| be looked for in a lew days, as soon as he has time to gather his "scattered thoughts." Conrad Ripple, the noted Brewer of Plattsmouth, furnished the HERALD with a keg of his best beer as a New Years present. We do not claim to be a very good judge of this kind of fluid, but we have some friends who are judges and they pronounce the cample sent us by Mr. Ripple superior to anything made in the State. Not being fully satisfied with their report, we concluded to test it ourself, and agreed with them and aband- oned the idea of getting up a minority report.
