PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

To the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States:

In coming before you for the first time as Chief Magistrate of this nation, I feel with gratitude to the Giver of all Good for the many benefits we enjoy. We are blessed with peace at home, and are without outstanding alliances abroad to forebode trouble...

the latter, I see but one way, and that is to authorize the Treasury to redeem its own paper at a fixed price whenever presented; to withhold from circulation all such currency released until sold at a price which would restore to the nation both developed and undeveloped...

European power to another. When the proposed relations of nations are to become independent powers exercised, the right of choice or self-control in the determination of the future condition and relations with other powers...

restraint of a settlement which satisfies them in their adjustment, and their grave sense of grievance, they have sustained. The rejection of the treaty was followed by a state of feeling on both sides which I thought not favorable to an immediate attempt at renewed negotiations...

UNITED STATES MAILS. NEBRASKA.

- POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT. WASHINGTON, DECEMBER 2, 1899. PROPOSALS will be received at the Contract Office...

This space is for one insertion. Each subsequent insertion, Professional cards, notices, etc., are charged at a special rate. One-half column twelve months, $10.00.

accomplishing them, are to be conveyed without charge; and for the use of the United States flag, which is furnished, and adapted to the convenient equipment and due security of the mail. The Department is authorized to take the mail from, and deliver it into, the post office at the beginning and end of their route...
