The ferry-boat ran aground on a sand bar this forenoon, and remains there at the present writing.

The Shreve passed up this morning, leaving a reasonable amount of city freight.

Prof. Beals has been holding teachers institutes in the southern part of the State.

The ladies of St. Luke's Parish will hold a sociable at the residence of Mrs. M. R. R. in Nebraska. This at 44 bars to the car load, would make nearly enough iron each day to lay half a mile of track.

Treasurer Hobbs qualified and took the iron clad yesterday. He will assume the duties of his office about the 25th instant.

Farm hands are getting a dollar a-day and board in this locality, and not one half enough help can be had at that price.

The Omaha Republican is now receiving regular western specials. This is a new and important feature in newspaper business in Nebraska.

Morton charges that the low price of potatoes in Nebraska is on account of the Republican party being in power. Does he attribute the unprecedented yield to the same cause?

Mr. Wilcox, agent of the Great Western Company, left for Chicago to-day, having secured a sufficient amount of stock here to insure the early completion of the line to Lincoln.

Morton says his attention has been called to the card of John L. Redick, in the Omaha Republican. Morton does not attempt a reply. Redick carries too many guns for Sterling.

Treasurer Hobbs received a large quantity of fruit trees and shrubbery from Burlington last Monday—about $5,000 worth—which was all engrossed at this place. Weeping Water, Ashland and Lincoln.

Yesterday looked like the commencement of a storm; but this morning dawned bright and clear again. A few more weeks of fine weather can be used to great advantage by farmers and railroad men.

People are rapidly learning that lumber is sold cheaper in this city than at any other point west of the Missouri river. Hence the great rush of the past two months. It will be sold still less as soon as trains commence running through from Chicago.

Captain Hammann, of the Steamer Elk-horn, "skedaddled" from Omaha a few days since, with about $5,000 in greenbacks belonging to other parties, leaving numerous bills, great and small, unpaid. The boat belonged to the U. P. R. R. Co., and has been seized by the creditors of Capt. Hammann.

P. M. Greene, the great auction man of the West, has been selling goods cheap to-day, and proposes to keep up his sales to-morrow and Saturday. You get goods at your own price of Mr. Greene, and he sells good articles.

There are now about twenty prisoners in that miserable place called a jail, in this city. Is it not about time Cass county built a good jail where prisoners can be kept with some degree of safety and health?

A correspondent of the Omaha Herald says iron ore in large quantities, and in almost a pure state, has been found to exist in Jefferson county in this State. This region will soon be reached by the B. & M. R. R. west from Plattsburgh, and we hope the statement of the Herald correspondent may prove correct.

Mr. John O'Keefe, who has been a resident of this city since the commencement of work upon the railroad, last spring, leaves to-day for Hamlinburg, Iowa, to take charge of the grading of that portion of the Red Oak switch which is to be built this fall. John R. Boyle, of Davenport, has the contract.

The Grand Jury for this county was organized at 11 a. m. yesterday, and was discharged at noon to-day, after having found seven different indictments.—Prosecuting Attorney Cowell is entitled to the thanks of this community for the dispatch with which he enquires into criminal doings. It saves many dollars to the county.
