

TEMPERANCE MATTERS.

LODGE DIRECTORY. OLIVE BRANCH, No. 2—J. W. Barnes, W. C. T. Deputy, Mead, Court House Hall every Tuesday evening. Traveling Templars respectfully invited.

The Absurdity of Drinking.

It has become a sort of popular-almost national-faith that it is not possible to be truly happy unless you drink. Among certain classes, and they are by no means exclusively the lowest, drink is the beginning and end of everything.

What Breaks Down Young Men.

It is a commonly received notion that hard study is the unhealthy element of college life. But from tables of the mortality of Harvard University, collected by Professor Pierce from the last triennial catalogue, it is clearly demonstrated that the excess of deaths for the first ten years after graduation, is found in that portion of each class inferior in scholarship.

Counsels to Youth.

Let your youth ever remember that the journey of life presents few if any obstacles in its path which faith and perseverance will not overcome. Notations, however great, will be of no value to the owner without careful using.

A French lady of rank has sued for a divorce from her husband on the ground of ill treatment and desertion.

Most young men consider it a misfortune to be born poor, or not to have capital enough to establish themselves at the outset of life in a good and comfortable business. This is a mistaken notion.

CUYLER SCHOLFAX Says of Weeping Water. Extract from Letter to Mrs. Grundy.

REED BROS.

store and hitting my wife by the ears to a large freight wagon loaded with goods for the Plattsmouth retail trade. I entered, Judge of Plattsmouth when I was promptly met and offered a complete outfit, from a pair of stub-toothed boots to a goose-quill toothpick, for the paltry sum of nine dollars and sixty-two and one-half cents. If you want anything in the miscellaneous line, call on them, and if you don't see what you want for it, I would remark here that they are generous, liberal, good looking and truthful to a fault.
