how does the thermometer stand?" "Against the wall, dad."

"I mean how is the mercury?" "I guess it's pretty well, it hasn't complained lately."

"You little rascal, is it colder to-day than yesterday?" "I don't know, dad, but I'll go out and feel."

"The man who raised a cabbage head has done more good than all the metaphysics in the world" said a stump orator at a meeting. "Then," replied a wag, "your mother ought to have the premium."

A small child, being asked by a Sunday School teacher, "What did the Israelites do after they crossed the Red Sea?" answered: "I don't know, ma'am, but I guess they dried themselves."

The Boston Coliseum is already more than half completed; twenty-four hundred gas burners are required to light it.

IT IS DEMONSTRATED

That Southern Nebraska is a perfect paradise for fruit growing. The counties of Richardson, Nemaha, Otoe and Cass have now a good many elegant orchards in full fruitage. Apples, cherries, plums, pears, grapes, and all kinds of berries and currants, together with a goodly show of apricots, may now be seen in either of the above counties, growing luxuriantly, and promising their patient protectors and owners a generous realization of all their hopes and expectations. The fruit farm of Col. Robert W. Furnas, near Brownville, is said to be a perfection in its way, and a complete vindication of the Colonel's early faith in the adaptation of our soil and climate to fruit culture. In Otoe, Joel Draper, John W. Gillmore, Judge Mason, William Low, J. Sterling Morton, Sheppard, and many others, have splendid showings for pears, plums, apples, &c., in great abundance. In Cass county, the home farm of the late Col. Thomas Patterson, the Broad-Cole farm, and the Oldham place, are proving that fruit in Nebraska is a complete success. These facts should encourage every man to put out an orchard at once, and thus secure to himself and family one of the greatest enjoyments of a rational home-lover. Our own faith has always been good and strong; but now the verification of all our predictions in regard to fruit culture, makes us feel like one who has neither preached nor practiced orcharding in vain, and so we rejoice with exceeding glad joy, and say unto all men who contemplate making homes in Nebraska: Fail not to plant out fruit trees and take care of them, and thus you shall have luscious and health giving food for yourselves and family.—News.

RICH WITHOUT MONEY

Many a man is rich without money. Thousands of men with nothing in the pocket, and thousands even without a pocket, are rich. A man born with a good sound constitution, a good stomach, a good heart, and good limbs, and a good head piece, is rich. Good bones are better than gold—tough muscles, than silver; and nerves that flash fire and carry energy to every function, are better than houses and lands. It is better than landed estate to have the right kind of father and mother. Education may do much to check evil tendencies, or to develop goodness; but it is a great thing to inherit the right proportion of faculties to start with. That man is rich who has a good disposition—who is naturally kind, patient, cheerful, hopeful, and who has a flavor of wit and fun in his composition. The hardest thing to get along with in this life is a man's own self.—A cross, selfish—a depending and complaining fellow—a timid, care burdened man—these are all deformed on the inside. Their feet may not limp, but their thoughts do.

IMPORTANT DECISION.

The United States Supreme Court, in Dubuque, Stewart vs. Austin Corbin, in which a deed given to the defendant by the Treasurer of Muscatine county for eighty acres of land in Moscow township, including the dwelling of Mr. Stewart, is declared null and void for become so annoying that the lady started out in search of the offender, who she finds has been sailing under her name. A warning was extended to the author of so much unhappiness that she must desist from her detestable falsehoods or she will be made to suffer the extreme penalty of the law. A private letter, dated Cimmaron City, New Mexico, May 13, speaking of the mines at that place, says: "The mines are paying bigger than ever. One mill stamped out $16,000 in seven days. This is actually true. I have on my counter now a lump of retorted gold weighing ten pounds, and the owner of the mill says he will, tomorrow night, clean up $20,000—seven days' run. I know these items seem steep to those who cannot behold them, but you can rest assured they are literally true. A Texas sheriff and a posse of citizens recently overtook John Moyer, a noted desperado, and proposed to him to surrender, upon which he commenced firing and emptied his six-shooter, firing deliberately and unexcitedly, while two double-barrel shot guns and a pistol were working on him. He killed a horse, but hurt none of his assailants, and finally fell with fourteen shots in him, with his discharged repeater in one hand and a loaded Derringer in the other. A little five year old boy was being instructed in morals by his mother. The old lady told him that all such terms as "by golly," "by jingo," "by thunder," etc., were only minced oaths, and but little better than any other profanity. In fact, she said, he could tell a profane oath by the prefix "by"—all such were oaths. "Well, then, mother," said the little hopeful, "there's a big oath in the newspapers, 'By Telegraph.'" The old lady gave it up, and the boy is bewildered on morals.

