MARRIAGES.

On the 6th of October, at the house of the bride's mother, by Father G. B. Matlis, Geo. Haynes and Miss Lydia Erickson.

On Sunday evening, October 3d, at the residence of Abraham Snyder, Esq., near this city, by Judge Gage, John Snyder and Miss Mary H. Hayes, all of this county.

At Eight Mile Grove, Sept. 25, by Rev. Austin, Isiah White, of Iowa, and Miss Alice Kimes, of this county.

October 5th, 1890, of inflammation of the brain, Henderson Malcom, infant son of Isaac and Elizabeth Wilks, aged one year and three months.

Thou art gone, dear Mollie, Thy lifeless form is cold; The wing of death is folded, Above thy locks of gold.

Thine eyes are closed forever, Thy gentle light is fled; The evening shadows falling, In the mansion of the dead.

Thy dimpled cheeks are folded, Above thy pale breast; Thy smiling lips are sleeping, In the grave's unbroken rest.

Thou art sleeping Mollie, In the night dark and lone; Where the beautiful stars look on thee, And the valleys wind softly moan.

We miss the dear Mollie, When the sun is shining bright; Where the beautiful stars are falling, And through the quiet night.

But the angels' hands have born thee, On wings of light and love; To the land of life and glory, And a glorious home above.

We'll strive to meet thee Mollie, When our Father's will is done; Around God's eternal throne, (Glenwood Opinion please copy.)