THE REV. HENRY WARD BEECHER IS QUITE HOPEFUL, AS MAY BE SEEN FROM THE FOLLOWING PASSAGE IN A RECENT SERMON OF HIS: "I believe the time will yet come when our offices will be filled with honest men; that men can go to the Legislature and not be corrupted; that a man can be a judge and yet go to heaven."

Genlemen of the jury, have you agreed? What is your verdict?" "We find the prisoner not guilty, if he will leave town."

MISCELLANEOUS.

The French cable will not land at Cape May as reported, but at Duxbury, Mass.

It is said that the next theological novel on the subject of the future life, will be entitled "The Gates Of the Hinges."

There are fifteen yacht clubs in England, and it is estimated they give employment to one thousand persons.

Between the 1st of January and the 14th of May, 81,658 immigrants arrived in New York.

Street preachers and burnt cork minstrels were the competing attractions in a New York park last Sabbath.

The Grand Jury of Owen county, Ky., have found an indictment against a woman for witchcraft.

"See here, mister," said a lad of seven summers, who was driven up a tree by a ferocious dog, "if you don't take that dog away, I will eat up all your apples."

A party of White Pine miners occupy a house worth $75,000. It is built of chloride ore, and will be run thro' the mill when the owners are prepared to move.

"Why will you persist in wearing another woman's hair on your head?" asked Acid of his wife. She retorted, "Why will you persist in wearing other sheep's wool on your back?"

The following German translations have been proposed for the word vegetable: Tretwagen, scnellwage, reitgaul, reitfabzeug, rittling, rittlingsfahre, strampelwagen, eiseganal, sellata and renhold.

A traveler in Pennsylvania asked the landlord if they had any cases of sunstroke in that town. "No, sir," said the landlord, "if a man gets drunk here, we say he is drunk, and never call it by any other name."

The bootblacks of New York have formed a protective association, the members of which wear badges, and are bound not to "shine 'em up" for less than ten cents. A violation of this rule entails a fine of twenty-five cents.

An Iowa man who was afraid of burglars, buried $8,000 in bonds in his cellar. A short time since he dug them up and found they were completely rotten, and would not bear handling. He has appealed to the Government to redeem them.

In Indianapolis, on Saturday last, a marriage license was issued to a young couple who have already been once married and divorced, and who are even age—he under twenty-one and she under eighteen.

An important meeting of members of the Methodist church to consider the subject of lay representation was held at Pittsburgh on Monday evening. Bishop Simpson made a very able and elaborate argument in favor of the proposition, and Bishop Kingsley spoke briefly in its advocacy. The question is to be decided by the next General Conference.

A lady of Cleveland has been for some months past subjected to many most unpleasant incidents and slanderous statements, because of a strong resemblance, in face and form, to a notorious courtesan. These incidents have lately become so annoying that the lady started out in search of the offender, who she finds has been sailing under her name. A warning was extended to the author of so much unhappiness that she must desist from her detestable falsehoods or she will be made to suffer the extreme penalty of the law.

A private letter, dated Cimmaron City, New Mexico, May 13, speaking of the mines at that place, says: "The mines are paying bigger than ever. One mill stamped out $16,000 in seven days. This is actually true. I have on my counter now a lump of retorted gold weighing ten pounds, and the owner of the mill says he will, tomorrow night, clean up $20,000—seven days' run. I know these items seem steep to those who cannot behold them, but you can rest assured they are literally true. A Texas sheriff and a posse of citizens recently overtook John Moyer, a noted desperado, and proposed to him to surrender, upon which he commenced firing and emptied his six-shooter, firing deliberately and unexcitedly, while two double-barrel shot guns and a pistol were working on him. He killed a horse, but hurt none of his assailants, and finally fell with fourteen shots in him, with his discharged repeater in one hand and a loaded Derringer in the other. A little five year old boy was being instructed in morals by his mother. The old lady told him that all such terms as "by golly," "by jingo," "by thunder," etc., were only minced oaths, and but little better than any other profanity. In fact, she said, he could tell a profane oath by the prefix "by"—all such were oaths. "Well, then, mother," said the little hopeful, "there's a big oath in the newspapers, 'By Telegraph.'" The old lady gave it up, and the boy is bewildered on morals.

Henry Ward Beecher recently baptized a large number of candidates for membership into his church, but he made the ladies remove their false curls, and chignons before they went down to the water.

Henry Ward Beecher compares the different religious denominations to the different pockets in a suit of clothes, and says it is little consequence whether one goes to heaven in an inside or outside pocket.

A stump speaker exclaimed: "I know no North, no South, no East, no West, fellow citizens!" "Then," exclaimed an old farmer in the crowd, "it's time you went to school and larn jography."

Two "ladies" were having some words together when the daughter of one of them popped her head out of the door and cried, "Be quick mother, and call her a thief before she calls you one."

YO-SEMITE FALLS IN CALIFORNIA.—In the deep valley Yo Semite, are several falls far surpassing in height the falls of Niagara. At the lower end of the valley is the cascade called the Bridal Veil, the water pouring over the rocky wall a distance of 900 feet. Two or three miles beyond are the Yo Semite, where the water falls in three plunges a distance of 2,800 feet, the first leap being nearly 1,800 feet, the next 400 and the last 600 feet. In looking from the bottom of the gorge at the immense height from which the water descends, the stream which is 87 feet in breadth at the top seems to be only about a foot and a half wide.

SALT MANUFACTURE.

Mr. Joel T. Griffin had the kindness to place on our table yesterday a sack of salt, manufactured at the Bains in this State. It is certainly the neatest, whitest, and it is said to be, what we have no doubt it is, chemically one of the richest and purest specimens of salt that can be produced in any country. Mr. Griffin is engaged with Mr. Tichenor in salt manufacture in Lancaster, and the specimen before us was taken from a large quantity of the same article as it lay in the salt bin at the manufactory, where fifty barrels a day is now being made by boiling process.

Our faith is, as it has always been, strong in the Lancaster salines. We have never doubted that they would one day prove a rich source to the State.

Mr. Griffin informs us that the company are now engaged upon experiments to inaugurate solar evaporation. Both wood and cement vats are being used for the purpose; and the economy of the evaporating over the boiling process will be fully, as we have every confidence that it will be successfully, tested. If cement vats can be used, and cheap material can be found to answer for covers to them, it will be a great success. If there is any country better than this for solar evaporation, we are not acquainted with it.

We look with confidence to permanent and profitable results from salt manufacture at Lancaster.—Omaha Herald.

Fanny Fern says that "A woman, by taking a big basket in her hand and leaving her hoops at home, and pinning an old shawl over her head, and tying a calico apron round her waist, may walk unmolested at any hour in the evening. I know it, because I have tried it, when I felt like having a 'prowl' all alone 'think,' without every puppy saying, at every step, 'A pleasant evening, Miss.'"

An anecdote comes from Paris of a gentleman who, when out riding, met another who was very deaf. "Riding, I see, as usual," screamed the good natured X; "and how is your wife?" "Just bought her," replied the other; "and, to tell the truth, she is a baddish lot. You know me, I never keep them if they don't suit me, and I shall get rid of her next week."

It is said that when Lord Byron sent to his wife the well known touching lines— "Fare thee well! And if forever, still forever fare thee well!" he enclosed in the same envelope a butcher's bill, with the penciled remark, "Please look over this; I don't think we had so much meat."

A contemporary says: "It is a curious fact that, though the rain keeps thousands away from Church on Sunday, it does not deter a single man from attending to his business on week days."

The further a man advances in Christianity, the more he sees of the ignorance, selfish baseness and corruption of mankind; and yet the more he loves them. The wisdom from above cannot account for this seeming impossibility.

"O mamma, mamma!" said a tow-headed urchin, in a tone of fright and penitence, "O mamma, I've been 'tweating'!" "Been swearing, my child! what did you say?" "O mamma," (beginning to sob) "I thed 'Old Dan Tucker'!"

Henry Ward Beecher recently baptized a large number of candidates for membership into his church, but he made the ladies remove their false curls, and chignons before they went down to the water.

Henry Ward Beecher compares the different religious denominations to the different pockets in a suit of clothes, and says it is little consequence whether one goes to heaven in an inside or outside pocket.

A stump speaker exclaimed: "I know no North, no South, no East, no West, fellow citizens!" "Then," exclaimed an old farmer in the crowd, "it's time you went to school and larn jography."

Two "ladies" were having some words together when the daughter of one of them popped her head out of the door and cried, "Be quick mother, and call her a thief before she calls you one."

YO-SEMITE FALLS IN CALIFORNIA.—In the deep valley Yo Semite, are several falls far surpassing in height the falls of Niagara. At the lower end of the valley is the cascade called the Bridal Veil, the water pouring over the rocky wall a distance of 900 feet. Two or three miles beyond are the Yo Semite, where the water falls in three plunges a distance of 2,800 feet, the first leap being nearly 1,800 feet, the next 400 and the last 600 feet. In looking from the bottom of the gorge at the immense height from which the water descends, the stream which is 87 feet in breadth at the top seems to be only about a foot and a half wide.